

Maternal Health Disparities of Native American Women in South Dakota

Hosted By:

The South Dakota Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

The South Dakota Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is holding series of online public panels to hear testimony regarding maternal health disparities in South Dakota with a focus on Native American women. These meetings are open to the public. The Committee is considering maternal health disparities and their impact on Native American women on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, or national origin.

Written Testimony:

If you are not able to participate in an online panel, the Committee will also accept written testimony. Written testimony may be emailed to Mallory Trachtenberg at mtrachtenberg@usccr.gov by December 18, 2020.

Wednesday, November 18, 2020

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm CDT (2:00 pm - 3:30 pm MDT)

For audio, dial 1-800-367-2403, Conference ID: 9800799

For visual, please register at the following web link: <https://bit.ly/3iZpn2e>

The Committee will have a public comment period to hear public testimony at the end of the meeting. Members of the public are encouraged to share their perspectives and experiences with maternal health disparities of Native American women during this time. Please join the call early if you wish to speak and keep comments to around 3-5 minutes.

U.S. COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

The Committee may hold additional meetings in 2020 to gather additional testimony on this topic. For information regarding upcoming meetings please contact the Regional Programs Unit at the phone numbers to the left. The Committee will issue its findings and recommendations to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights after all testimony has been received.

Regional Programs Unit

Tel: (202) 921-2212
Tel: (202) 809-9618
www.usccr.gov

Please plan to use both the call-in number and the above web access link in order to fully participate in the meeting.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights. For information about the Commission, please visit <http://www.usccr.gov> and follow us on Twitter and Facebook.