3	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The meeting will come
4	to order. This is a meeting of the U.S. Commission on
5	Civil Rights. It is 9:37 Eastern Standard Time on
6	August 13th, 2010. All commissioners are present at
7	624 9th Street with the exception of Commissioner
8	Melendez, who is participating by phone.
9	I. APPROVAL OF AGENDA
10	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The first item on the
11	agenda is the approval of the agenda. I move that it
12	be adopted. Is there a second?
13	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Second.
14	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion?
15	(No response.)
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All those in favor of
17	the motion, please say, "Aye."
18	(Chorus of ayes.)
19	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any objections?
20	(No response.)
21	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any abstentions?
22	(No response.)
23	II. PROGRAM PLANNING
24	- NBPP ENFORCEMENT PROJECT
25	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The motion passes

Page 4 unanimously. First up is an update on the New Black 1 2 Panther Party enforcement report. Mr. General 3 Counsel, please provide us with an update on the 4 recent developments in the investigation. 5 MR. BLACKWOOD: Good morning. As you are 6 aware and received copies, we got a letter from the 7 Department of Justice, specifically from Assistant 8 Attorney General Perez, on August 11th, in which Mr. 9 Perez indicated that they would not allow Christopher 10 Coates to testify before the Commission, even with the 11 compromise that we had proposed, with regards to the 12 status of the report. 13 Each of you should get a copy of the 14 report electronically later this afternoon. It will 15 come in at approximately 100 pages, but that is because it is double-spaced. When it actually is 16 17 printed, I still believe our estimate of 25 to 30 18 pages is more accurate. This is the draft? 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: 20 MR. BLACKWOOD: That is correct. Tt is 21 One thing that you will see is the the draft. 22 citations are perhaps not the standard citations. That is simply the citations to the record are there 23 24 for informational purposes because it is still our 25 implement hyperlinks into purpose to the report.

1	We'll be working with editors to do that. But for
2	purposes of your reviewing the report by the
3	commissioners, you will see the cites and be able to
4	find the transcript references that we have.
5	And, lastly, we will as I mentioned
б	before, while it is our intention to eventually
7	release the report for the most part electronically,
8	we are going to publish and print approximately one to
9	two thousand hard copies of the report, which should
10	be in a slightly different format since we're not
11	going to be able to use the hyperlinks. But that way
12	the public will be able to reach the report, both
13	electronically and in print.
14	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any questions?
15	(No response.)
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano,
17	you have a motion that was a proposed motion.
18	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Before we do that,
19	I would like to at least discuss or begin a
20	discussion, see if other commissioners find Perez's
21	letters breathtaking and insulting, as I do.
22	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I didn't.
23	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You do?
24	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I didn't.
25	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Oh, you didn't.

Page 6 Okay. Well, let me --1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I did not either. 3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Thank you. Let me 4 explain why, then, I --5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I did, by the way. 6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I find it -- and 7 so did I. 8 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Breathtaking and 9 insulting. COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I didn't find it 10 11 breathtaking. I found it contemptuous. 12 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Contemptuous? 13 Insulting, too? 14 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Nonresponsive. 15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. We have sworn testimony before the Commission that the Deputy 16 17 Assistant Attorney General, Julie Fernandes, 18 instructed the management of the voting section when 19 Chris Coates was the head of the voting section to 20 never file another voting rights lawsuit against a black or other national minority. And the Department 21 22 has still neither admitted, denied, or commented on 23 that statement. 24 But what is more remarkable is that when 25 Assistant Attorney General Perez was at the witness

1 table before us, he asked us to bring any such 2 statement to his attention. And the Chairman did 3 raise it to his attention and explained that that is 4 why we wanted Chris Coates.

5 And that was the basis of Commissioner Kirsanow's motion, that we would agree to have Chris 6 7 Coates not for the deliberative process matters that 8 were part of our hearing but were -- we would be willing to have Chris Coates testify just about the 9 10 policy statements that Julie, other policy statements 11 that Julie Fernandes and others made, hostility to the race-neutral enforcement of the civil rights laws, the 12 culture that Christian Adams testified to in the 13 14 Division, hostility to race-neutral enforcement.

And, yet, in Perez's response to us, he does not even acknowledge the statements that we raised to his attention. He does not acknowledge that he is investigating. He does not acknowledge that he has done anything.

20 And, yet, he refuses to allow, continues to refuse to allow, Chris Coates to testify when it's 21 22 clear that he would have relevant and material evidence to present to the Commission about what are 23 24 now the central concerns that this Commission has 25 whether hostility against uncovered, there is а

Page 8 race-neutral enforcement of the civil 1 rights and 2 specific instructions from the Obama political 3 appointees to enforce the voting laws in 4 race-conscious ways. 5 So it's rather dumfounding to me that he 6 doesn't acknowledge those statements and he continues 7 to refuse to allow Chris Coates to testify. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki? 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, I can't disagree 10 more with the characterization of the letter by Commissioner Gaziano. The fact of the matter is that 11 12 Assistant Secretary Perez did answer the question by 13 simply stating a fact that was conveniently omitted in 14 the statement by Commissioner Gaziano. And that is, 15 you know, there is this continuing mantra. 16 There is sworn testimony. There was sworn 17 testimony by one individual, who is no longer an 18 employee about a statement by another individual, who said he heard it from a third individual. 19 I mean, the 20 evidentiary problems for that alone are mind-boggling to consider. 21 22 But, taking that aside, what Commissioner Gaziano failed to state and which I think is the 23 24 central tenet of why that particular testimony is 25 extremely uncredible, to say the least, is that

1	witness came here before this Commission and said, "I
2	will bet" and he said those words, "I will bet that
3	you will see this policy, the so-called policy, of
4	racial hostility toward non-enforcing against whites,"
5	whatever.
6	You will see that in the Noxubee case. I
7	will bet you they will not do anything in the Noxubee
8	case. And the fact of the matter is
9	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: No, he didn't say
10	that.
11	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes, he did.
12	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No, no, no, no, no.
13	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That is not
14	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have the transcript.
15	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That is false.
16	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have the transcript.
17	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Folks, folks, folks.
18	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have the transcript.
19	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: We have the
20	transcript.
21	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Do you want me to get
22	the transcript out?
23	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano,
24	let him finish.
25	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have the transcript.

Γ

1	I am ready to roll. You may not have the transcript.
2	He said, "I will bet." he used those words. Are you
3	denying that he used those words?
4	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He
5	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are you denying that
6	he used those words?
7	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: He used several
8	alternatives.
9	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are you denying that
10	he used those words?
11	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: The entire
12	sentence
13	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are you denying
14	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: You are
15	cherry-picking what he said.
16	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are you denying that
17	he used the word "bet"?
18	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He said very
19	COMMISSIONER YAKI: You are denying.
20	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: "Bet"?
21	COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's what he said,
22	"bet."
23	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Different
24	alternatives
25	COMMISSIONER YAKI: He lost.

Page 11 1 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: would _ _ 2 demonstrate unequivocally --3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: He lost. 4 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- that they are 5 not --6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: He lost. 7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- neutral fashion. 8 And you know it. 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: He completely lost. 10 And he can --11 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: You cannot --12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And you can deny --CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 13 14 Commissioner Yaki. 15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: They filed in the 16 Noxubee case. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are you denying that 19 they filed in the Noxubee case? 20 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I am telling you 21 22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We cannot have this useless exchange. Commissioner Yaki, please finish 23 24 your statement. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, I would have

Page 12 liked to have finished my statement because the mere 1 2 fact is in the Noxubee case, which apparently you're 3 unwilling to admit, the Department of Justice did 4 respond. And they did file. In fact, they went 5 beyond what Adams predicted they may or may not do. 6 But he bet they wouldn't. He did say that. He gave, "Well, maybe 7 8 they might do" one, two, three, but he bet they wouldn't do any of them. 9 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, may 11 I ask you a question? COMMISSIONER YAKI: The fact of the matter 12 is that in that letter by Assistant Secretary Perez, 13 14 _ _ CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki? 15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- he talked about the 16 17 Noxubee filing. Commissioner Yaki? 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes? 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Before you go on, may 21 I ask you a question? 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You may. My letter didn't focus 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: 24 on Noxubee. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: True. I think Noxubee

Page 13 is the answer because --1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We have --3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- the part of --4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, let 5 me get my question out. 6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Sure. 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: What I was trying to 8 do -- we have an allegation that was made by Adams. 9 We have a fact on the table that has not been directly 10 addressed by the Department of Justice. It seems to 11 me that we went out of our way to avoid the 12 deliberative process issue. We wanted Coates 13 primarily as a fact witness. 14 The statement made by Fernandes, was that 15 statement -- can he support Adams' statement or will Julie Fernandes he refute Adams' statement that 16 17 instructed management that it would not enforce voting 18 laws against racial minorities defendants? rights 19 That is the issue on the table. 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: No, no, no. That's --21 Mr. Chairman, with all due respect --22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And do you --COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- that is the issue 23 24 as you characterized it. 25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Let me ask a question.

Page 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The issue really on 1 2 the table --3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, it's my letter. 4 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- which was -- it may 5 be your letter. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm telling you --7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But your letter 8 doesn't speak for me, and your letter doesn't speak for me, and your letter doesn't speak for the 9 10 Department of Justice. 11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No, no, no, no, no. 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Nor does your letter 13 speak to the actions of --14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, if 15 I understood what started this conversation, it was 16 the letter and the response to it. 17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: If you want to discuss other issues --18 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No. I am --20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Let's be clear on what 21 it is I am talking about. It is precisely about the 22 letter because this is the point that I am making. The point that I am making is that we have this 23 24 continued talking about this sworn testimony by this 25 one witness.

Page 15 But the fact of the matter is is that one 1 witness does not a conspiracy make. 2 3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Agreed. Agreed. COMMISSIONER YAKI: And --4 5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: But we're talking 6 about another witness. 7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And if you have --8 thank you very much for that irrelevant remark. Τf 9 you are talking about --10 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Quite relevant, I 11 would say. That's what this is about. 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: If you are talking 13 about a policy -- and that's what you were talking 14 about, is a policy -- then I would argue and I think 15 that this letter from Perez argues very well that, no 16 matter what Adams thinks he heard from someone else, 17 who thought he heard it from somebody else -- because, 18 remember, that's the chain here. Adams did not hear 19 this. 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He heard some of it 21 directly. He denied it. 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: He denied it. He did 23 not --24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He heard it from 25 Melendez himself.

1	COMMISSIONER YAKI: He did not hear that
2	particular statement directly.
3	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.
4	COMMISSIONER YAKI: We can go back to the
5	transcript.
б	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We don't agree.
7	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He heard some
8	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. We don't agree
9	on that. We don't agree on that point.
10	COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's a different
11	question, Commissioner Gaziano.
12	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I would like to hear
13	from Coates on that matter.
14	COMMISSIONER YAKI: The fact of the matter
15	is that what
16	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: The Chairman's
17	letter
18	COMMISSIONER YAKI: you did not say and
19	what this letter says and what the filing says in
20	black and white is that there is no policy, there is
21	no fire. All this blowing smoke is just that.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner.
23	COMMISSIONER YAKI: The proof of
24	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki.
25	COMMISSIONER YAKI: the policy is the

	Page 17
1	filing in the Noxubee case,
2	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki.
3	COMMISSIONER YAKI: where it went above
4	and beyond
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki,
6	didn't you say in a previous hearing that if the
7	statements attributed to Julie Fernandes regarding the
8	enforcement of the Voting Rights Act, if that
9	allegation was true, then she should be fired?
10	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I indeed did say that.
11	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right. So what we
12	COMMISSIONER YAKI: But the problem I have 13
14	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: How long will it take
15	to
16	COMMISSIONER YAKI: The problem I have
17	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: a factual dispute
18
19	COMMISSIONER YAKI: The problem I have is
20	that and what I said in that also is that I don't
21	believe that if anyone came in and denied that, that
22	this investigation would be finished at all. I think
23	it would just simply be carried on in a different way.
24	There is nothing independent about what this
25	Commission is doing at this point. This is all about

Page 18 taking the word of one ex-employee --1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But it should be --3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- who was part of a 4 group --5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It's one --6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- supporting it, too. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, you wouldn't --7 8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The sworn affidavit he 9 is talking about is from someone who was --10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That was a sworn affidavit. 11 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- refused to cooperate with two investigations by the Department of 13 14 Justice --15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That's not true. 16 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- into the -- he did 17 not talk. That is not true. 18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: He did not talk. 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You know it's not 21 true. 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Did he refuse to talk to them? 23 24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You know it's not 25 true.

Page 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Did he refuse to talk 1 2 That's what I'm asking. So, I mean, we can to them? 3 go into this all you want, but don't give me this mantra as if there's some sworn area of witnesses 4 5 around us. There is none. It is a farce. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner? 7 Commissioner? 8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: It is a joke. 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, I 10 suspect that there are other commissioners who would 11 like to either respond or continue the other aspects of the conversation. 12 13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But I just want to 14 make this one point. The letter states that the 15 Department -- one, the letter did address that other 16 point you were talking about, which was the section 8 17 National Voter Registration Act issues, but the key 18 point of this letter is that it shows actual actions 19 by the Department of Justice that completely belie the 20 claims made by that one witness. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Such as? 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The best would be the 23 filing in the Noxubee case. The witness --24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The letter did not --25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- that Justice would

Page 20 1 not --2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- mention that case. 3 The letter, I mean --COMMISSIONER YAKI: His response --4 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The letter speaks for 6 itself, but --7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The letter that talks 8 about --9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- the author's intent 10 11 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You're trying to look 12 for evidence of further evidence of a policy by the 13 Department to not enforce the laws in a race-neutral 14 manner when, in fact, what this letter states is that 15 very clearly in the Noxubee case, which was a case 16 where a county Democratic chair, who is African 17 American, was doing all of these pretty awful things 18 to suppress the white vote, the Department of Justice got involved, and there was a filing made this year 19 20 that Adams said would not be responded to in any way, 21 shape, or form --22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That's not what it 23 said. 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- that would -- well,

Page 21 it wasn't responded to in a manner, he said, that 1 2 would show the Department had a policy to enforce this in a race-neutral manner. He gave some things where 3 they might do something, but they said that wouldn't 4 5 amount to anything. 6 The fact is that he was wrong. They made 7 a filing. They objected to it. They asked for an 8 injunction against Ike Brown, trying to enforce his 9 particular brand of law, in addition to the other 10 parts of the filings that he did. 11 It is perfectly consistent with what the 12 Justice Department has been doing. It is consistent with what the Bush administration did. 13 It is 14 consistent with a policy --CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 15 16 COMMISSIONER YAKT: that is 17 race-neutral. So I just don't understand how you can 18 say, "Well, I don't care what the evidence is about 19 what it is you do." 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner. 21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: "I'm just trying to 22 figure out if there is a policy" --23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, 24 share --25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The policy doesn't exist.

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Share the microphone.
COMMISSIONER YAKI: Take it away.
CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Would anyone else like to weigh in? Commissioner Kirsanow?
COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Just a few points.
We have the witness who testified under oath.
COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.
COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: He didn't send a letter and making broad assertions. He testified under oath that, in fact, there is a policy and a culture within DOJ not to enforce voting rights laws in a race-neutral manner. He testified under oath.
He was there. He was a witness. You've heard these things.
And he also indicated that Christopher
Coates, Section Chief, would corroborate all of those things if he were permitted to testify. He was not permitted to testify.
And we made a very, very reasonable offer to DOJ, saying, "We will not ask him to testify on privileged matters. We just want him to testify about matters related to enforcement within DOJ and whether or not he heard Julie Fernandes say that section 8
will not be enforced by this administration."

Page 23 1 None of those matters are part of 2 deliberative process. None of those matters are 3 privileged. None of those matters can be plausibly 4 withheld from this Commission which they have a duty 5 to comply with. By statutory authority, they have a 6 requirement to cooperate with us. And they by virtue of this letter gave us the back of the hand, said, "No 7 8 way." 9 And then they went even further and said, 10 "Guess what. We transferred a quy outside of the 11 jurisdiction of your subpoena authority. And you 12 can't get him either." It's extraordinary. This is 13 contemptuous of this particular process. 14 we want is a witness would All who 15 corroborate this. And, yet, no one wants to hear from No one would permit us to hear from him. 16 him. He 17 could validate this one way or another. 18 Second point with respect to Mr. Adams in the Noxubee case. Mr. Adams very clearly testified 19 20 that he predicted that DOJ would do three possible 21 different things that would telegraph very clearly 22 that they, in fact, have a policy of not enforcing voting rights laws in a nondiscriminatory fashion. 23 24 And what have here is we in this 25 particular filing precisely what he predicted. He

Page 24 said those things under oath. And what we get in 1 return is a letter basically saying, "Believe me, even 2 3 though I am not willing to come here and testify or 4 bring someone who has firsthand knowledge to testify, 5 this is an abomination to this process. It's an abomination to civil rights laws. It's an abomination 6 7 to race-neutral enforcement of the laws. It's an 8 abomination to the 1964 Civil Rights Act. It's an 9 abomination to the 1965 Voting Rights Act." 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Taylor? No. Vice Chair Thernstrom? 11 12 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, a couple 13 It seems to me it's strange. It is simply things. 14 impossible to believe that Julie Fernandes said 15 anything remotely like "We are not going to enforce 16 civil rights laws when blacks are defendants." 17 I mean, she cannot have said that. Maybe 18 she said something that some people interpreted as 19 saying that. But she surely didn't announce that. Ι 20 mean, unless she is some sort of moron -- and she 21 certainly could not have been speaking for the 22 Department if she was a moron. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: How do we go about 24 settling this factual dispute over this allegation? 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I think we should

1	assume that the Justice Department does not have a
2	racial double standard? I mean, give them a break.
3	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Could they possibly
4	have an employee that's a problem?
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Whoa, whoa, whoa,
6	whoa. Vice Chair Thernstrom?
7	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: If they do, I'm
8	sure they will get rid of that employee.
9	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom?
10	In your written works, you have stated the very thing
11	that you're now suggesting is not the case. In your
12	written work, you have said that there is a double
13	standard.
14	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Where have I said
15	there is a double standard?
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: In your most recent
17	book on the Voting Rights Act.
18	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, I don't think
19	that that is what I said. I don't like you turning a
20	very complicated; very nuanced; and, by the way, an
21	argument that has a multiple footnote to everything
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom,
23	I concede that I could be dead wrong. But I think
24	that the way to settle the dispute is just to get the
25	book and present you with the words or to concede that

Page 26 1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is fine. 3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- I am indeed wrong. VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is fine. 4 Т 5 would be delighted to defend my book. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But the way to settle 7 factual disputes is to --8 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: To have some 9 facts. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right, right. 11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes. Well, we don't in this case. 12 13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's right. But we 14 are trying to get them. 15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right. 16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you --17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'm saying there 18 is no possibility that Julie Fernandes or its --19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom, 20 in the past --21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It is really 22 improbable. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: In the past, you 24 stated that you wanted to hear from Coates. 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Look, I said --

Page 27 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Is that still your 1 2 position? 3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, it is my 4 position that I would be delighted to hear from 5 Coates, but it is also my position as I thought about 6 it more that if I were running the Justice Department, 7 if the Republicans were running the Justice 8 Department, I think that, for reasons of internal 9 management to the Department, they would undoubtedly 10 handle this in the same way that Tom Perez is. It is 11 12 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: What do you base 13 that upon? 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: My understanding 15 of how the voting section at least works --16 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Out of the --CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Let her finish. 17 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- which I have 19 been hanging around, not consistently, but since 20 roughly 1980. Starting in the '80s, I spent a great 21 deal of time there, through Republican 22 administrations. I have another question, a couple of other 23 24 It does seem to me that it is undeniable that points. 25 Christian Adams made the Noxubee case a litmus test

Page 28 for whether the Department had racial 1 double 2 standards. And, indeed, he flunked in doing so, as Commissioner Yaki said. 3 4 Third, I wish I had, Mr. Chairman, your 5 letter in front of me. But let me explain something 6 in the letter. You did have a sentence in the letter 7 which said that if you don't provide evidence in a 8 form of witnesses -- I can't remember exactly how you 9 stated it, but evidence that contradicts our 10 assumptions, we can conclude you're guilty. In other 11 words --12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Some commissioners may 13 infer, some commissioners may treat their refusal to 14 provide fact witnesses on this point in a manner that 15 would be adverse to DOJ. That was --16 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I think in 17 American law and I think you would agree with me that 18 you are innocent until proven quilty. You are not 19 guilty --20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: This isn't а criminal case, Vice Chair Thernstrom. 21 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You are making it one. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It's not a criminal 23 24 That's not the standard. case. 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I think it

1	is the standard. Oh, here it is. Yes. Okay. I
2	think it is the standard. I mean, I think it's really
3	an astonishing statement.
4	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you like to
5	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We cannot conclude
7	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you like to read
8	the statement?
9	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We cannot conclude
10	anything. Yes, I was just handed to it.
11	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you like to
12	receive it in the record?
13	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay.
14	"Consequently, in the event that Mr. Coates is not
15	produced, the Commission may reasonably infer that his
16	testimony would corroborate that of J. Christian Adams
17	before the Commission on July 6, 2010 and that the
18	Department is hostile to the race-neutral enforcement
19	of voting rights laws and the Department refuses to
20	enforce section 8 of the NVRA." I mean, that does not
21	seem to me a really sound inference.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: You don't believe that
23	this body can draw an inference from the Department of
24	Justice's refusal to produce fact witnesses to settle
25	this dispute? It seems to me that the simplest thing

Γ

Page 30 in the world to do for the Department of Justice in 1 2 terms of putting this to bed is to turn to Mr. Coates 3 and just instruct him to go testify. 4 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, they may 5 have. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: He will either come 7 here -- well, here are the two obvious outcomes. He 8 will either refute the statements made by Mr. Adams on 9 this point or he will confirm them. Now, if I have confidence that these 10 statements were not made, this issue would not still 11 be hanging out there. I would have waited for the 12 13 letter. I would have volunteered Mr. Coates to go 14 settle this factual dispute. 15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, you are not the Assistant Attorney General. 16 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That is right. 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You are not running that Department. 19 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That is right. 21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And there can be 22 perfectly legitimate internal reasons in running a federal department for not doing so. 23 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Coates has 25 testified before this body in the past. Is that so?

1	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes.
2	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: He was given the
3	authority by the Department of Justice to testify in
4	front of this body?
5	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes.
6	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And on this particular
7	issue, the Department has refused to authorize him to
8	clear this matter.
9	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It may have
10	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Is that right?
11	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It may have
12	reasons having to do with
13	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I understand that, but
14
15	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: the functioning
16	of the Department that you don't know, I don't know.
17	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom,
18	do you agree with my statement?
19	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That what?
20	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That the Department in
21	this particular instance has refused to allow Coates
22	to testify before this body?
23	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes, it has
24	refused to allow it, but it may have perfectly good
25	reasons for doing so.

Page 32 1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right. Would you 2 entertain --3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I do not infer 4 anything from it. 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you entertain 6 the --7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Has it offered any 8 perfectly good reasons? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Whoa, whoa, whoa, 9 10 whoa, whoa, whoa. 11 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Has it offered any 12 qood reasons? 13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Does it need to? 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Why are you --15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes, it does. Ιt does owe this Commission an explanation --16 17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I don't think so. 18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- when it is 19 compelled by law to cooperate fully -- and that is the 20 wording of the statute -- with any request we make. 21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You know, look --22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Good faith requires 23 to actually comply. 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: As I understand it 25

Page 33 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Good faith also 1 2 requires if there is any delay or other reason, to 3 state the reason. 4 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right. I think --5 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You're assuming. You 6 are assuming, --7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And it has not done 8 so. 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- Commissioner 10 Gaziano, that there is any reasonableness on the part of the Commission in making some of these demands. 11 12 And I'm telling you right now I agree with Commissioner Thernstrom. If I were them, faced with 13 14 the statements that you and others have made in the 15 press, I would refuse to get involved in this 16 firefight because there is no win. It's а 17 predetermined outcome. 18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Assistant Attorney 19 General --20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: It's a predetermined 21 outcome. 22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Assistant Attorney 23 _ _ 24 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You already made it 25 from day one, --

COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- answer your 4 5 question. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: One at a time. 7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Assistant Attorney 8 General Perez made perfectly clear that if any 9 statement to the effect that we now have an allegation that Julie Fernandes made, he would investigate it. 10 11 And he accepted that we would need to investigate 12 that. And, yet, he has given us no reason --13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Wait a minute. Ι 14 didn't hear the latter. 15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- to refuse Coates, to not have Coates. 16 17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I did not hear the latter from him. All I heard from him is they were 18 19 internally investigating the --20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: No, no, no. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No, no, no. 22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He has not 23 acknowledged that he is internally investigating 24 anything. 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, he said very

Page 35 early --1 2 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He said if we heard of such a statement, we should give it to him. 3 4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: He would bring it to 5 _ _ 6 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He would 7 investigate. And he acknowledged that we would need 8 to investigate. And, yet, he is thwarting our 9 investigation. 10 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Wait a minute. 11 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Let me now address 12 another point that Vice Chair Thernstrom made. She 13 cannot imagine that the statement we had by the 14 witness Adams --15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: In that raw form, 16 no. 17 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Please don't 18 interrupt. 19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I just want to make clear --20 21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I'm sorry. You 22 interrupted her, if I recall. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Hold on. Hold on. 24 Hold on. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And I believe I had my

Page 36 1 hand up next. 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, 3 your point is right. Both you and Commissioner 4 Gaziano and others have interrupted --5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. I just 6 don't want --7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: fellow 8 commissioners. 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I don't want what 10 I said distorted. That's my point. 11 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. What we know is that Commissioner Yaki said if the statement 12 13 attributed to Fernandes is true, she should be fired. 14 You don't believe that statement was made either. 15 And, yet, you made the strange notion that 16 in a Republican administration --17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I made the --18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Let me finish the 19 sentence. 20 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That's not -- I didn't make --21 22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Let me finish the 23 sentence. 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. 25 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You made the very

Page 37 1 strange point that you believe other any 2 administration would thwart the Commission's 3 investigations in exactly the same way. And I can 4 submit to you that --5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Might. 6 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- historically 7 that is not true. And one of the most recent examples 8 is Mary Frances Berry issued about some-teen pages of 9 subpoenas to the Department of Justice to assist in 10 Attorney General Alex Acosta in the Bush 11 administration, which seemed very burdensome on the 12 Voting Rights Act, a very similar type of 13 investigation. The subpoena from the Commission in my 14 view was what the Assistant Attorney General Alex 15 Acosta complied. 16 There isn't -- the history refutes your 17 point that the Department does always thwart this Commission, should always --18 19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I did --20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- thwart this 21 Commission, ought to thwart this Commission. That 22 seems to be the message. 23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You are taking 24 words out of my mouth. I did not say any of those 25 things. You have totally distorted what I said.

Page 38 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Folks. Folks. 1 2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is going -- Mr. 3 Chair, this is going freaking nowhere. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 4 5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is business 6 as usual on your part. You just distort what I have 7 to say. And you think that somehow it makes it true. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Folks, I don't 9 think that there is much ground left here. 10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair, I just 11 wanted to read the last part of what you said in your 12 letter. 13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Go ahead. 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You say that "My 15 reason for this testimony would corroborate that of J. 16 Christian Adams that, inter alia., the Department is 17 hostile to the race-neutral enforcement of voting 18 rights laws and that the Department refuses to enforce section 8 of the NVRA." 19 What I don't understand, Mr. Chair, is how 20 21 you can say that the letter back was unresponsive when 22 they clearly gave examples about how they are enforcing section 8 of the NVRA and that in the 23 24 statement, in the letter by --25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Minorities.

Page 39 1 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- Assistant Attorney 2 General Perez, that you just simply say "refuses to enforce section 8 of the NVRA." And you said that it 3 is hostile to the race-neutral. We can conclude that. 4 5 That clearly is not -- you may be able to say that 6 the Commission has the ability to --7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, I 8 think that we have reached some common ground. Ι 9 think that we both concluded that there is not much more substance to be had from our discussion of this 10 11 issue. 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: In that case, Mr. 13 Chair, I will conclude my remarks. 14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Fine. 15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: If it opens up again, I am prematurely ending them out of respect for your 16 17 desire to get this thing moving on to other subjects. 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Thank you. 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But I reserve the 20 right --21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I understand. 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- if someone comes back and --23 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Ι understand. 25 Commissioner Taylor?

Page 40 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I do so with great 1 2 trepidation. 3 (Laughter.) COMMISSIONER YAKI: You should. 4 5 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I don't want to 6 address any particular fact because I think that our 7 discussion, particularly for the folks here who have 8 taken time out of a busy to come, will --COMMISSIONER YAKI: Those guys are going 9 10 to pay for it. 11 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: -- not be helpful, 12 but I do think -- and I want to try to put a fine 13 point on this -- that this discussion really 14 highlights the fundamental issue of whether we are an 15 independent Commission. That is the fundamental 16 question. 17 Are we an independent Commission with the 18 ability to make a determination as to what we deem to 19 be relevant and important information that we want to 20 review or whether we are not an independent agency but 21 whether we are put in the position of having others 22 determine outside of our agency when they can provide information, what information they provide. 23 24 This whole debate in my view goes to that 25 fundamental question. And it is something that we

1	should discuss I think openly as to what we really
2	think we are. Are we an independent Commission or are
3	we a Commission that can ask a question and when
4	rebuffed must go away?
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. That's a nice
6	segue into the findings of fact and recommendations
7	that Commissioner Gaziano would like to discuss.
8	However, before going there, I take it that
9	Commissioner Yaki has something else to say.
10	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, I would just
11	like to modify slightly what Commissioner Taylor said.
12	I agree that some of what this involves is whether we
13	deals with our status as an independent Commission,
14	but I would like to state that our original mission,
15	the mission of the United States Commission on Civil
16	Rights was as an independent bipartisan Commission.
17	And I use that word very carefully because
18	that has a very different meaning in terms of what
19	and it's not simply whether we are an independent
20	Commission or not. It's whether or not we are an
21	independent bipartisan Commission and what is it that
22	we are truly charged with versus what we are engaging
23	in now. I think that is a distinction that needs to
24	be made.
25	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Thank you for

1 making that distinction.

Commissioner Gaziano?

COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: 3 Let me recirculate at this time copies of the motion that I first 4 5 circulated a week ago to commissioners and that I sent 6 the current form yesterday afternoon with a in 7 revision to the last sentence of the finding. 8 Tt. is unfortunate because of the 9 stonewalling of the Justice Department that we won't be able to make findings of fact and recommendations 10 11 regarding the original focus of our investigation, at 12 least in the interim report, we have to vote on in 13 September. But the stonewalling has raised a larger 14 15 And that goes to what Commissioner Taylor was issue. 16 just talking about, which is the lack of clarity in 17 the law as to whether we can go to court to enforce 18 our subpoenas or that command the separate command in the U.S. Code that states, "All federal agencies shall cooperate fully with the Commission to the end that it may effectively carry out its functions and duties."

There is a lack of clarity whether we can go to court to enforce that without the Department of Justice's assistant. It's been clear to me in the course of this investigation that when the Department

Page 43 of Justice has a conflict of interest, as it does 1 2 right now when it doesn't want us to investigate what 3 we have set out to investigate, it has sometimes 4 cooperated in the past, but it has not cooperated this 5 time. And that raises the -- we should make such 6 7 a finding that there is a problem when the Department Justice has 8 of а conflict of interest in the 9 Commission doing its work. And our recommendation, which I will read 10 11 for the record, is that Congress should consider Commission statute to address 12 amendments to the 13 investigations in which the Attorney General and/or 14 the Department of Justice have a conflict of interest 15 in complying fully with the Commission's requests for 16 information. 17 Options to address a potential conflict of 18 interest might include the following: one, enactment 19 of a statutory procedure by which the Commission may 20 request the Attorney General to appoint a special counsel with authority to represent it in federal 21 22 court, which request the Attorney General must 23 personally respond to in writing within a specified 24 period of time; enactment of two, statutory а 25 provision to clarify that the Commission may hire its

Page 44 own counsel and proceed independently in federal court 1 enforce 2 the Attorney General refuses to if the 3 subpoena or other lawful requests, especially those 4 directed at the Department of Justice, its officers, 5 and employees; or, three, a conscious decision not to 6 alter the Commission's statute or statutory 7 confirmation that the Attorney General and the Department of Justice can act against the Commission's 8 9 interest without any particular explanation. 10 My motion today is not that these exact 11 words will go into our report because we can always 12 amend findings and recommendations at the stage where 13 we normally do. My motion is simply today that 14 findings and/or recommendation similar to this be 15 included in the draft report that we consider and vote on next month. 16 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So --18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Is that a motion? That's a motion. 19 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Т 20 so move. 21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Second. 22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? Vice Chair Thernstrom? 23 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You know, this is 25 a question I have had all along. When we talk about

Page 45 the history here and the Justice Department's response 1 2 to this independent agency -- and this comes up also in response to Commissioner Taylor's remarks -- are we 3 4 assuming that this agency is different than all other 5 agencies and its experience with respect to this 6 investigation is different than the experience of 7 other independent agencies, that subpoenas from all 8 other agencies are regularly enforced, that conflicts 9 of interest as they exist are ignored by the 10 Department of Justice? 11 I mean, it seems to me we are talking about how Washington works, for want of a better 12 13 phrase. And we are not kind of uniquely victimized 14 her by the statutory limitations. 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom, 16 I don't know if there are any other agencies whose 17 jurisdictions would include the ability to investigate the Department of Justice. I could be wrong on that 18 19 point, but nothing comes to mind. 20 So if you are talking about whether we are 21 in a unique position, I think the answer is yes. And 22 also, I mean, is there -- forgetting about the facts of this particular case, if there is a conflict 23 24 between the Department of Justice and the U.S. 25 Commission on Civil Rights or any other agency that

Page 461has the ability to investigate the goings-on at the2Department, is that a problem? I mean, how is that3resolved? I mean, is there a conflict? Page 47 an opinion on a topic that --1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I haven't, no. Т asked a question. 3 4 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair, with 5 respect, I think that Commissioner Thernstrom offered 6 the opinion on the topic on a brief conversation that 7 we had prior to the meeting exactly on this issue. 8 And the point that she was trying to make is a point 9 that I will make now, which is that you ask the other 10 body --11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Are you speaking for 12 her now or yourself? 13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Both. 14 -- what other body has the --15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And you know what her position was, despite the fact that 16 she hasn't 17 articulated her position? 18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 19 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Because we had a 21 discussion about it. 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is correct. COMMISSIONER YAKI: Just the two of us. 23 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We did. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Just the two of us.

Page 48 1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And you won't violate 3 any open meeting act by meeting in a closed room 4 somewhere. The --5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Unlike others do. 6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: When you asked is 7 there another entity capable of investigating the 8 Department of Justice that might fact a similar 9 conflict in the enforcement of its subpoenas, the 10 answer is clearly the United States Congress. And the 11 most recent example of that was the U.S. Attorney in the Gonzalez administration, 12 firings in which 13 people were subpoenaed and did not appear. 14 Now, I'm not saying that it's right one 15 way or another. I am saying that it is very odd to 16 think that we would arrogate to ourselves greater 17 powers and with an attendant budget and other fiscal 18 consequences than the Congress itself has delegated to 19 itself --20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So to be clear --21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- in its oversight on 22 departments such as the Department of Justice. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So that I am clear on 23 24 what I believe you are saying, you are saying that the 25 fact the Department of Justice may have a that

1	conflict and could avoid its statutory duty to
2	cooperate with the Commission, that that is okay?
3	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I am saying that it is
4	a conundrum of the separation of powers between
5	Executive, Legislative, and Judicial. We may not fall
6	into any one of them, but in terms of the fact that
7	these disputes continue on to this day between the
8	Executive and the Legislative, regardless of who is in
9	power at any given period of time, I think it is very
10	presumptuous of us to think that any agency deserves
11	to sort of override a doctrine that
12	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: What's the doctrine?
13	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, the doctrine of
14	separation of powers that has had some
15	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So you are attacking
16	the Congress' decision to provide us with jurisdiction
17	to oversee or at least to investigate the work at the
18	Department of Justice? Because that's
19	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, now that you
20	bring that issue up, I am going to address that
21	because you talked about some some other
22	commissioner talked about what the functions and
23	duties of this Commission are is. I have a little
24	problem with the tense right now.
25	We have a situation where we began investigating this small incident in Philadelphia over a year ago, maybe even longer. And it has now been escalated into somehow this inquiry as to whether the DOJ has derogated its responsibility to enforce the Voting Rights Act, which, by the way, this Commission did not seek fit to commemorate the 45th anniversary of just last week. But that is beside the point.

8 The fact is that we are in a position here 9 of -- I mean, we can get into a whole bunch of issues 10 involving the structure of this Commission, including the fact that at this point right now, we are in the 11 12 last qasp of а conservative majority of this 13 Commission and how we wind up with 62 super majorities 14 where minorities, like the Democrats and myself in 15 this particular instance, have very little ability to 16 do anything other than to simply object to what it is 17 super majority is attempting to do, that the 18 including, as I have said before in this case -- and I 19 don't want to reopen a can of worms, but I think there 20 is a clear conflict of agendas here that surpass that 21 of what the original charge of this Commission was 22 supposed to be, which was independent bipartisan investigation into civil rights wrongs occurring in 23 24 our society today.

And we have spent over a year and a half

Page 51 obsessing about whether or not there is some sort of 1 2 cabal conspiracy culture at DOJ, which, by the way, 3 the previous administration spent many years obsessing 4 about as well, and very little on what is going on in 5 the outside world. 6 So, you know, we can talk all we want 7 about what we are doing as a Commission. I would say 8 that I do not feel that we are in a very good position 9 to ask for that which no other agency has simply 10 because we are ourselves naive and acting in the best 11 spirit. 12 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, let 13 me --14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The point is --15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Hold on. Let him 16 finish. Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa. 17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The point is that you 18 And if you would just stop interrupting all the are. 19 time, all the time. 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: If you will answer. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Come on now. 22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We don't have time for 23 24 this. 25 Seriously, seriously. COMMISSIONER YAKI:

Page 52 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But, look, I would --1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Let him finish. Mr. Commissioner --3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 4 5 COMMISSIONER YAKI: You know, what is your 6 point other than --7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki. 8 Commissioner Yaki. Commissioner Yaki. 9 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Commissioner Yaki. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, he 11 should not have interrupted you, but you know? You 12 have mud on your hands, too, because you escalated and 13 you didn't have to. 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: When did I escalate? 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: You need to show some discipline. 16 COMMISSIONER YAKI: When did I escalate? 17 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And that goes for 19 everyone. 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, I 21 would like to agree with the --22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I'm sorry. I don't 23 believe I was actually finished, Mr. Chair. I would 24 just simply say this in conclusion. You asked me the 25 question, do I think this is -- in essence, whether I

Page 53 believe we are in the same boat as Congress or not, is 1 2 it right for us to be stymied in our investigation? 3 And I would say that part of me would 4 answer yes, but part of me would also answer I think 5 that we are not in a great position to argue that 6 right now given the way that we had behaved in this 7 investigation. 8 I would also say that it is a conundrum in 9 the separation of power that Congress has not even seen fit to be able to resolve with the Executive 10 Branch. And I think it would be very difficult for us 11 12 to find from a real political point of view being able 13 to allocate to ourselves powers beyond which the 14 Congress itself has not done for itself. 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Now --16 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair --17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Whoa, whoa. Wait. In 18 order, we're going with Commissioner terms of 19 Kirsanow. Then we're going with Commissioner Gaziano 20 -- but before we do that -- and Commissioner Heriot --21 you mentioned the fact that the ideological balance is 22 about to shift. 23 And you are correct. The rule that you 24 just articulated I hope that you embrace that rule for 25 consistency's sake when the balance of power changes.

1	Well, actually, I take that back. I don't hope. I
2	hope you change your position because I think your
3	position is wrong.
4	Congress gave us the power to do exactly
5	what we are doing. There is a reason why we were
6	given the authority to look into all federal agencies.
7	There was no carve-out for the Department of Justice.
8	And the question, the type of questions,
9	that we have asked the Department of Justice, we have
10	asked other federal agencies. And they have complied.
11	And in the past, the Department of Justice has
12	complied.
13	Having said that, Commissioner Kirsanow?
14	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes. Mr.
15	Chairman, speaking to this motion, by statute, the
16	Department of Justice must fully cooperate with our
17	investigation. If it chooses not to do so, there is
18	no entity, including Congress, as currently
19	constituted, that can investigate possible serious
20	wrongdoing at the Department of Justice.
21	Could Congress or anyone else have
22	contemplated that? Unlikely. This motion would
23	rectify that. Consider we have at this particular
24	moment several outstanding requests from the ranking
25	members of Congress to the Department of Justice

seeking to solicit precisely what we have been seeking to solicit.

3 Government oversight ranking member has requested this information. He was given the back of 4 5 the hand. Seven members of the Senate Judiciary 6 Committee have asked for this information. They were 7 given the back of the hand. Representative Lamar 8 Smith has asked for this information. He was given 9 the back of the hand. Representative Frank Wolf was 10 asking for this information. He was given the back of the hand. 11

No one can access this information in the current construct if DOJ insists on erecting an impenetrable stone wall. That's what we have right now.

So they have enveloped themselves in a bubble whereby they are excluding anyone from any inquiry. They can engage in this type of conduct with impunity as long as no one can get access to this information.

And by constructing this particular motion in the way it is, there is at least one agency that is us that can go ahead and investigate this, as I think Congress contemplated all along.

Page 56 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Commissioner Yaki's 1 2 misunderstanding of separation of powers principles 3 and laws is as breathtaking as some of his other statements. But I do --4 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, he 6 is calling you out. I just don't want you to miss 7 this. 8 (Laughter.) 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chairman, I have 10 long since learned to ignore most of --11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That is not true. 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- Commissioner 13 Gaziano's -- well, when it comes to his ranting, when 14 it --15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, could 16 I continue? 17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: comes to his _ _ ranting, I do. 18 19 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Can I continue? 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The Chairman actually 21 interrupted you. 22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. And I apologize 23 for interrupting. I was wrong. COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Commissioner Yaki's 24 25 analogy to Congress isn't far off, but his conclusions

1 are exactly backward. It is indeed the fact that we 2 are not part of the Executive Branch. And we probably 3 by analogy and by law are closer to Congress, but it 4 is not true that Congress is without recourse as we 5 may be without recourse.

6 Congress has the following powers, as we 7 pointed out to Assistant Attorney General Perez, both 8 here in person and in letters. Our Congress can hold 9 Executive Branch officials in contempt. Congress by 10 tradition can hold Executive Branch officials 11 potentially against its will. Congress can go to 12 court. Congress can litigate before a federal judge.

13 And because of that, the Department of 14 Justice does not have the same conflict of interest 15 under the separation of powers to resist all of Congress' requests. But the particular acute conflict 16 17 of interest the Department of Justice has right now is 18 that it by statute is supposed to enforce all of our 19 subpoenas. And it is supposed to see that our other 20 powers are enforced.

21 So I am not asking that Congress grant us 22 anything. As a matter of fact, I am only asking by 23 this motion that Congress consider various options. 24 And the greatest option I am suggesting that Congress 25 consider is giving us one of its powers.

Neal R. Gross & Co., Inc. 202-234-4433

Page 58 By the way, Congress also has the power of 1 2 The wisdom of the framers was that it gave the purse. 3 each branch the power to confront intrusions by the other branch. 4 5 And what I am suggesting is that Congress 6 consider giving us one of the four options that 7 Congress has when the Department of Justice refuses 8 it. And that one option is the authority to go into 9 federal court and have a judge decide how to resolve 10 the conflict of interest. And historically, of 11 course, that is how U.S. v. Nixon was resolved and 12 many other separation of powers issues were resolved. 13 The current situation we are in right now 14 is that it's unclear whether anyone other than the 15 Justice Department can decide what materials we get. 16 And that is unique in my understanding of any other 17 investigative body with the subpoena power. 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Commissioner 19 Heriot? 20 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I just want to respond to something that the Commissioner Yaki said 21 22 about what the Commission should be doing, what Congress intends the Commission to do. 23 24 He suggested that we should be looking 25 around the country for civil rights violations, rather than looking into what the Department of Justice is doing. And I agree with him that we should indeed be looking around the country for civil rights violations. And, for example, that is what our current Title IX program is doing, where we are looking to see whether colleges and universities discriminate against women in admissions.

8 On the other hand, a point that hasn't 9 been made and I think is actually important, if you 10 look back at our statute, it's not just that we may 11 look at whether the Department of Justice is fairly 12 executing the laws. In fact, we are required by the 13 statute that creates the Commission, required to look 14 That means looking at what into enforcement issues. 15 government agencies are doing to enforce civil rights 16 laws.

17 We now have sworn testimony from someone 18 who actually works or worked in the voting rights 19 section that civil rights laws are not being enforced 20 in a racially neutral manner. All we are trying to do now is get a witness who can confirm or deny that. 21 22 Commissioner Thernstrom has said that 23 somehow the Chairman acted inappropriately in 24 suggesting that the Department of Justice will not 25 produce such a witness that a reasonable person, not

Page 60 just a commissioner, I would add, any citizen, could 1 2 draw an adverse inference from that. As the only law professor who teaches 3 evidence law on the Commission, I can say that that is 4 5 a misinterpretation of the law. The Fifth Amendment 6 does not apply in this situation. And it is, in fact, perfectly appropriate for a fact finder, commissioners 7 8 and citizens, to draw an adverse inference from that 9 if they believe it is reasonable to do so under the 10 circumstances. And I believe it is. 11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. At this point, Commissioner Kirsanow? 12 13 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I would simply 14 call the question on the motion. 15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Could I ask a question of Mr. Blackwood? 16 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Does the statute say that the Department of Justice may enforce our 19 20 subpoenas or does it say it shall enforce our 21 subpoenas? 22 MR. BLACKWOOD: The citation is 1975(a), 23 subparagraph (e)(2). In relevant part, "In case of 24 contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena, the Attorney 25 General federal court may in a of appropriate

Page 61 jurisdiction obtain an appropriate order to enforce 1 2 the subpoena." 3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: May. 4 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have a question, Mr. 5 6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, you know, I 7 am going to go back to a point that I made before, 8 which is that we do not know that the Assistant 9 Attorney General for Civil Rights does not have 10 legitimate managerial reasons for refusing to send 11 people or material, for refusing to send them to this Commission. 12 I mean, should all staff at the DOJ 13 14 feeling vulnerable to conduct its business being 15 hauled before the U.S. Commission for Civil Rights or, 16 you know, any other body? I mean, these have got to 17 be judgment calls involving how the Department is 18 managed. And the judgment calls are up to the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights. 19 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot? 21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I am not sure how 22 that cuts with regard to this motion. The point here is that Congress did indeed initially decide that the 23 24 Department of Justice would have some discretion when 25 it comes to enforcing our subpoenas, no doubt thinking

Page 62 about the typical subpoena that we would issue. 1 It is 2 not directed at the Department of Justice, where there is no conflict of interest. 3 4 The point here is that we have run across 5 an unusual situation, where Congress probably did not 6 think about the issue of when the subpoena would be 7 directed at the Department of Justice itself. 8 There is no doubt they intended us to look 9 at Department of Justice enforcement issues because, 10 again, they require us to once a year do at least one 11 report that is directed towards civil rights 12 enforcement. Our typical subpoena, however, is not 13 directed to the Department of Justice. And what we're 14 trying to do is draw an issue to Congress' attention. 15 When you have a situation like this where there is a interest, should we 16 conflict of not have an 17 alternative procedure? 18 And Commissioner Gaziano's motion is 19 simply designed to draw that unusual situation to 20 Congress' attention. It does not even suggest only 21 one alternative. It suggests many alternatives on how 22 to deal with that problem. I think some of these alternatives are 23 24 very sensible, but we understand that the Department 25 of Justice does indeed have situations where they have

Page 63 got too many things to do to enforce a single subpoena 1 2 of ours. And they have to make judgment calls on 3 this. But a judgment call should not be made in a situation where there is a conflict of interest. And 4 5 that is the point. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Vice Chair 7 Thernstrom, please? 8 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes? 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: If you will respond to 10 _ _ 11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes. Just to 12 this. And then I'm happy to have the question called. 13 Look, from day one, I mean, I said it day one. We 14 knew that this topic was going to run into precisely 15 this problem. And, yet, we went ahead. 16 I mean, it's part of my argument. This 17 was a bad topic from the very beginning. 18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Is it your position 19 that we should not have enforcement reports on topics 20 that might be difficult to --21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. But, you 22 know, this was a topic in which we were going to 23 insist that the Justice Department enforce subpoenas 24 against itself. That was an unlikely thing to happen. 25 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Is it your position

Page 64 this would not --1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And, again, I think --3 4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: -- the Department of 5 Justice because it would be too difficult? 6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. It's not a 7 question of difficulty. It is a question of the 8 legitimacy of making judgment calls about how to 9 manage, properly manage, the internal workings of the 10 Civil Rights Division. And I think that those 11 judgment calls are up to the Assistant Attorney 12 General for Civil Rights. 13 And we knew from the very start there was 14 a problem here. 15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I thought in the 16 press, you wanted to investigate another part of the 17 Justice Department. How is that logically consistent? 18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair? 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Just hold on. Just 20 hold on. 21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I didn't say we 22 should be investigating the subpoenas and so forth. Ι 23 said if you want to worry about how the Voting Rights 24 Act is being enforced -- I didn't ask for any 25 investigation. I just asked the people to read the

Page 65 new quidelines for section 5. 1 2 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You're all over the 3 map. 4 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I am not all over 5 the map. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All right. All right. 7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I am completely 8 consistent. I was not asking for an investigation --9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 10 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- on any point. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 11 Commissioner Yaki? 12 13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes? 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have a question for 15 the General Counsel. And it goes to the statement 16 that some commissioners seem to believe has a magical 17 effect that is beyond what I can understand. 18 The statute talks about agencies cooperating fully with the Commission. When you read 19 20 that, cooperate fully, there are certainly going to be some limits on what that full cooperation could be. 21 22 For example, if we were to make a series 23 of unreasonable requests related to things that may 24 have been of interest to a particular commissioner but 25 not pertain to a particular investigation, they would be under really no obligation to have to cooperate with that or anything we send over -- because the statute according to one commissioner, they simply have to cooperate, regardless of what it is we send over.

6 I think that goes beyond MR. BLACKWOOD: 7 my competencies and calls for more of an opinion. But 8 the statute speaks for itself. The section (e), "All 9 federal agencies shall cooperate fully with the 10 Commission," not specific individual commissioners but "the Commission to the end that it may effectively 11 12 carry out its functions and duties."

13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. So the question 14 of whether it may effectively carry out its functions 15 and duties. And I think that that is an interesting part of this because there is essentially a qualifier 16 on what that cooperation is. And I think that this 17 18 goes again to what Commissioner Thernstrom and I have 19 been saying, Melendez and I have been saying all along 20 with regard to this investigation.

That is, there is a point at which I think the Department of Justice could send out 14 different instances where they had prosecuted cases in addition to Noxubee with similar fact situations.

And because of the focus on one particular

Page 67 and whether or not that witness 1 witness has 2 corroborating statements or not, they believe that we 3 have the all-encompassing power to force that person 4 to testify or not. 5 I would agree with -- and this is where I 6 agree with Commissioner Thernstrom again, which is I 7 think that departments do have ways and policies about 8 how they do work. 9 To the extent that the Department believes 10 it has sent to us sufficient evidence regarding a 11 particular issue in this case, the issue of whether or 12 not there is race-neutral enforcement of our voting 13 rights laws, I would say that the Department may 14 indeed feel that it has cooperated fully with the 15 Commission. 16 So there is no mantra. It is not a 17 one-way thing where the Commission gets to decide 18 whether or not there is full cooperation or not. 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Commissioner Yaki --20 21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would just think 22 that that is why I think that there are some real serious issues remaining with this. And it goes again 23 24 to my points that --25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I think that --

1	COMMISSIONER YAKI: they could produce

3	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The question has been

5	COMMISSIONER YAKI: four million reams

7	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So we are going to
8	have to wrap this up soon. The majority would still
9
10	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Taylor?
11	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I do want to speak
12	to the motion.
13	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes?
14	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Because this entire
15	investigation in my view has done nothing more than
16	bring this issue to light and this motion is not a
17	motion about the particulars of Commissioner Gaziano's
18	recommendation, the motion as I see it is a motion as
19	to whether or not we as a body want to make
20	recommendations to Congress regarding this quagmire
21	that's what this is really about. Do we as a body
22	want to make a recommendation to Congress as to what
23	we can do when we are left with no recourse? That's
24	what the motion is.
25	I would rise in favor of that motion, that

Г

1	we as a body should say to Congress, "We want to
2	provide you with our thoughts as to in a situation
3	such as this, when we are left with no recourse, what
4	we should be able to do next."
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. The question
б	has been called. Let's vote. All in favor please
7	say, "Aye."
8	(Chorus of ayes.)
9	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Objections?
10	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would like a
11	recorded vote, please.
12	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Commissioner
13	Kirsanow, how do you vote?
14	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes.
15	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot?
16	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes.
17	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano?
18	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes.
19	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom?
20	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Nope.
21	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Taylor?
22	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Yes.
23	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki?
24	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I don't think you can
25	separate this motion from what the Commission has been

Γ

Page 70 doing for the past two years. So I vote no. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez? 3 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: No. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I vote in favor of the 4 5 motion. The motion passes. 6 CONSIDERATION OF DISCOVERY PLAN AND PROJECT 7 OUTLINE, REPORT ON SEX DISCRIMINATION IN 8 LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE ADMISSIONS 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Next up. Next 10 up is we're going to have an update of our Title IX 11 project. At this point I will call Mr. Byrnes to 12 provide us with an update. 13 Thank you, Mr. Chairman. MR. BYRNES: 14 I have provided commissioners and special 15 assistants with revised copies of the project outline 16 for the project. Revisions were made to address the 17 concerns raised in the last meeting to streamline the 18 report and not identify the schools by name. 19 I will say that counsels for the four 20 holdout schools have expressed an initial willingness 21 Ιf consider providing data. the Commission to 22 described the type of analysis it would perform and described the intended use of the data in the report, 23 24 once this information was provided, they would then 25 confirm which categories of information they would

Page 71 supply and whether it would simply be aggregated data 1 2 or the individualized data that we would prefer. Even if they provided the data, they preferred to run the 3 4 data analyses at their own facilities. 5 Finally, even after these steps were 6 taken, the Commission and the schools may need to 7 conclude a confidentiality agreement. At this point 8 the Commission is reviewing the FOIA-bility of the 9 data it seeks as a first step to discussing what kind 10 of confidentiality it can provide. 11 Now, it should be noted the schools 12 indicated that they were not willing at this point to 13 provide data on the applicants' race, high school 14 grade point average, high school class rank, whether 15 the applicant was considered to be a legacy, whether 16 the applicant was offered an athletic scholarship, 17 whether the applicant was offered merit-based 18 financial aid, or whether the enrollee plays on a 19 variety-level intercollegiate athletic team. 20 I also want to note that the religious schools were not willing to provide individualized 21 22 data on the applicants' religious affiliation. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. We have gone 24 back and forth on it with counsel for recalcitrant 25 schools. have offered We up what in are mγ

Page 72 estimations reasonable accommodations. And, while we 1 2 have made some progress, the amount of progress is not 3 enough. And it's not moving along quick enough. I would move that we form a subcommittee 4 5 so that we can push this issue and to reach a 6 resolution as soon as possible. And, in addition to 7 that, I would move that we send a letter to DOJ asking that our subpoena be enforced. 8 9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Would that be under 10 your signature? 11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. As for the 12 subcommittee, obviously I would ask that Commissioner 13 Heriot serve on it. Commissioner Melendez, would you 14 be willing to serve on the subcommittee? 15 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Unless Commissioner Yaki wants to. 16 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, 18 would you want to serve on the subcommittee? COMMISSIONER YAKI: No. 19 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The response was no, 21 Commissioner Melendez. So, if I understood you, that 22 means you are willing to serve. 23 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: You mean just on a 24 conference call or something? 25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. That's how

Page 73 subcommittees conduct business. 1 2 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: How long is this 3 going to last? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It is hard to say, but 4 5 I --6 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: If it is something 7 short, fine. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I suspect that 9 this will be wrapped up soon enough, especially if we 10 move since we're moving to have our subpoena enforced. 11 And, Commissioner Taylor, I would also ask 12 that you serve on the subcommittee. COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I will agree to do 13 14 so. 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. The letter. 16 Actually, I started this discussion by asking for a 17 motion, but I don't think that that is actually 18 necessary. But, in any event, I do invite discussion 19 20 from Commissioner Yaki. I believe you raised your 21 hand. 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: No. Sorry. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Are we better off 23 24 having -- we started out as a motion, --25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right.

Page 74 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: -- which I am happy 1 2 to second. I think it's better. Since we're all 3 here, we might as well vote on it. 4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. If that's the 5 case, all in favor please say, "Aye." 6 (Chorus of ayes.) 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Objections? 8 (No response.) 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Abstentions? 10 (No response.) 11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Can we take that on 12 the record with each name, --COMMISSIONER YAKI: I abstain. 13 14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: -- do a roll? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow? 15 16 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Aye. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot? 17 18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano? 19 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I haven't even been listening. I'm sorry. I have been doing 23 24 something else. So I abstain. 25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Taylor?

Page 75 1 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Aye. 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki? COMMISSIONER YAKI: 3 No. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez? 4 5 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: T abstain. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I vote for it. 7 The motion passes. 8 Commissioner Yaki? COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. I have a quick 9 10 question. It goes back to the -- this is just a 11 procedural question. On the draft report we're 12 receiving today on the New Black Panther, it has 13 always been my understanding -- correct me if I am 14 wrong -- that these reports are for commissioner 15 confidential use and review only. They are not public records at that point. 16 17 The reason I say this is I actually 18 received a rather disturbing e-mail that a news media 19 outlet actually is teasing that they are going to get 20 a copy of this report today. And I am just trying to 21 figure out what exactly our responsibilities are with 22 regard to this. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. To that --24 MR. BLACKWOOD: These are private. They 25 only are being disclosed to special assistants and

Page 76 commissioners. No one has seen this report at this 1 2 stage other than the General Counsel's Office. 3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. I just wanted 4 to alert you that one network is teasing that it is 5 going to be getting it. So I just wanted to let you 6 know. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. When did you 7 8 announce that you were going to distribute the draft 9 report? 10 MR. BLACKWOOD: I announced that at the 11 last meeting, I believe, the last telephonic meeting. 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 13 MR. BLACKWOOD: It should qo out 14 electronically later today. 15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But these are private? MR. BLACKWOOD: Yes, private. 16 17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: For our review? COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Clarification. 18 You 19 said only the Office of the General Counsel has seen 20 I assume the Staff Director has seen it or will it? see it when we see it? What's the --21 22 MR. BLACKWOOD: The Staff Director has reviewed a draft. 23 24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And since we voted 25 include this finding and recommendation for to

Page 77 consideration, would you try to incorporate that? 1 2 MR. BLACKWOOD: We'll try to incorporate 3 it by this afternoon. 4 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. If possible. 5 MR. BLACKWOOD: Yes. 6 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Ιt has been 7 distributed, but it would be handy if --8 MR. BLACKWOOD: Our staff is going through 9 right now, going through the last edits. And after 10 this meeting, I will be working on those and hopefully 11 sending it out. And I will try to incorporate this, 12 even if we have to do it as a separate document. 13 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. But that has 14 been since we have discussed that publicly, that part 15 that that will be is known to the press in consideration. 16 But Ι certainly agree with Commissioner Yaki that we need to stick to our normal 17 18 rules of confidentiality with regard to draft reports. 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would simply say 20 that I think that we should make sure that an e-mail goes out with that statement, confidential, et cetera. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We stated this on the 22 23 record. 24 COMMISSIONER like YAKI: Ι triple 25 protections. I think that, you know, when you send an

Page 78 e-mail --1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's fine. 3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I put the _ _ "confidential." 4 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's fine. 6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director, 8 please send an e-mail to commissioners and staff and 9 special assistants, reminding everyone of their obligation not to disclose this draft report. 10 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And any discussion 11 12 by e-mails should have at the top of the e-mail 13 "Confidential." I mean, e-mail is going to be the 14 death of all of us because it is so unprivate. 15 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Just for the record, 16 I have an expectation of privacy for all of my 17 e-mails. 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I do, too, 19 but, you know, it's not followed. 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would think that the 21 government servers that are running --22 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: That's why I'm 23 putting it on the record I have an expectation of 24 privacy. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think that just

1	caught them and sent you into a new database.
2	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: That's right.
3	That's right. Put me on a special list.
4	COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's right. Put you
5	on the special list.
6	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I know. That's what
7	it did.
8
	- CONSIDERATION OF FY 20011 ENFORCEMENT REPORT TOPIC
9	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, folks. Next up
10	is our 2011 enforcement report topic. On June 25th,
11	the Staff Director shared potential 2011 project
12	topics with you based on staff and staff members'
13	suggestions and asked for additional suggestions in
14	order to get a head start on the program planning for
15	that year.
16	He recirculated this list on July 8th
17	together with suggestions proposed by commissioners to
18	determine your preference for following a ranking
19	procedure similar to the one followed in recent years
20	selecting potential projects.
21	Specifically, that process asked
22	commissioners to rank potential projects in order to
23	streamline the process of developing a slate of
24	potential candidates for an enforcement report for
25	2011.

Page 80 The Office of Staff Director tabulated the 1 2 results of the commissioners' rankings and provided 3 you with the results as an aid to collective 4 decision-making as we consider a potential enforcement 5 report topic for the coming fiscal year. 6 Mr. Staff Director, will you discuss in 7 greater detail the topics receiving the most 8 commissioner votes? 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And I have a question about the second one, if I can ask it. 10 Ιt says that one commissioner voted for this topic on the 11 12 list saying that its scope be expanded beyond Hispanic 13 students. This is the disparity in student 14 discipline. 15 I didn't know that this was a topic 16 confined to Hispanic students. And so I would like to 17 hear the original wording of the proposed topic. Ιt was never my understanding that this involved --18 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's let the 20 Staff Director go through his summary. then we'll 21 open up the floor for a discussion. 22 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. 23 24 With respect to the issue about student 25 discipline, done outreach to various we had organizations and to state advisory committees for 1 2 recommendations. And the recommendation on this 3 particular topic came from a state advisory committee member, who recommended that we look into this as it 4 5 relates to Hispanic students. So we did circulate 6 that proposal based on how it was submitted by the 7 state advisory committee member.

8 But in presenting it to commissioners, 9 there were 21 votes for the topic of the Department of Justice's investigation into anti-Asian violence at 10 South Philadelphia High School. There were 21 points 11 12 based on our system of asking commissioners to pick up to 5 choices and rank them and that their first choice 13 14 would get 5 points, second choice 4, third choice 3, 15 fourth choice 2, and fifth choice 1.

So in this case, there was one commissioner who made it the first choice and then four other commissioners who made it the second choice. It received 21 points.

The disparities in student discipline received 20 points. And, again, as noted here, one of the commissioners voted for that topic with the understanding that it be expanded beyond Hispanic students.

And also regarding the first topic on

Page 82 anti-Asian violence in the schools, one commissioner 1 2 voted for that on the basis that the scope would be 3 subject to further shaping and refinement. The topic that received the third most 4 5 points was school choice as a civil right. And that 6 received 12 points. The topic of implementation of 7 the Individuals With Disabilities and Education Act 8 received four points. And federal and state 9 enforcement of hate crimes laws received three points. 10 During the last meeting, there was some discussion about the possibility of merging the first 11 12 two topics. I believe that Commissioner Gaziano, in 13 particular, spoke to the idea of possibly merging the 14 issue of anti-Asian violence at South Philadelphia 15 High School with the issue of disparities in student 16 discipline. 17 So at this point I would encourage further 18 commissioner discussion on that topic to see about a 19 possible area of agreement to merge those topics in 20 some way or if there are some other sentiments among 21 commissioners on how to pick the topic. 22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The floor is open. Commissioner Gaziano? 23 24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: There were some 25 other discussion points in our last meeting that I

Page 83 will hopefully remember accurately. For the record, I 1 2 wanted to know what the enforcement hook was with 3 regard to the violence in Philadelphia before it was 4 included in the other discipline. 5 It seemed to me that it might fit within 6 the investigation of student discipline on if it was 7 -- if the federal enforcement hook was such that I was 8 on record of being against one off, investigations of 9 one-off incidents in Philadelphia if there was any 10 serious enforcement hook. In fact, such an 11 investigation would be small potatoes in my book. And so I don't know if there has been any 12 13 further investigation of that issue. So just as a 14 personal matter, I'm not prepared to lump that in with 15 the issue of student discipline that we know has a federal enforcement hook at this point. 16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 17 18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Has there been any 19 further investigation into the federal enforcement? 20 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Not at this 21 We have not heard what the Department of point. 22 Justice's decision is. But there had been previously 23 some investigation into what was going on in 24 Philadelphia. There had been some special commissions 25 set up in the City of Philadelphia to look into the

Page 84 situation. 1 2 And a complaint had been filed with the Department of Justice, but we were not able to get a 3 4 copy of that complaint. We had made some inquiries 5 about getting a copy of that complaint. And we have 6 not done that at this point. 7 So we don't know yet what the Department 8 of Justice's decision will be in terms of how they 9 will investigate this particular incident. 10 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But I think I heard 11 the Vice Chair say that the Department of Justice 12 might have a good reason always to do whatever it 13 does. 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, I didn't say 15 that. 16 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Therefore --17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I mean, you are 18 really remarkable in distorting what I have to say. 19 But, anyway, go on. I didn't say that. 20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But so we did. 21 But, just to make the record clear, we requested the 22 Department of Justice send us a copy of information it 23 had on this matter? And the Department has been 24 nonresponsive? 25 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: I don't know

1	that I would characterize it as nonresponsive at this
2	point because it was a very preliminary request.
3	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But they haven't
4	given us anything?
5	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Let me just
6	ask the attorney adviser, who has had some dealings
7	with them, to address that point.
8	MS. OSTROWSKY: We've made several
9	inquiries to the Department of Justice, both in the
10	educational opportunities section and the criminal
11	section, under the Civil Rights Division. And we have
12	gotten no response from either one.
13	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Is this in writing?
14	MS. OSTROWSKY: No.
15	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Telephone calls?
16	MS. OSTROWSKY: We have made telephone
17	calls.
18	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: When did they occur
19	approximately?
20	MS. OSTROWSKY: Some months ago I think it
21	must have been, four, maybe even five months ago.
22	We also made a call to the Philadelphia
23	District Attorney's Office. And they told us that
24	their hands were tied because no complaint had been
25	filed with them. They said that it is often difficult

Page 86 for complainants to come forward there because they 1 2 fear retribution. 3 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. So there is a 4 possibility that nobody has brought this up to --5 MS. OSTROWSKY: No one has --6 COMMISSIONER school HERIOT: 7 authorities? 8 MS. OSTROWSKY: As of four or five months 9 ago, no one had filed a complaint locally with the 10 district attorney in Philadelphia. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 11 12 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: I'm sorry. 13 What complaint had been filed? 14 MS. OSTROWSKY: The complaint, the Asians 15 United did file a complaint with the Department of 16 Justice. They would not give us a copy of that 17 complaint. Tim Fay, the Special Assistant to Vice Chair Thernstrom, obtained a copy of what looked very 18 19 similar, from Asians United's website, but we do not 20 have an actual copy of the complaint. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom? 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, a couple of 23 things. I don't want any more investigations into 24 one-offs just for Commissioner Todd Gaziano's 25 information. We have had one too many already.

Page 87 I don't want us wandering beyond our 1 2 jurisdiction. I don't think this will turn out to be 3 the case with respect to this topic. And, as was just noted, there has been a complaint filed. 4 5 We will have to see what happens. But the 6 notion that this Philadelphia High School incident is 7 unique in this country, it's just wrong. We are still 8 thinking of this country -- and I'm talking not about 9 the Commission here but about a lot of writing on race 10 and ethnicity-related issues -- thinking of this 11 country in black and white terms when, in fact, of 12 course, Hispanics are now a larger ethnic group than 13 blacks are and there is a tremendous amount of 14 inter-ethnic and interracial, Asians being a racial 15 group, Hispanics not being a racial group, conflict. 16 And we have got incidents that have occurred in San 17 Francisco as well as Philadelphia. 18 So I don't think there is any possibility 19 that this is going to look like small potatoes at all. 20 I think it is an enormously important topic, the dimensions of which cannot be clear until we do a bit 21 22 more investigating. 23 And I would say, indeed, that it is 24 important to remember that, however we define it or 25 decide not to define it because we drop it today, you

1	know, the definition of the topic, the outlines of the
2	investigation will change over time and especially
3	because the Commission is going to change, the
4	composition of the Commission is going to change.
5	So whatever we do is tentative. I still
6	remain convinced this is a very good topic because it
7	is of national scope and because I mean, if you
8	look at a city like Los Angeles, you know, the
9	black-Hispanic tension runs very, very high. Asians
10	are in that mix as well as we saw up to I can't
11	even remember the occasion, but in any way.
12	So, you know, we are wandering into
13	something very important. And it is a recognition
14	that this country is no longer, as I said, blacks and
15	whites.
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry.
17	Commissioner Heriot?
18	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I just wanted to get
19	on the record my own thoughts about the interaction
20	between these two topics that we have been discussing,
21	the Philadelphia case and disparate impact in
22	discipline. I ranked disparate impact and discipline
23	as my top choice. And I believe I am fairly certain
24	that I ranked the Philadelphia case as my second
25	choice.

Page 89 And what was on my mind at the time was 1 2 that these two topics could be combined. I would not 3 have ranked the Philadelphia case in my top five had I 4 not been thinking that. 5 One of the problems I think with the 6 Philadelphia case being our enforcement report is that 7 the enforcement hook is very slender there. To what 8 extent has the federal government even had the 9 opportunity to do anything here? Ordinarily we think 10 of state authorities as being the first actors in situations like this. 11 12 The disparate impact in discipline issue 13 is again my top choice because this is very clearly an 14 issue of federal enforcement. It is now the policy of 15 the Department of Education. And they have sent out a 16 letter to this effect. 17 And Secretary Duncan has spoken on this 18 issue, that they are going to be looking very, very 19 closely at school districts to make sure that there is 20 no disparate impact in the level of discipline that 21 schools are giving out. So that there will be 22 essentially quotas on how many students can be 23 suspended or expelled or punished in this way or that 24 way for misbehavior. 25 And so I think that is a very interesting topic and one that clearly fits our statutory mandate to examine a federal enforcement issue. So if these topics are not combined, then I would prefer to withdraw my support for the Philadelphia case because I think we need something that has that strong federal enforcement hook, as I think the New Black Panther issue did for the current year's report.

8 I also have another topic that I just want 9 to throw out here in case support for the topics that 10 we have already discussed dissipates. And that is that Byron York had an article in the Washington 11 Examiner last week, I believe, on the Civil Rights 12 13 Division's settlement agreements and consent orders, 14 where it is now becoming common -- and I don't think 15 it's just in the Civil Rights Division.

16 I think this is common in other sections 17 of the Department of Justice, also common at the state 18 level now -- for settlements to include a promise on 19 the part of the defendant to give some substantial sum 20 of money to a particular -- I guess we would say a 21 charitable organization but these generally are 22 advocacy organizations as well as part of the settlement. And I think that is a fascinating issue 23 24 and one that would perhaps garner bipartisan support 25 to look at how this is done, which organizations are

1	being given these monies, who makes these decisions,
2	and how the money is actually spent by these
3	organizations when they get it.
4	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Well, there are
5	several issues that have been placed on the table, the
6	first being how we shape the scope of the topic that
7	has garnered the greatest support and now this
8	proposal that Commissioner Heriot just put on the
9	table.
10	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Could I ask a
11	question about the disparities in school discipline?
12	I am just not sure how research would proceed on that
13	question. I mean, the numbers alone obviously are not
14	going to tell us anything.
15	Okay. We've got a higher percentage of
16	black kids and Hispanic kids than Asian kids being
17	disciplined in most urban school systems, in all urban
18	school systems. I don't need to modify it with most.
19	Yes. Where do we go from there?
20	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I think that's a
21	good question because I think you are right that the
22	numbers are not really going to reveal everything we
23	have to know. And, in fact, that is the point. The
24	very point is that with disciplinary cases, to look at
25	cold numbers and say, gee, you know, the percentages

Page 92 should be equal across races, that doesn't tell the 1 2 whole story. 3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. But that is 4 a draft report. 5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Pardon? What T 6 would like to do and I think can be done is examine 7 how the bureaucratic structure is growing up around 8 this kind of policy at individual school districts, to 9 pick out a few school districts and find out how 10 they're reacting to the new Department of Education mandate. What sort of bureaucratic structure are they 11 12 creating? 13 And talk to teachers about how they go 14 about deciding what to do. Talk to administrators to 15 find out how this is working out at the level where it 16 is actually being administered. 17 And so I don't think this is gather data, 18 add it up, and then have a graph kind of situation. I 19 think the whole point of this is to get away from that 20 and to talk to people that are actually administering 21 this kind of policy and see how bureaucratic 22 requirements like this are causing issues that I think 23 really can't be analyzed just by ten numbers, how that 24 is causing discipline to be allocated. 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And how are we

Page 93 going to get into those schools and talk to teachers? 1 2 I mean, having been on a state board of education for 3 11 years, I know the difficulty of getting --4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: We've got subpoena 5 power. 6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- of getting in 7 8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: We should use it. 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- into schools. 10 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Well, let me ask you 11 12 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes? 13 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: What is the basis of 14 the Department's mandate? 15 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: They think that this 16 is fouling Title VI and that this is simply a matter 17 of preventing race discrimination in programs that 18 receive --. 19 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: So their view is that the mere existence of the numbers in and of 20 21 itself --22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: They have drawn inference from the statistical --23 24 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: -- enables them to 25 draw a conclusion?

1	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes. I think to be
2	fair to them, they would say that they recognize that,
3	you know, different situations call for different
4	actions. But they're creating a presumption.
5	And my fear is that a presumption like
6	that basically inhibits schools from engaging in any
7	kind of discipline. And one of my fears is that there
8	are inner city schools that really have difficult
9	problems with discipline.
10	And to hamstring school districts so that
11	they have to be so very careful before they do the
12	things that are necessary to maintain order in the
13	classroom, there are going to be students that are
14	really hurt by this, students that want to be good
15	students, students that are struggling to get out of
16	the inner city.
17	But discipline is not being maintained, in
18	part because of fear that the Department of Education
19	is going to come down like a ton of bricks on them.
20	And that is what I would like to get into in this.
21	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. I don't
22	object to what you're saying at all, but discipline is
23	not being maintained in these schools as it is way
24	before
25	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That's my fear.

Page 95 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, for --1 2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I don't know if --3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- came along. 4 And part of the reason -- well, there are multiple 5 reasons for that, including the fact that in most 6 schools, principals don't want to deal with kids who 7 are disciplinary problems --8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: My point exactly. 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: -- and so forth. 10 I mean, you walk into most inner city public schools 11 and they are chaotic nightmares. Okay? 12 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: But my biggest fear is federal enforcement. 13 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And you go into 15 the students --16 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That's a question of 17 what is the federal government doing to make it work. 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I am not 19 sure. And I guess this is part of my problem here. Ι 20 don't object to this topic at all. I am just raising 21 questions about it. I think part of my problem is 22 schools are local institutions. There is a limit to what states can do, no less the federal government can 23 24 do in the way of imposing discipline on --25 We're just trying to COMMISSIONER HERIOT:

Page 96 prevent the federal government from making it worse. 1 2 And I think it is one of the central education issues 3 that exists today, the discipline issue generally. VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Oh, it's been a 4 5 central issue for a long time. 6 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's true that, you 7 a matter of fact children who are in know, as 8 one-parent households tend to have a higher proportion 9 of discipline problems for a very complex set of 10 reasons that, you know, we could talk about some other 11 day here, but it is just a fact. And, as a result, it may well be that 12 are very different 13 qiven that there rates of 14 one-parent households across races, you may have a 15 different set of disciplinary problems across races. 16 And, hence, if you have got school 17 districts that have a high degree of discipline 18 problems, if you add one more reason, a federal reason 19 now, that schools have to be very, very careful not to 20 enforce discipline, you know, that is one more reason that students will not get a fair education. 21 22 You have got a lot of students that are 23 struggling to do well in school. And it's not easy 24 when the other students in the class are being 25 disruptive.

1	And I don't think Secretary Duncan has
2	done anybody any favor by making it more difficult to
3	enforce discipline. And that is what I would like to
4	look into.
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.
6	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I also want to keep
7	my other topic on the table here in case that appeals
8	more.
9	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's shift the
10	conversation to other commissioners. I just want to
11	get a sense of how people feel about the
12	recommendation that we make the amendment that
13	Commissioner Heriot has recommended and also
14	Commissioner Heriot's proposal, the new topic that she
15	has introduced.
16	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And I would like
17	some discussion, Mr. Chairman, of whether this is
18	becoming an unmanageable topic that we address
19	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Which one?
20	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, if we
21	combine these two, the Philadelphia and the
22	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes. I wouldn't
23	favor the Philadelphia thing. If people think that
24	it's going to overburden the disparate impact in
25	discipline. I would rather just do disparate impact

1 in discipline.

2	I only included the Philadelphia thing as
3	my second choice because I thought that that might
4	gain more support if we were to combine it. If it
5	doesn't, I would rather just do discipline.
6	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's hear from
7	some other commissioners. Commissioner Gaziano?
8	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes. Since I
9	already spoke, I will yield to others first. I think
10	I made clear the same sort of assumption that there
11	are two conditions that I had, including the
12	Philadelphia matter into the other discipline and I
13	also voted for it. I think it may be ranked at
14	second. So I will withdraw my points if either of the
15	two conditions isn't met.
16	One is that we don't have at the time we
17	are voting a clear federal enforcement hook that is
18	worthy. And it seems like there is staff work that
19	was done to try to find that out. And that has gone
20	nowhere. So I think that first condition may not be
21	or at least doesn't satisfy me.
22	The second is that it really be by the
23	way, on that first point, it may be true that that
24	kind of racial violence is very important and this
25	Commission can look into it. Maybe this Commission

1	should look into it. But it can't look into it as the
2	federal enforcement, part of the federal enforcement
3	report, unless we know there is a real federal
4	enforcement angle.
5	The second condition in my mind is that it
6	be somehow further developed and not way down the
7	other. And I have some skepticism on that as well.
8	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I am detecting
9	a it seems as if support for the investigation into
10	violence in South Philadelphia, but the initial
11	support, there were conditions attached. And what I'm
12	hearing is that the conditions haven't been satisfied.
13	I just want to get a clear assent of the
14	level of support. We are going to have to make a
15	decision.
16	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes. That's a fair
17	statement. I have a fair degree of interest in the
18	other topic that Commissioner Heriot proposed, I think
19	either the second topic or the discipline in schools,
20	disparate impact study, either of which would be very
21	good.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No? Are you sure?
23	Anyone else? Commissioner Melendez?
24	COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes. I would
25	support the Philadelphia, the number one. I think

1	that if it's a hot topic, I think that we ought to
2	look at it. And we need more information from the
3	Justice Department or whoever is enforcement. I would
4	support looking at that.
5	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Thank you,
6	Commissioner Melendez. I know where Commissioner
7	Melendez stands on this particular issue. So where
8	are we at this point?
9	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I think, Mr.
10	Chairman, we need to have separate votes, on these two
11	separate topics, the top two ones, and then another
12	vote on whether they should be combined because I am
13	reluctant at this point to combine them.
14	You've got topics that leads us in
15	different directions here. They're not the same. And
16	they're both
17	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: How about this? What
18	do you think if we had a vote on the original proposal
19	for anti-Asian violence in South Philadelphia, that we
20	have
21	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And, by the way,
22	elsewhere we might put that in.
23	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So it would be
24	expanded, then?
25	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, we would

	Page 101
1	like to look at other incidents.
2	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, I'm just
3	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay.
4	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.
5	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And other
6	incidents of inter-ethnic violence in high schools.
7	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Another option would
8	be the combination that Commissioner Heriot has
9	recommended. And then I guess the third option would
10	be the use of consent decrees to funnel money to
11	advocacy organizations.
12	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I don't advocate the
13	putting of the two together. If people think that is
14	going to be a little problem.
15	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: These are
16	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I would advocate
17	disparate impact in discipline. I would also advocate
18	the other one if somebody is interested in that.
19	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I am just
20	trying to establish what the remaining options are
21	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: in terms of
23	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I was just trying
24	to, you know, offer a compromise when I said, "Let's
25	put them together." If people aren't interested in

Page 102 that compromise, then that's fine. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Could I ask for a 4 clarification from Commissioner Thernstrom on looking 5 What is the suppose violence? federal at I 6 enforcement study that we would conduct? 7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I think that 8 there are -- I have just been handed by my assistant 9 what the federal hooks are here potentially, but, you 10 know, we've got attorneys around the room. And I'm not one of them. 11 12 There is federal statute prohibiting 13 interfering with students receiving public, 14 interfering with the education of students in the 15 public, system. 16 There is a racial component here that I 17 assume if DOJ is looking into, that is what it is 18 focusing on. 19 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes. Do you have 20 reason to believe they are not doing a good job? That 21 is my question. 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well --23 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Do you have any 24 reason to think they're not doing a good job? 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I have no No.

1	reason to think they are doing a good or not good job.
2	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: So we don't really
3	have any knowledge of whether if we investigated this
4	we would find anything?
5	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I mean in a
6	way you're saying if I say to you you're thinking of
7	writing a book on pride and prejudice and I say,
8	"Well, there have been a lot of books on Jane Austen"
9	and you say to me, "Well, yes, but they haven't been
10	written by me."
11	So whatever the Justice Department does I
12	assume we have a distinctive voice that is different
13	than the Justice Department. And the questions we may
14	ask may be different than they may ask.
15	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But we're supposed
16	to study the Justice Department. So my question, you
17	say you have no reason to know whether they have done
18	a good job, bad job, indifferent job.
19	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But they may be
20	asking a series of questions that are different than
21	the ones we would ask.
22	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: They may, but it
23	just doesn't seem like
24	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: They may be trying
25	the issue

Page 104 1 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: -- a very strong 2 factual basis to decide to devote the Commission's 3 resources --4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Let me see if I can 5 help. I hate to do this. 6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We are all feeling 7 sorry for you. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: With the New Black 9 Panther Party issue, we had a decision which we reacted to. In the case of what went on in South 10 11 Philadelphia, we don't have an action or admission by 12 the Department of Justice that would suggest that 13 there is an issue. 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, we have an 15 absence of actions so far. 16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But there is nothing 17 that -- we have a situation where apparently the 18 investigation is ongoing. No decision has been made. 19 They have not rendered -- there have been no 20 determinations --21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I agree it could 22 become moot. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And we would be 24 investigating. We would be investigating them while 25 their investigation is not only ongoing but when no

1	preliminary determinations have been made.
2	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, when would
3	our investigation, in fact, get off the ground?
4	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, we'll know
5	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: As soon as we vote
6	on it.
7	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm trying to
8	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: The staff has
9	other things to do.
10	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom,
11	I am not trying to get into this on the merits. I'm
12	just trying to I think clarify Commissioner Gaziano's
13	concern.
14	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. I mean, the
15	point is that were the Justice Department to go
16	through with the report, I doubt that it would be at
17	the point at which we had done a lot of work on this.
18	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So if the Department
19	of Justice rendered an opinion that there was no issue
20	implicating civil rights statutes, that is one set of
21	facts. And I think that that is one set of facts that
22	we would have a solid basis for looking into that
23	determination.
24	But at this point Commissioner Yaki, I
25	will get to you. But at this point, I am not sure

Page 106 what the focus will be. 1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I think the focus is -- I mean, again, I don't want to confine 3 4 this to South Philadelphia. I mean --5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 6 CHAIR THERNSTROM: is VICE There an 7 unrecognized problem in talking about civil rights 8 issues as if all conflict is between blacks and whites 9 when, indeed, that is not the case. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I guess that is where 11 you two are missing each other. He is focusing on the 12 federal hook. You know, I agree with you and your 13 larger point, but would there be a federal hook, even 14 if we broaden it? 15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I assume there 16 would be. Some lawyer here has to address that issue. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, are 18 you a lawyer? 19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Not according to 20 Commissioner Gaziano, but Yale School would Law 21 disagree. 22 The question, I think what I like about Commissioner Heriot -- I 23 should say Commissioner 24 Thernstrom's proposal has to do with the fact that I 25 think this is the tip of a very large iceberg.

Page 107 And part of the -- I think that we are 1 2 being hung up on the word "enforcement" because I 3 think where the Commission has done some of its 4 greatest work is in identifying where there are holes 5 in the law that could or should have an impact on 6 enforcement of civil rights issues in certain areas. 7 So, whether or not Justice has or has not 8 done it or if they do or do not do anything, there are 9 two things I respond. One, I agree with Commissioner 10 Thernstrom that we should expand this beyond 11 Philadelphia, number one; and, number two, I think 12 that part of that expense for analysis is going to be, 13 how is this being treated elsewhere? And is there, in 14 in statute or coverage could fact, а qap that 15 recommend itself to remediation through a finding and recommendation by this Commission? 16 17 I mean, that is essentially what we used That is the sum and substance of what we were 18 to do. 19 created to do. So I am not as hung up about whether 20 or not there is a specific statutory hook or not. Ι 21 think that the word "enforcement" has many meanings, 22 including if you can't enforce it, why not? And what could you do to do it if there is a reason to create 23 24 enforcement? 25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Vice Chair

Page 108 Thernstrom? 1 2 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes. T like No. 3 that a lot. And, look, there are too many students 4 who are afraid to go to school for a variety of 5 reasons. And one of the reasons is that there are 6 ethic and racial clusters of kids who are at war with 7 one another. 8 And it's not confined to Philadelphia, 9 aqain. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow? 10 11 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'm not going to 12 argue on behalf of any particular issue. I just 13 wanted to voice my sentiment in favor of Commissioner 14 Thernstrom -- Heriot's proposal with respect to --15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Both of you seem 16 to be mixing the two women up. 17 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: -- to DOJ --18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's that syllable 19 Gail in both our names, too. 20 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We need more 21 women, obviously. 22 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: DOJ, ___ what 23 to be the practice or policy, which my appears 24 understanding is it has been going on for quite some 25 time from data of this particular administration

Page 109 directing certain settlement monies to different 1 2 groups. 3 Now, I know in the private sector, you know, if there is an award made or there are damages 4 5 pursuant to litigation and not all of the damages are 6 recovered by individual defendant, there is the cy 7 pres doctrine. Now, this is completely different from 8 that. And I would like to take a closer look at that. 9 Obviously it's a definitive federal 10 enforcement angle to it. 11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. In terms of the mechanics for making a decision, I would propose that 12 13 we circulate the remaining options. And I guess that 14 would be the anti-Asian violence topic, incorporating 15 the revisions recommended by Vice Chair Thernstrom. 16 would also look at Commissioner We 17 Heriot's disparities impact in discipline and also Commissioner Heriot's recommendation that we look into 18 19 the use of consent decrees to funnel money to advocacy 20 groups. 21 We would just recirculate those three 22 topics. We would tally the votes. And then we would have a brief discussion, I hope, and then vote. 23 Is 24 that process okay with everyone? 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And what's the

Page 110 timetable here? 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: At the next business 3 meeting. VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Next business 4 5 meeting. In-person business meeting. 6 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Couldn't we do it on 7 the telephone? VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I am not going to 8 9 get on these conference calls. 10 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You're not willing 11 to get on a conference call? 12 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'm not willing to get on the scheduled conference calls. 13 14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You're not willing 15 to get on any of them? 16 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, none of them. 17 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: No? VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I have not been on 18 one of them. No. 19 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You haven't been on 20 21 one? 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 24 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Why not? 25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's not go

Page 111 back to --1 2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Hold on. Why not? If Vice Chair 3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: not want to participate in the 4 Thernstrom does 5 teleconference, that is her decision. I think that 6 the next meeting -- and I don't know if it's in person 7 or telephonic, but I think that we should resolve this 8 issue at the next meeting, whether telephonic or not. 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I would ask 10 that it be done at the next in-person meeting. I think there's all the difference in the world between 11 12 having discussions in person and having them on the 13 telephone. 14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I think that's 15 September 24, Mr. Chair. 16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 17 MR. FAY: Last meeting. Friday, September 18 10th was an in-person meeting that was diverted to a 19 phone meeting. 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 21 MR. FAY: It was already scheduled in the 22 first --23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And I'm not even 24 around on that date now, now that you changed it. 25 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: September

1	24th is the next scheduled in-person meeting.
2	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: All right.
3	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: When is the next
4	telephonic?
5	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: August 27th.
6	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I would
7	recommend that we handle this at the next meeting,
8	which is a telephonic meeting at the end of the month.
9	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. I will not
10	be on that meeting. I'm not even in town on that date
11	again. And so there isn't even a choice on my part.
12	But, in any case
13	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Which day are we
14	talking about?
15	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Would you be available
16	in September, at the September 10th?
17	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. I've got to
18	I haven't had a vacation all summer. So I've got
19	to save the trips.
20	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You don't need to be
21	in town to be on a telephone meeting.
22	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Pardon me?
23	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You don't need to be
24	in town.
25	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You know, I really

Γ

Page 113 do because if I'm on a vacation, I'm preoccupied. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Why did you schedule 3 a vacation on a date that we had scheduled for --4 5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I scheduled it 6 after you changed it. 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's --8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's a telephone 9 meeting. It's still scheduled. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, folks. Let's 11 have it --12 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Anyway --13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The September 10th 14 telephonic meeting, --15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. I want it at the next business meeting. 16 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- let's deal with the issue at that time. 18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That's fine. 19 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 21 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: September 10th. 22 - CONSIDERATION OF TIMELINES FOR COMPLETION OF THE HEALTH CARE DISPARITIES BRIEFING REPORT 23 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. Okay. During 25 April 16th and May 28th business meetings, our

Page 114 commissioners considered how to proceed 1 with the 2 completion of our health care disparities report. 3 While part A was approved by commissioners on May 28th, there has been some confusion about how 4 5 commissioners agreed to proceed with findings and 6 recommendations as well as their statements and 7 rebuttals. 8 On April 16th, Commissioner Taylor 9 recommended that commissioners write their statements 10 first and upon reading their colleagues' statements 11 try to agree upon a set of findings and recommendations. 12 On May 28th, part A was adopted as a very 13 14 executive summary, but no timeline for short 15 commissioner statements was discussed or voted upon. 16 And the issue of findings and recommendations wasn't 17 discussed any further. 18 In order to bring this report to completion, we need to clarify how we are going to 19 20 proceed without findings and recommendations agreed upon first. 21 22 At this point I would like to open the 23 floor up to Commissioner Taylor to try to help us 24 formulate how we were going to proceed. 25 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I don't know.

Page 116 recommendations. What do you think? 1 2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I have two problems. 3 One is if we're talking about the timeline here, I am 4 working on my statement on STEM. Then we're going to 5 have the national conference. I don't see how I can 6 get anything done by September the 27th. 7 But, second, I don't know what to write 8 about until I know what the findings and 9 recommendations are. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. How about this? 11 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Yes. I mean, well, 12 let me say this. I'm not opposed at all to issuing a 13 report without findings and recommendations to 14 continue the process. 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We have a path, ladies and gentlemen. 16 17 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: That is --COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Are you sure you 18 19 want to do that? 20 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: From my purpose --CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Put this to bed. 21 22 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: -- in terms of 23 getting it out the door to the extent points want to 24 be emphasized, people can do so in their individual 25 statements.

Page 117 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: There's no --1 2 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Т would prefer 3 findings and recommendations, but I don't want that to 4 get in the way of us proceeding apace to move this 5 thing along. 6 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: What about -- I'm 7 just trying to think of -- I hate the idea of just 8 eliminating findings and recommendations from that 9 report because I think that's one where findings and 10 recommendations will be very useful. 11 I've still got the problem of just I can't 12 write something in time for September the 27th. 13 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Right. 14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It just can't be 15 If we're definitely not going to have findings done. 16 and recommendations, if that's the way you want to 17 run, given that --18 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Let me make this 19 recommendation. I could draft my statement, which 20 would include proposed findings and recommendations 21 that others could perhaps join, I could move the 22 process along that way. That wouldn't bind us as a 23 body on the findings and recommendations, but we can 24 still have some out there if people concur in that 25 statement.

1	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, how
2	do you feel about that approach?
3	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: So there wouldn't
4	necessarily be findings and recommendations voted upon
5	but folks
6	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: There would be a
7	proposal.
8	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: There might be if
9	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I could circulate
10	some early. That's right. It would shift the burden
11	to me. What I said is I could put them in my proposed
12	statement. Folks could join my proposed statement.
13	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I like your original
14	proposal best because I can just tell you it will drag
15	out because I will have issues with
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Anything you propose?
17	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: You won't just say,
18	"I concur"?
19	COMMISSIONER YAKI: No. Why not just say,
20	"I dissent"?
21	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Why not you
22	circulate proposed findings and recommendations in the
23	ordinary course?
24	COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I guess let me move
25	them up, then, in my own time.

Page 119 1 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But you proposed 2 them for the rest of --3 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I agree. No. Ι I just do it earlier in the process than 4 agree. 5 originally thought. So I'll still work on the 6 statement, but I will circulate proposed findings and 7 recommendations in the next few days. 8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And then we vote on 9 them, I hope, in September. 10 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Yes. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And then we start 11 12 the clock running on statements. 13 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Yes. 14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 15 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Because --16 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Yes. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Let's stop. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And if we fail to 18 19 adopt them in September, then we'll just go ahead and write statements. 20 21 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: And I will contact 22 Commissioner Yaki to form a subcommittee so that we can work on these. He's not listening to me. 23 24 But yes, I will circulate those early in 25 the process.

Page 120 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Because I agree with 1 2 your concerns about getting this done --3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I want to strike that 4 "He's not listening to me" from the record. I was 5 listening to him. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I was merely feigning. 8 I was listening to him. 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: He does that from time 10 to time. 11 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. We have a 13 process. 14 - UPDATE ON THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Next up, update 16 on the national conference. Staff has been working on 17 the Commission's conference. Well, staff has been 18 working with the Commission's conference planners to finalize arrangements for the national conference 19 20 entitled "A New Era: Defining Civil Rights in the 21 Twenty-First Century." 22 As you know, the event will take place on 23 Tuesday, September 14th at the National Press Club. 24 William Raspberry, the Pulitzer Prize-winning writer, 25 has graciously agreed to be our keynote speaker.

Page 121 We have assembled an impressive list of 1 2 accomplished panelists from a variety of perspectives, which will ensure a fascinating discussion that day. 3 4 Two-thirds of our speakers have committed at this 5 time. And we are waiting for the remaining invites by 6 next week. 7 The Commission website has also gone live accessible from our Commission website. 8 and is 9 Interested individuals can register to attend on the 10 website. It will be updated as more information 11 becomes available regarding our speakers. And it will also include further details about the event. 12 encourage commissioners and 13 Ι staff 14 members who plan to attend to register on the website. 15 We need to account for everyone in order to have an 17 We also hope that you will advertise the 18 your colleagues and other interested event to 19 contacts. As you can see from the website, the 20 conference will consist of five panels. The 21 discussions will last for approximately an hour and 20 22 Each panel will consist of a maximum of four minutes. 23 panelists plus a moderator.

The subject matter of the 1 2 panels reflects that which was agreed upon when our 3 concept paper for the event was adopted with the 4 addition of one panel that focuses on education and 5 education reform issues. 6 I open up the floor for comments and Commissioner Yaki? 7 questions. 8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: When are we going to 9 get a list of the panelists? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: 10 Next week. Commissioner Yaki? 11 Who are our conference 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: 13 planners? 14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Might I have some 15 assistance on that point? 16 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: I don't have 17 the name right in front of me. 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Does anybody know? 19 MS. TOLHURST: Project special events 20 group, Bethesda. 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. An outfit 22 called the Event Planning Group. COMMISSIONER YAKI: Can you simply really 23 24 to them I find it very amusing that my invitation came 25 at least a week and a half before other people got

Page 123 their invitations to the point where people were 1 2 asking me questions and I didn't know. 3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: After other people 4 qot theirs. 5 COMMISSIONER YAKI: After, after. We have 6 it after other people got it. And I had no freaking 7 idea about --8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That should have not 9 happened. And whoever is working with the planners, 10 please let them know that the commissioners should receive information at the same time. 11 12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Thank you. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot? 13 14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I just wanted to say 15 congratulations on getting William Raspberry as a 16 speaker. I think that's great. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, yes. I think 18 that he is a good pick. And I think that we should have a lively discussion, in part in response to his 19 20 e-mail. 21 STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ISSUES III. 22 - CONSIDERATION OF ADDITIONAL NOMINEE TO 23 THE NEW JERSEY SAC 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Next up, the New 25 Jersey State Advisory Committee. I move to appoint

Page 124 Joan Garry to the New Jersey State Advisory Committee. 1 2 Is there a second? COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: 3 Second. 4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? 5 (No response.) 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All in favor please 7 say, "Aye." 8 (Chorus of ayes.) 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Objections? 10 (No response.) 11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Abstentions? I'm 12 sorry. Commissioner Taylor has abstained, 13 Commissioner Heriot, Commissioner Kirsanow. So we 14 have three abstentions. Commissioner Melendez, how do 15 you vote? 16 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And I vote in favor of 18 the motion also. The motion passes. 19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Did you ask me for 20 my vote? 21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry. I assumed 22 that --23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It's yes. 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- you said, "Yes." 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It's yes, but I

Page 125 1 didn't say it. It is yes. 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Next up is the 3 approval of the July 30th --4 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: For the record, it 5 was a voice vote. But, for the record, I voted yes. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: For the record, I want 8 to thank Commissioner Gaziano for the vote. 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. All right. Vice Chair Thernstrom? 10 11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'm sorry. What? 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Did you say something? 13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: She was being a little 15 snarky. So we're going to strike that from the 16 record. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Snarky? 18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Snarky. 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm not sure that that's accurate. Sarcasm. I think sarcasm is closer 20 21 to the mark. 22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Whatever. I reiterate 23 my thank you to Commissioner Gaziano. 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The next item is the 25 approval of the minutes.

Page 126 COMMISSIONER YAKI: It's twice in one 1 2 meeting. 3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Thanking him for 4 the same thing twice. 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Are you going to 6 respond? 7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: You're welcome. 8 (Laughter.) 9 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: Please move on 10 before peace breaks out, Mr. Chairman. 11 (Laughter.) 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, no. I am enjoying this. 13 14 COMMISSIONER TAYLOR: I could not stand 15 it. 16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I am enjoying this. Ι 17 mean, one-upmanship here in terms of being courteous 18 doesn't happen too often. It should be encouraged. 19 APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF JULY 30 MEETING TV. 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Anyway, the next item 21 is the approval of the minutes of the July 30th 22 meeting. These minutes were distributed by the Staff Director on August 5th. 23 24 I move that these minutes be approved. Is 25 there a second?

Page 127 Second. COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? 3 (No response.) CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All those in favor 4 5 please say, "Aye." 6 (Chorus of ayes.) 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom, 8 I heard an "Aye"? 9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes, you did. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All objections? 11 (No response.) 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any abstentions? 13 (No response.) 14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Just to be clear, 15 Commissioner Melendez, how do you vote? 16 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes. 17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It was approved unanimously. 18 19 V. ANNOUNCEMENTS 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: is Next up 21 This year on August 6th, we celebrate announcements. 22 the 45th anniversary of the signing of the Voting Rights Act, 1965, into law. 23 24 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: So we are marking 25 it. Commissioner Yaki had objected to our failure to

Page 128 mark it. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: He didn't look at 3 4 where it was on the agenda. 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Thank you. 6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is a major 7 failing. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Thank you for that 9 clarification. 10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I was thinking more 11 about doing it on the actual day. 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. All right. We 13 celebrate the 45th anniversary of the signing of the 14 Voting Rights Act of 1965 into law by President Lyndon 15 Johnson. Commission's initial 16 This reports and 17 hearings have chronicled massive resistance by state 18 officials to the enforcement of the 15th Amendment, 19 marked by measures to interfere with blacks' right to 20 vote, which existing federal anti-discrimination laws 21 have been insufficient to overcome. These reports and 22 hearings formed the factual predicate for the Voting 23 Rights Act. 24 language of the 15th Echoing the 25 Amendment, the act prohibits states from imposing any

Page 129 "voter qualification or prerequisite to voting or 1 2 standard practice or procedure to deny or abridge the right of any citizen of the United States to vote on 3 account of race or color." 4 5 The act, thus, suspended literacy, knowledge, or character tests, which had been used to 6 7 disenfranchise blacks in the south. Under section 5, 8 covered jurisdictions were required to seek approval 9 from the Attorney General or U.S. Court for the 10 District of Columbia for any changes affecting voting. The act also authorized the appointment of 11 federal voting examiners and directed the Attorney 12 13 General to challenge the use of coal taxes, which the 14 Supreme Court ultimately ruled unconstitutional in 15 1966. Also, we would like to recognize the 19th 16 17 anniversary of the ratification of --18 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Ninetieth. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, the 90th. 19 Thank 20 you. 21 the 90th anniversary of the _ _ 22 ratification of the 19th amendment. August 18th marks the 90th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th 23 24 amendment to the Constitution, which prohibits states 25 and the federal government from denying citizens the

2	those who worked for the recognition of this right and
3	look forward to celebrating its 90th anniversary next
4	week.
5	That concludes the announcements. Next up
6	is the Staff Director's report.
7	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I think that
8	Commissioner Yaki had his hand up.
9	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry.
10	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I can't recall if at
11	the last meeting or not we made an announcement
12	regarding the 20th anniversary of the ADA.
13	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I don't recall.
14	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Neither do I. I think
15	it should be rectified at a future meeting.
16	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That is fine. That is
17	fine. We will check the record and
18	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Just for the record,
19	how can I possibly look at announcements and know that
20	Voting Rights Act was going to be on there? I can't
21	read your mind.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, we will look at
23	the record and see if you're indeed right. And if so,
24	we will rectify that matter.
25	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Thank you.

1	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director?
2	VI. STAFF DIRECTOR'S REPORT
3	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Thank you,
4	Mr. Chairman.
5	I would just like to follow up on a few
6	points in addition to the items that we distributed to
7	commissioners in the written Staff Director's report.
8	Commissioners, a reminder that concurring
9	and dissenting statements on the HBCU and STEM
10	briefing reports are due by midnight Pacific Time on
11	Monday, August 16th. I will circulate those
12	statements to commissioners on Tuesday. And rebuttals
13	will be due on September 13th.
14	We have an entrance meeting scheduled with
15	the auditors on Wednesday, August 18th. The staff
16	will be working cooperatively with the auditors over
17	the next couple of months to ensure a smooth process.
18	Also, if commissioners have a backlog of
19	billable hours to report, please try to submit them as
20	soon as possible. And this will help us with the
21	end-of-the-year fiscal budgeting.
22	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And on that point,
23	please distribute to each commissioner the remaining
24	hours.
25	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: We will do

Page 132 that, as we have done that in the past. We will get 1 2 similar reports out to commissioners to help with that 3 process. 4 And that is all I have for right now, Mr. 5 Chairman. 6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director, as 7 a part of our clearinghouse function, we have asked a federal agencies to provide us with 8 number of 9 information on a regular basis, I believe a monthly 10 basis. 11 It is my understanding that the Department 12 of Justice is no longer providing information in 13 response to that standing request. Is that true? 14 DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: STAFF That's 15 We had very good cooperation early on in the correct. And the individual we were working with 16 process. 17 assumed a different position in the Department. And 18 since then, we have had difficulty getting the information. 19 20 We have made several requests and had contact with that individual, but no information has 21 22 actually been provided. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: When you say, "that 24 individual," referring to? 25 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: They gave us

1	a new point of contact when the one individual was
2	transferred to a different position in the Department.
3	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Could you be more
4	specific on that? Have we sent letters, phone calls?
5	What happened?
6	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: We have sent
7	thus far phone calls and e-mails to the person who has
8	been identified as the new point of contact.
9	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Who is this?
10	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: The name of
11	the person is Karen Stevens, is the new point of
12	contact.
13	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And when was she
14	first e-mailed on this matter? Do you have an
15	approximate date?
16	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: January.
17	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: January. That was
18	when the other person was in charge, right, or
19	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, that
20	is when it transitioned.
21	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: He left in January.
22	He left in December of 2008.
23	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Nine, 2009.
24	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Nine.
25	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Two thousand and

Page 134 nine. Okay. So we have been in contact since 1 2 January, and we haven't gotten any response on this? 3 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: No. 4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Oh, my. 5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So there have been 6 telephone conversations and e-mails. What is the 7 response? Yes, please? And telephone conversations, 8 for example, what's --9 MS. OSTROWSKY: There have been a series 10 of telephone calls. There was an e-mail which was 11 responded to by Ms. Stevens, in which she said she would provide the information as soon as it was 12 13 reviewed by a section that they have that reviews 14 information that goes to Congress. It's a special 15 review. 16 And at that point, after that point, there 17 was no response to e-mail. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: She said send that 18 19 where? She wrote that when? 20 MS. OSTROWSKY: I believe it was in either 21 January or February. And subsequent to that, she did 22 not respond to e-mails or calls. 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. At this point, 24 let's send a formal letter, get a sense of why 25 cooperation has ceased.

Page 135 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It should perhaps be 1 2 more assertive than "get a sense of why," but, you 3 know, request that cooperation occur. 4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You know? 6 (Laughter.) 7 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: We've got a right to 8 this. I think this is very central to our function of 9 being a civil rights watchdog. We need to find out 10 what has actually happened to the Department of Justice. 11 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And this is very 13 14 serious. 15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, did 16 you --17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes? 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- suggest that we 19 issue a subpoena? 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: No. I am simply 21 saying I'm sure the flow of information will resume 22 shortly. 23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I have a question 24 on a completely different subject for the Staff 25 Director.

1	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom?
2	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: So I stared at
3	those numbers on the
4	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Thanks for reminding
5	me.
6	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Pardon me?
7	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, no, no. You have
8	just reminded me of the topic.
9	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: on the amount
10	of time, resources devoted to the New Black Panther
11	Party project. And I just wondered what the process
12	was by which you arrive at such numbers, which looked
13	implausibly low to me, frankly.
14	It is my impression that we've got I
15	mean, this is an old problem of the Commission. I'm
16	not looking at you and saying it's a problem that's
17	occurred under your watch. It's my impression that we
18	don't have a really good way, an accounting system
19	that really does enable us to count up exactly what
20	the hours are that people spend on various projects
21	but I would be glad to be corrected on this and,
22	therefore, arrive at really accurate information.
23	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And I would like to
24	add well, I guess it's a question when folks
25	submit time, is there a breakout of what they are

Page 137 actually working on? 1 2 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: There is a 3 project code for this particular report. And the people who are working on the report when they submit 4 5 their time sheets every two weeks are supposed to 6 allocate how many hours they devoted to that 7 particular project. So that's what it's based on. 8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So we have a system in 9 place. And the only issue is whether the code is 10 being used. 11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Whether the 12 self-reporting is accurate. 13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 14 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: But it's 15 primarily been in the Office of General Counsel is 16 really where the time has been allocated. But I think 17 they have pretty good experience at reporting the 18 time. 19 Now, if someone works above and beyond 20 their 40 hours, I guess we have no way of capturing 21 that, but basically when people are reporting their 22 time, they are supposed to make a good faith estimate 23 of how many hours they devoted to that particular 24 project. 25 Now, we have had -- the other expense, of

Page 138 course, has been out-of-pocket expenses. And those 1 2 have actually been less than what was originally 3 projected because we had not had as many trips to 4 Philadelphia as were budgeted for originally, although 5 we do still have some substantial costs that will come 6 particularly relating to the printing of the report. 7 We will have to have the cover design, the printing of 8 the report. And we will also probably need the 9 services of a copy editor, copy editor, for a period 10 of time, particularly with the numerous links that we 11 hope to establish for the report. 12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And it's also 13 important to note that the investigation -- this 14 number is being compared against projects that have 15 been completed. This one is ongoing. So it's going to be a larger number. 16 17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Ιt looks 18 implausibly small to me, frankly, as I said. 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I guess are these 20 numbers, this type of analysis -- I guess I question 21 how much information -- well, I'm not sure what we get 22 from these numbers. And I'm not sure -- I mean, most of the costs are fixed. They're salaries. And so the 23 24 dollar is going to be paid regardless. 25 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right.

Page 139 1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: In any event, the 2 information was requested by --3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, just 4 because one or two points -- I just wanted to pose 5 this partially as a question, but also it is my 6 understanding that the figure for similar means 7 through last year's mortgage crisis report was 8 211,000, actually closer to 212,000 dollars, which is 9 about $115,000 more than we spent so far on the New 10 Black Panther case. 11 And one of the things that makes me think 12 that the amount that we had spent has been very 13 economically done -and commend the I General 14 Counsel's office, obviously, for shouldering so much 15 work on this with a reduced staff that he is currently laboring under -- is that this investigation, as 16 17 opposed to the mortgage crisis, involved several trips 18 to Philadelphia to take depositions. It involved 19 three hearings of this Commission, rather than one 20 briefing in the mortgage crisis. 21 assume that whether So Ι the cost 22 accounting is perfectly accurate or not, I assume that 23 it is consistent. And this suggests to me that: a) 24 the New Black Panther investigation has been 25 undertaken in a rather economical way. And b) what it

1	also suggests to me is that there are only a few
2	people who on our reduced staff size who have been
3	asked to shoulder a very heavy load.
4	And I would like to commend all of them,
5	particularly all of the attorneys in the General
6	Counsel's Office, who worked on this report so hard.
7	STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: One of the
8	reasons the cost is a little bit less than we
9	projected as well is that we have done these hearings
10	in Washington, D.C., in this office. So we haven't
11	had the travel expenses and hotels and other things
12	that we projected might be the case if we had several
13	hearings in Philadelphia.
14	CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, folks. We have
15	reached the end of the agenda. The meeting is
16	adjourned.
17	(Whereupon, the foregoing matter was
18	concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
