5	Civil Rights. It is now 9:39 a.m. on January 13 th ,
6	2012. This meeting is taking place here at the 7	Commission's headquarters at 624 9 th Street, N.W., in
8	Washington, D.C.
9	I'm Chairman Marty Castro. Commissioners
10	who are present here at the meeting are myself, our
11	Vice Chair, Commissioner Thernstrom, Commissioner
12	Heriot, Commissioner Gaziano, Commissioners Kladney
13	and Achtenberg, and Commissioner Yaki. Commissioner
14	Kirsanow is joining us by phone, and I heard you on
15	there earlier. Is that right, Commissioner Kirsanow,
16	just to confirm?
17	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: That's correct, Mr.
18	Chairman.
19	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: A quorum of the 20	Commissioners is present. Is the person delegated the

2	The first order is the Approval of the
3	Agenda.
4	I. APPROVAL OF AGENDA
5	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: I move that we approve
6	the agenda. Do we have a second?
7	COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Second.
8	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay, any amendments?
9	(No response.)
10	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Hearing none, let's
11	vote to approve the agenda. All in favor say aye.
12	(Chorus of ayes.)
13	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Opposed? Any
14	abstentions? Okay. The motion passes 8-0.
15	Before we move over to the Approval of the 16	Minutes, I just want to acknowledge that Monday is 17	Martin Luther King Day, the federal holiday. And I
18	just want to take an opportunity for us to acknowledge
19	the achievements and the celebration of the life of 20	Dr. Martin Luther King.
21	As you all know, he was a leader of our 22	civil rights movement in the United States from the 23	1950s until the time of his assassination in 1968. His 24	non-violent activism is really what rose the nation's
25	awareness on civil rights violations, and ultimately

1 earned him the Nobel Prize at the age of 35. 2 Between 1957 and 1968, Dr. King traveled more than a million miles and spoke over 2,500 times appearing wherever there was injustice to be protested and action to be taken. 6 His leadership was fundamental to the civil rights movement's success in ending illegal segregation of African Americans in the south and in other parts of the United States. The contributions made by Dr. King and other civil rights leaders influenced the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and remains truly the basis for the Commission's work and authority today. 14 So, on Monday let's not only celebrate the legacy of Dr. King, but let us continue to work to make that dream that he talked about a true reality in this country. 18 Now, I would like to a motion to approve the December 19 th meeting, unless anyone wants to add something. 21 UICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I want to add something. 23 CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Madam Vice Chair. 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: The 1964 Act and the 1965 Voting Rights Act. 23 CHAIR THERNSTROM: The 1964 Act and the 1965 Voting Rights Act. 24 NEAR CROOSS 25 COURTERMENTES AND TRANCERERS 26 COURTERMANCERERS 27 NEAR CROOS 28 COURTERMANCERERS 29 CHAIR THERNSTROM: The 1964 Act and the 1965 Voting Rights Act. 4	Of course, next month, February 3 rd we
5	will have our briefing to support this report. And

8	Justice, OGC Attorney Dave Schneider and I are just

18	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I have some concerns
19	about the panels as they have been put together, or 20	rather as to one of the panels. Panel 3 as it's 21	currently configured has representatives of three
22	states, and a representative of the ACLU, and the

Do not quote or rely on 1	his uncorrected transcript without obtaining written permission from the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights at transcripts@usccr.gov. Civil Rights takes similar positions that are left of
2	center, and I think having a representative of an
3	organization that takes a somewhat more conservative
4	approach would be a proper way to balance that panel.
5	Now, I know that I believe it was at 6	our November meeting, Commissioner Gaziano suggested
7	that we invite Ed Bloom to be on that panel. I think
8	the other people who would be similarly situation who
9	also would be good on that panel, he takes a somewhat
10	more conservative view of the issues that are involved
11	in this case. I don't think that anybody is wedded to 12	him, in particular, but I do think that the panel as 13 it's currently configured is quite imbalanced, and 14	that it really needs a representative who would be
15	able to speak freely.
16	I don't know what position the state
17	representatives will take, but state representatives
18	obviously have a very different different sets of 19	constraints from people who represent organizations
20	like the ACLU and the Lawyers Committee on Civil
21	Rights. And I would like to see an additional witness
22	invited for that panel, and one who would take a more
23	conservative view.

DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY OF THE STAFF DIRECTOR TOLHURST: I think probably I'll just explain why I set up the panel that I did, and then it's really for you all to discuss and decide. If you want me to alter the panel, I will.

I think that Panel 3 is guite balanced. 6 The representative from Louisiana is the Assistant 7 Attorney General. It's a Republican state. 8 The representative for Georgia is actually not working for 9 10 She's outside counsel and a partner at a the state. 11 law firm with expertise in this area. She's also the 12 General Counsel for the Republican party.

The representative from Alabama, John Parks, is at the same law firm, and previously was a visiting Legal Fellow at the Heritage Foundation. So, we have three people who are going to come with conservative views.

18 The Ι declined, had reason and we extensive back and forth on this to include Mr. Bloom 19 or similar suggestions was that, primarily, because 20 21 upon looking at their background, their expertise or 22 at least current participation seemed to me to focus 23 largely on the constitutionality of Section 5, which has been explicitly excluded from this work in the 24 25 Concept paper that Commissioners approved.

3	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: It sounds to me like
4	the panel is balanced, and it also concerns me that 5	we're these potential speakers would be trying to 6	get into a topic that is not the subject of the 7	concept paper. So, it seems to me that we have
8	balance. And, frankly, I am persuaded that our career
9	staff who come up with this, and made an effort have,
10	indeed, put a balanced panel together. So, I'm sure
11	your objections are noted for the record, but I
12	don't see that we need to change this; although, I'll
13	let Commissioner Gaziano say something, and then we'll
14	move on to the next topic.
15	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I hope not just to
16	note my concurrence with Commissioner Heriot's
17	statement for the record, but also to persuade you
18	some of you all, at least, that we need to add a
19	witness.
20	I do know Jack Park, but I and I think
21	I know one of the other witnesses, but the original C-
22	- but they're still constrained. They've still got to express his or her own views.

3 Some of the original reasons we heard for 4 -- before these witnesses were even identified didn't 5 make sense to me not to include a third person. There is one individual who we have more recently suggested 6 7 to be invited who is a state official from Virginia. But if he is asked to testify in his individual 8 capacity, or he has worked with Virginia, would be in 9 10 a better position to express his own individual views 11 as an alternative.

I still don't think the reasons given not 12 just 13 invite Bloom because he also has to а 14 constitutional view which this Committee would not 15 want to hear at the hearing are good ones, but there 16 are plenty of other people to invite who would bring 17 testimony only on the burden of Section 5 as it's 18 currently -- the burden on states and the impact on 19 citizens in those affected states.

I think we would -- the witnesses from the ACLU and the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights minimize whatever burdens there are, so I move that the Staff Director invite an additional witness who has a more skeptical view about the burdens that Section 5 impose.

6	DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY OF THE STAFF
7	DIRECTOR TOLHURST: Although, they weren't selected for

9	COMMISSIONER YAKI: But in terms of their
10	ability to express the burden, so to speak, as 11	Commissioner Gaziano characterized it, they have
12	certainly gone through the entire process. Having gone
13	through the entire process, I do not believe at that

1	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. I guess I have
2	a couple of points to make here. One on the notion
3	that this panel is balanced because the states
4	represent the interests that are posed to ACLU and the 5	Lawyers Committee on Civil Rights.
б	The states are responding to the federal
7	position. We've got another panel where we have a
8	Democratic administration testifying as to their
9	understanding of the law and policy at work here. And 10	the states were responding to that, not to the ACLU.
11	On the issue of the constitutionality, the 12	argument for the unconstitutionality here is based on 13	undue burden which is exactly the issue that we are 14	investigating here. So, you really can't separate the 15	two issues. And anyone who makes the 16	constitutionality issue is building it upon the very 17	issue that the Commission is, in fact, looking into.
18	So, we can truncate it, and not discuss it in terms of 19	constitutionality, but it's the same argument whether 20	we treat it as a constitutional argument, or just an
21	ordinary policy argument.
22	So, it is not the case that these
23	witnesses would be testifying purely to an issue that 24	is off the table. They would be testifying as to the
25	burden created by the Voting Rights Act in this context.
	NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 www.nealrgross.com

2 If you exclude witnesses like this, you 3 know, it looks bad for the Commission. They are 4 likely -- I can't say for sure, but it's entirely 5 possible that we would get testimony submitted anyway, and instead it would simply be testimony where they're 6 7 going to be able to say we have been excluded. And I don't think that's a good thing for the Commission. 8 So, I would much prefer not to have to go down that 9 10 road and have a report that looks at the issue in a 11 way where we feel we've really been briefed by all the 12 witnesses who need to be here. And as for the Commission's, as opposed to 13 14 the Staff Director's authority here, you know, I've 15 said it a million times, I'll say it one more time. 16 The eight members of the Commission, we are the 17 Commission. We make all decisions. Things can be 18 delegated to the Staff Director, but anything that can 19 be delegated can be brought up in the ordinary 20 Commission meeting. And I believe we, in fact, have a 21 duty to make sure that this briefing is the best it 22 can be.

CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Vice Chair.

24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I found what25 Commissioner Heriot said interesting just now, because

Do not quote or rely on this 1	uncorrected transcript without obtaining written permission from the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights at transcripts@usccr.gov. what I was going to say when I raised my hand was that
2	the burden on Section 5 is, in fact, not the topic
3	that we have agreed to investigate. And that is just 4	code words for saying we need to look at the 5	constitutionality. And Commissioner Heriot just said
6	well, they're the same thing. Right. And, therefore,
7	the issue is not on the table, neither the burden nor 8	the constitutionality, which are one and the same, as 9	Commissioner Heriot just said.
10	Second, I don't think it can be argued we
11	are excluding witnesses implicitly on ideological
12	grounds. I think that that is an unfair description of 13	what the Staff Director has done. And, in fact, that
14	panel looks balanced to me, as well.
15	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Commissioner Gaziano,
16	then I'll call the question.
17	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes, just to and
18	I suppose Pete wants to be heard.
19	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Oh, yes, sorry.
20	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: The Commissioners
21	bear the responsibility to each other to create
22	balanced panels. And I think that the Acting Staff

24	but that doesn't mean that in one instance we disagree
25	with the way she's tried to satisfy a majority of us.

1	And then it's our obligation to each other and to the 2	Commission to I think that we certainly, in the 3	past we've actually instructed particular people to be
4	invited. Not only particular people, we've subpoenaed
5	voted to subpoena particular people. So, my motion
6	is much more deferential and much more respectful of 7	the career staff.
8	There is one just for the record,
9	William Herd is one of the people who has expressed a
10	willingness to testify if he were invited, and he is 11	the official from Virginia who would be free, though,
12	to speak in his own capacity, because he wouldn't be
13	representing the state in that. But it is I don't
14	think there's a serious argument that can be made that
15	taking all three panels into consideration, there
16	isn't a single person who could speak in their 17	individual capacity as a VRA skeptic, and especially 18	not on the third panel.
19	And I will regret if I have to make that
20	an issue during the briefing, and during any statement
21	that all right, I would much rather it seems silly
22	to me not to try to make this concession so that all
23	of us on the Commission feel that there was at least
24	one witness who expressed a view that is common. If I
25	lose the motion, then it will be noted for the record,

6	UPDATE ON 2012 TRAFFICKING BRIEFING PLANNING

1	DISCUSSION OF PROJECTS
2	SCHEDULING OF 2012 IMMIGRATION BRIEFING
3	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: At present, we are
4	scheduled to hold our statutory report briefing, as
5	you know, at our February 3 rd meeting. The Trafficking
6	Briefing is set up for our April meeting. My goal
7	today is to have for this year at least five or six
8	2012 briefings so that we fulfill our obligation.
9	It's possible we might be able to squeeze a smaller
10	one in there. It's all going to be ultimately driven
11	by budget.
12	As you know, we're also going to be moving
13	our facility sometime in May or June, so with regard
14	to the Immigration Briefing, what I'd like to do is 15	set that for our Commission meeting on June 8^{th} .
16	That'll give us time later, as well, to do any other
17	briefings that we would agree on today. So, for 18	example, June I'm sorry, July through December we 19	could schedule an additional two to three hearings.
20	Because there might be a chance due to our 21	move that the conference room here would not be
22	available on June 8^{th} , we can also look to see and talk
23	to the Acting Staff Director about another federal
24	agency possibly hosting us in a room like this so that
25	we don't have to go out and rent space. And that
	NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 www.nealrgross.com

5	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Second.
6	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay. Any discussion
7	on that?
8	(No response.)
9	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Hearing none, all

11	(Chorus of ayes.)
12	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Any opposed? Any

16	briefing topics based on the concept papers.
17	III. PROGRAM PLANNING UPDATE AND
18	DISCUSSION OF PROJECTS
19	REVIEW OF CONCEPT PAPERS/APPROVAL
20	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: As you know, Ms.
21	Tolhurst distributed to us a concept paper ranking
22	form. It's my hope today to be able to vote and
23	approve at least, as I said earlier, two topics. That 24	would give us the five that we have for the year. If

1	depending on budget, if we can get a small panel. We
2	might be able to do six, but what I'd like to do at 3	least today is walk away with two approved so that
4	we've got our 2012 dance card full.
5	If we were to approve more than that, we
6	can certainly begin to do those in Fiscal Year '13.
7	And, in fact, we may be in a position to do that today
8	depending on how these votes go. So, once we decide
9	which concept papers today we want to move forward
10	with, we can then designate which ones, if we have 11	more than a couple, would go on to 2013.
12	We do have this ranking form. We're not 13	necessarily driven by it, but just in the interest of 14	time and trying to take the information we got from 15	the ranking form, what I will do is we will start our
16	discussion with the top six, since we've got 12 papers
17	based on the ranking form.
18	What I'd like to do is take them in order
19	of their ranking from one to six. We will have a brief
20	discussion on each of those proposed concepts, and
21	then we will entertain motions from the Commissioners
22	as to the particular concept papers, not necessarily

13	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Thanks, Mr.

15	terms of a discussion I had with Commissioner Kladney,
16	it's I think a very timely topic given that the 11CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Commissioner Kladney12do you have anything you want to add?

13 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: No, I think 14 Commissioner Kirsanow said it all. I mean, if everyone 15 has looked at the amended paper -- has everybody had a 16 copy?

17 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: I don't know if 18 it's the amended paper.

19COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: It starts, "On20October 5, 2011." That's how it begins.

CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Correct.

3	COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Well, I think we

6	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'm sorry? I didn't

12	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think that's

14	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay. So, as I said,
15	we're going to just discuss these, and then we'll come

22	is Increasing Compliance with Section 7 of the NVRA.
23	Commissioner Kladney, that's your paper.

9	So, I think if there's more attention paid we can get

11	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay. Any questions?
12	The Chair recognizes the Vice Chair.
13	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I would have

KLADNEY: 3 COMMISSIONER On this paper, 4 there's -- this one is more important to me. I've also 5 expressed that to several Commissioners. We have in this country a problem, and it's mass incarceration of 6 7 people. It turns out that the racial numbers are high, interested 8 but I'm more in as а focus the administration of justice, and how successful we've 9 10 been or not in terms of 40 years of minimum mandatory 11 sentences, putting people in prison for 15, 20 years 12 at a time, and life. And seeing if there's some way to break the cycle of violence within the inner city 13 14 neighborhoods, and see if we can bring peace to those 15 neighborhoods, and actually try and stop the 16 incarcerations, which actually affect people very 17 whether it's their significantly, jobs, future 18 education, their family lives, things like that. And 19 I think the paper is fairly self-explanatory in that 20 regard.

21 CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Any questions for 22 Commissioner Kladney on that? Yes I, too, want to say 23 that -- I agree with everything you said. There's an 24 excellent book on this topic we've discussed as well 25 Michelle Alexander called the New Jim Crow. by

1	There's a lot of resources out there on this, and it's
2	an issue that I've heard a lot about in my travels
3	recently, as well.
4	The next topic and Commissioner
5	Kladney's got the trifecta going here. It's three of б	his papers in a row have made the top six. So, the 7	Anti-Discrimination Provisions in Virginia's State
8	Adoption Regulations, which I understand is a smaller
9	briefing topic.
10	COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Yes, this would be a
11	I would anticipate a one-panel topic. Basically,
12	the Virginia has a regulation that says foster
13	parents cannot discriminate on the basis of race,
14	color, gender, national origin, age, religion,
15	political belief, sexual orientation, disability, or
16	family status; yet, they passed a regulation I think
17	it was a month or two ago must be two months ago
18	now saying that adoption agencies could not
19	discriminate on the basis of race, color, and I
20	believe national origin, and dropping the rest of 21	that. And I was wondering if we could look at that in 22	terms of does that mean that's a floor, or is that a
23	top in terms of what they're required to look at in 24	terms of discrimination?

8	Mr. Chair. And this was my only topic that I
9	submitted and for veterans of the Commission, they
10	know each one that I've submitted in the past ten
11	years after 9/11.
12	This Commission early on in early 2002
13	held some hearings regarding some of the rising anti-
14	Muslim and anti-Arab hate crimes and violence, and 15	fear that came about after the 9/11 attacks.
16	Since then, we have not done any
17	evaluation of exactly the many federal efforts that
18	were put into place at that time. I think that what 19
20	this briefing will do is sort of document what has 20	been going on, what is the state of play in terms of Islamophobia as it exists today.
22	There have been some very public and
23	notorious incidents, but then there are also questions
24	of how widespread is it really? This is to try and 25	get data on it to inform us and policy makers on the

3	I would just simply note that I want to
4	thank the Commissioners who have worked on this with 5	me and supported it and who have given lots of 6	feedback that helped me to change its focus and make
7	it more coherent and cohesive in terms of its overall
8	structure.
9	But I would note that from my own point of
10	view, I am concerned about reports of CIA linkages
11	with the New York Police Department. I am concerned
12	about reports of federal surveillance inside houses of 13	worship. I am concerned about some of the opinion
14	polls out there regarding Muslim Americans and the 15	actions by companies such as Lowe's, or Kayak.com in 16	terms of pulling advertising from shows that are
17	actually showing positive values in the Muslim
18	American community.
19	But this is my individual point of view.
20	This is to get a holistic fact-based assessment and
21	review, and I welcome your support.
22	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Any questions for

10	Barriers to Entrepreneurship that Impede Business
11	Startups, proposed by Vice Chair Thernstrom. Madam
12	Vice Chair?
13	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I've spoken
14	previously about what I think is the importance of 15	this topic. Let me just add a couple of points. One,
16	it's an opportunity to look at other federal agencies
17	other than DOJ to look, for instance, at the Small
18	Business Administration. It's an opportunity to expand
19	on previous Commission and SAC work in this area.
20	It's a timely topic in terms of in the context of 21	today's economy. And examining the impact of 22	regulations on small and startup businesses owned by 23	disadvantaged groups is really central to addressing
24	what I think is a serious problem, particularly for 25	when we look at the state of black America.

3	Everybody will remember when the Los Angeles riots
4	took place that we had the Korean shop owners standing

6	I think that Commissioner Thernstrom's
7	topic lends itself to the kind of I think ease of 8	putting together that we should always have, A, in our
9	back pocket anyway, and B, if there's sufficient
10	interest, we should approve it and then, hopefully,
11	find a time to make it happen. So, I think we should

25	don't want to commit the Commission at this point.

2	DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY OF THE STAFF
3	DIRECTOR TOLHURST: As usual, I've circulated the Staff

б	If you have questions relating to SACs, I
7	want to note for the Regional Program Report, RPCU

13	CHIEF OF REGIONAL PROGRAMS' REPORT
14	MR. MINARIK: Again, from the Staff
15	Director's report you get three parts to the program,
16	chartering. We saw 38 of the 51 SACs are now
17	chartered, and in 90 days you're going to have another
18	seven expiring, and the goal is to be around 80
19	percent. So, I just draw your attention to that.
20	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: And where are we in
21	the pipeline on those that are expiring, do you know?
22	MR. MINARIK: When you say in the pipeline,
23	Mr. Chairman?

2	MR. MINARIK: Of the seven I can tell you

4	these expired charters before the Staff Director
5	several weeks before their expiration.
6	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay, and as to the 7	other two, is there a plan to get those into
8	mR. MINARIK: Not that I know of.
9	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay. What bear
10	with me here because I'm glad we've got you here now
11	on some of these questions.
12	What would be the process or the role of 13	the person in your position to make sure that these 14	other two are submitting these 90-day reports to you?
15	Who's responsible for that?
16	MR. MINARIK: The Staff Director. Well,
17	technically, it's the Regional Director who has the
18	responsibility to get the package to the Staff
19	Director
20	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay.
21	MR. MINARIK: in time so that the
22	charter does not lag inordinarily. So, that falls upon
23	the Regional Directors.
24	As part of the administrative

5	if not, to note that for the Staff Director.
6	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: So, is that happening?
7	MR. MINARIK: Well, the I only just

9	so every one of those plans, the five of them have
10	said we're going to be doing outreach to January.

17	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: I also note that
18	there's a couple of SACs that have been

7	MR. MINARIK: New York, Delaware, and West

9	charters expired in 2012. 2005 the Commissioners
10	enacted new procedures to charter State Advisory
11	Committees.
12	State Advisory Committees having been
13	chartered after that change in policy are considered
14	part of the backlog. So, all the other 48 have all
15	been chartered at least once. So, those three still 16	have not been chartered under the new rules.
17	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: What can we do to get
18	those chartered? I think 2004 is just I mean, I
19	could understand some not being re-chartered for a few
20	months just because of the flow, but 2004 seems to me

4	The Texas Advisory Committee has recently released a
5	report on human trafficking. I think the Commissioner
6	should seek to ask the Chairman of the Committee to be
7	part of the briefing.
8	Not only that, I couldn't help but notice
9	in my advocacy role when you're approving these 10	reports, we've talked about anti-Muslim activity. I
11	know the Michigan Advisory Committee has recently done
12	something on that. Voting Rights, Kentucky and 13	Florida have recently issued reports. There was one by 14	Commissioner Kirsanow that you didn't get to on
15	affirmative action. The Arizona Committee has done
16	these things. I would just ask that you consider
17	contacting the regional programs of whether a State
18	Advisory Committee has done some activity recently.
19	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Oh, absolutely. In
20	fact, I think at the last meeting I had mentioned that
21	I had spoken to the Eastern Regional staff about the
22	human trafficking, and we had suggested that maybe
23	there's even some way to coordinate the publication of 24	their reports along with ours.
25	In addition, I have personally spoken to the head of the Texas SAC about the report, not 1 2 necessarily including human trafficking, but talking 3 to him about the report. But that's a point that's 4 well taken. 5 of In terms the school disciplining briefing, that's something that didn't occur on my 6 7 watch, but I can assure you it was my first briefing, and I was surprised as well that we didn't integrate 8 that. But I made certain that in my statement that we 9 10 included the findings of the school discipline reports 11 that had already been published that were public. And as you can see from the other Concept Papers that have 12 13 approved earlier this for example, been year, 14 immigration, we do contemplate engaging the SACs. The 15 Vice Chair's program that we approved today also 16 contemplates engaging the SACs, so that's something C-17 those are points well taken. And we would definitely 18 appreciate whatever facilitation you and the Staff 19 Director can provide us in engaging our SACs even 20 more. 21 MINARIK: That's all MR. Ι have, Mr. 22 Chairman. 8	like to nominate instead as Chair Ms. Nalani Fujimori

9	Kaina. She's been on the SAC for some time. She is 10	with legal aid. She's not in any one school of 11	thought in terms of issues, and she's not a single-

1	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mine is just a
2	simple question. What is the rule? I understand it's
3	an administrative instruction, Commissioner Yaki.
4	Could you just for the record or for my benefit repeat
5	the rule that
6	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. Well, it's
7	actually in two places. One is in a discussion that
8	we had when we amended the SACs early on, but then it
9	was incorporated in recommendations made by
10	DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY OF THE STAFF
11	DIRECTOR TOLHURST: Lean Six Sigma
12	COMMISSIONER YAKI: the Lean Six Sigma,
13	yes, process that we engaged in a few years back. I
14	think you had just come on the Commission.
15	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I, unfortunately,
16	missed the whole Lean Six Sigma
17	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Fortunately, you missed
18	that? And I have no idea why they call it Lean when it
19	takes so much time. But the suggestion was to keep
20	SACs fresh, that this Commission had imposed term
21	limits on members of the Commission as a whole, I
22	think to, what is it, four 2-year terms, I think, or 23	five? I can't remember which. But in order to ensure 24	that within that group there was a diversity of 25	viewpoints and fresh energy devoted to being Chair,

6	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm still unclear.
7	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Let me just see if I
8	just so your motion still would be in order, but
9	as I understand your answer, there's no binding AI
10	that would have bound our staff to eliminate him.
11	COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's not quite
12	actually may I respond? That's not quite true,
13	because what the Commission did was to formally adopt
14	the incorporation of the suggestions of the Lean Six
15	Sigma project into our AIs. That is actually what
16	binds the review process for briefing and statutory
17	reports now even as we speak.
18	That was part of their purview, was also 19	to look at the SACs election process and was part of
20	the whole set of recommendations that the Commission
21	at that time adopted wholesale to be incorporated by
22	reference into our AIs.

DELEGATED THE AUTHORITY OF THE STAFF 1 2 DIRECTOR TOLHURST: Previous Staff Director issued a 3 memo which I'm happy to forward to all Commissioners 4 saying that the complete SAC set of revisions approved 5 by this in conjunction with Booz Allen sent a memo to Commissioners saying that this, in fact, was the rule 6 7 and had been -- and will be the rule. For unknown reasons, the Staff Director did not create an AI to 8 reflect that, but Commissioners received a memo saying 9 10 that this was the rule coming out of Lean Six Sigma.

11 CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: And we've operated 12 with other recommendations already on other matters it 13 sounds like, as well. Commissioner Yaki?

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But I'd also say in 15 2005 when the changes to the SACs were made, quite 16 frankly over my objection, one point that I did bring 17 up at the time was to limit the terms of the Chair to 18 two 2-year terms. That actually was -- I'm pretty sure 19 was accepted at that time, but like with many things that as you saw here, never quite incorporate into an 20 21 AI. But I believe somewhere in one of the debates, 22 and I just did not have the time to go through 12 23 months worth of transcripts because this was debated over -- this was what -- debate over some period of 24 25 time, that my concern was to insure that Chairs would

2	So, we can as the Chair said, we have
3	used this rule already. I don't know why we didn't
4	apply this rule to Hawaii. In any case, I think Mr.
5	Lilly has served the Commission well, but I would like

14	COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Partly, but I'm still 15	sort of baffled by this whole thing. Am I to 16	understand that this was somehow voted upon and we
17	forgot with regard to Hawaii? What's what happened
18	here? If this is a rule that we have, why was it not 19	followed in this case, if it indeed is a rule that we

21	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Mr. Minarik will have

6	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Okay. How do you vote,
7	Commissioner Kirsanow?
8	COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'm sorry, I had to

3	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.
4	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Do you want to say

6	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. I think that with

14	In the case of Mr. Kuroiwa, he has made
15	several public statements and written statements. And
16	these are things that he has written himself, not
17	paraphrased by any reporter regarding his opposition
18	to same-sex marriage, any form of domestic 19	partnership, or in fact his opposition to what he 20	defines as the act of homosexuality. There are a
21	number of different states that he's made on that that

3	litigation on the Native Hawaiian issue. I have raised
4	my objections to Mr. Burgess from the moment that he

6	the Commission that does not provide much in the way
7	of anything other than his continued opposition to

9	itself I would understand, but being that he seems to 10	have little to no interest in anything else going on,
11	and in fact has been sanctioned by a court for that

15	actions before we actually can vote on them formally.
16	That is my motion.

3	I have a separate concern about the
4	existing balance of this SAC. One of the questions I
5	was going to ask Mr. Minarik, and I'd like to do that 6	at this time. If the rest of the Commission is willing
7	to sever and ask these individuals to by the way,
8	usually we ask these not always, but when the 9	opportunity presents itself, we ask these individuals
10	privately before the meeting without putting on the 11	record alleged defamatory actions about them. But if
12	we're going to do that at this meeting
13	COMMISSIONER YAKI: Point of order. There
14	is nothing alleged defamatory when in fact, one, you
15	have a court opinion. And two, you actually have the 16	things that they have actually published themselves.
17	It's another thing when we've had and second of 18	all, that is absolutely wrong.
19	If you want to go into the Vermont SAC ad
20	nauseam where you brought stuff at the meeting, and as
21	a courtesy we did the exact same procedure that I'm
22	asking for right now, the exact same procedure,
23	Commissioner Gaziano. I said

5	of the stuff. I did not have anything that would
6	that I thought would be concrete enough to bring
7	forward that could be potentially defamatory, number
8	one.
9	Number two, as we did in Vermont, in
10	Vermont I heard about this just before the meeting,
11	but it was not actually presented until the meeting
12	regarding a statement made by the proposed Chair of 13	the Vermont State Advisory Committee in a newspaper
14	article. It was actually a quotation, and was actually
15	a Letter to the Editor, I believe.
16	You, at that point, made the comment that
17	it was because he had actually written the letter
18	himself we could consider it, and that we should then
19	ask him send it back and ask him to respond, which 20	we did. At the next meeting, the Commission voted not

7	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And I did not
8	appreciate you interrupting me, so please let me
9	continue now that you've had your second piece in the 10	middle of my time.
11	I don't believe you've accurately
12	characterized how we proceeded under the Vermont
13	situation. I do remember I think we did put off the 14	entire SAC. I do remember that it was a unanimous vote
15	with no abstentions to take off the Vermont SAC, so
16	there was absolutely unanimous agreement in the end
17	regarding the matter that I brought before the 18	Commission.
19	Now I'd like to ask Mr. Minarik the
20	question that I had raised to sort of further the 21	point that I was going to make. I was a little
22	concerned about the balance of this SAC, and as other
23	Commissioners know, I think what really matters under
24	our previous modifications that it's the ideological
25	balance rather than party registration, as I commented

4	be described as having the same ideological balance.
5	There were 14 members on the SAC, one as I
6	understand moved out of state. That was a
7	Conservative member. There were no additional efforts
8	or I'm not sure there were no additional efforts,
9	but there's no one else in addition that was
10	recommended to the SAC.
11	Pursuant to some suggestions made by Staff
12	Director and others, I focused my recommendations,
13	limited them to one or two per SAC. I made two 14	recommendations which you may or may not be aware of.
15	That's part of what my question is.
16	Also, pursuant to discussions we've

1	I try to handle it. And I did think in balance that
2	when it played out not only here but in California,
3	that the SACs were reasonably well balanced. And I
4	will also say that why I thought they were reasonably
5	well balanced is because in the south and the west we б	make real efforts to have unanimous reports. And the 7	Hawaii report that was issued was the first one in a
8	long time that didn't have unanimity, but all of the 9	others. The Nevada report that just got up here,
10	unanimous. Every word that's come out of the Southern 11	Regional Office, and there have been 20 of them, every
12	one of them unanimous, and on difficult subjects,
13	voting rights for ex-felons.
14	So, I personally am not that concerned. In
15	Arizona, Affirmative Action admissions in public
16	colleges and universities, unanimously adopted. Every
17	one gives in a little bit, and I know I cannot force
18	that, but they all know that's my preference. And
19	that's the best answer I can give, Mr. Commissioner.
20	COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I'm glad the Staff
21	Director has informed you of our discussion that we 22	don't want 11, but I think given that there's two,
23	three, whatever, I thought that the consensus of the 24	Commission was that we want a slate much closer to 18.
25	But I think 12 doesn't have very much room, margin for

Do not quote or rely on this ur 1	ncorrected transcript without obtaining written permission from the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights at transcripts@usccr.gov. error either. But based on my concerns that the
2	package even before Commissioner Yaki's motion to
3	sever was somewhat imbalanced, and this would make it
4	much, much more so, and because I think that some of 5	the concerns well, I haven't had time, and none of 6	us have had time to really study the matters and the individuals involved as returning members should be 8	able to respond.
9	I would ask the same consideration that we
10	gave Commissioner Yaki last month, that we postpone
11	vote on the slate, and we consider the slate next
12	month after we've gotten a response back from these
13	returning SAC members.
14	CHAIRPERSON CASTRO: Commissioner Yaki,
15	what say you?
16	COMMISSIONER YAKI: I'm of two minds on
17	this. Maybe I'll just pass, but no.
18	(Laughter.)
19	VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Don't do that.
20	COMMISSIONER YAKI: In prior years, let's
21	say 2008 and 2009 to be exact, and most of 2010,
22	generally what we have tended to do is to
23	especially when here we have what is it, 14 on the 24	proposed for the Hawaii SAC?
25	MR. MINARIK: Thirteen.
	NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 www.nealrgross.com

COMMISSIONER YAKI: Thirteen. Subtracting 1 2 two for the severance, and we'll see what happens with 3 those individuals, that leaves some slots available. I 4 think that part of my preference would be simply to 5 see if there are the votes to approve the remainder, deal with the severance issue, and then what is left 6 7 over we bring back next week, next month with that, and with any other names that Commissioner Gaziano 8 would like to submit, which I will give as due and 9 10 full consideration as he would give any of mine.

11 That is sort of my first preference. My 12 second preference would be to simply kick it over 13 again, but I feel now that my own preference would be 14 to approve the Commission as amended without the two 15 names that are severed, and then come back next month 16 with -- because these people are all people who have 17 been there before, have been reappointed, want to be 18 on there. So, I don't see that there -- I don't think 19 there's any consensus to knock anyone off. I think it's an issue of addition rather than subtraction. 20

So, depending on what happens to the fate of Mr. Kuroiwa and Mr. Burgess next month, and what Commissioner Gaziano brings forward next month, I would rather wait for that to happen, but to approve the amended Commission this month.
