CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Good morning. I'm calling this meeting to order. This is a meeting of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. Today is July 17, 2015 and it is 10:05 a.m. We are meeting at the Commission's Headquarters at 1331 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, in Washington, D.C.

I am Chairman Marty Castro. Commissioners who are present with me here at the meeting are Vice Chair Timmons-Goodson, Commissioner Narasaki, Commissioner Heriot, Commissioner Kirsanow,
Commissioner Achtenberg, Commissioner Kladney.

Commissioner Yaki will be joining us by phone. Commissioner Yaki, are you on the phone? So, he will join us at some point but we do have a quorum of commissioners present.

Is the court reporter present? Yes. Is the Staff Director Present?

DIRECTOR MORALES: Yes.

CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, the meeting will come to order. The first item is the approval of the agenda.

I. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: I move that we approve the 2 agenda. Is there a second?

3 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Second.

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Are there any 5 amendments? Yes, Commissioner Achtenberg.

6 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Mr. Chairman, I
7 would like to move to amend the agenda for consideration 8 of an in memoriam proclamation upon the passing of 9 Bonnie Milstein. And I think we would have it 10 considered if the Chair is willing, at the beginning of 11 the Program Planning.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, are there any 13 other motions to amend? I know that we are going to send 14 the Wisconsin Advisory SAC back to have a little more 15 work done. So, I want to put it on next month's agenda, 16 instead of this one. So, that would be a motion to amend 17 as well.

18 Any other amendments? Hearing none, is 19 there a second?

20 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Second.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. All those in 22 favor say aye.

23 (Chorus of aye.)

24 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any opposed?

4 II. PROGRAM PLANNING

5 CONSIDERATION OF AN IN MEMORIAM PROCLAMATION

6 ON THE PASSING OF BONNIE MILSTEIN

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, so the first item
8 then is the consideration of the In Memoriam Statement.
9 Commissioner Achtenberg.

10 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Mr. Chairman, I
11 propose that we adopt the following statement.

12 United States Commission on Civil Rights
13 notes with sadness the recent passing of Bonnie 14 Milstein, Esquire. Bonnie Milstein was a passionate, 15 life-long advocate for justice. She was fierce in her 16 determination to assure all persons equal treatment 17 under law. As a consummate public interest lawyer, 18 Bonnie worked on behalf of individuals and to advanced 19 policies that further fairness and justice.

20 Bonnie began her legal career as a legal 21 services lawyer and then as a staff attorney with the 22 ACLU National Prison Project.

23 In 1976, she became the supervising 24 attorney in the General Counsel's Office of the United

1 States Department of Health, Education and Welfare.
2 Then, her work involved school segregation, as well as 3 sex, age, and disability-based discrimination.
4 Thereafter, she specialized in fair housing and 5 disability issues, including the rights of the mentally 6 disabled.

7 She practiced at the Center for law and 8 social policy and then at the mental health law project, 9 now the Bazelon Center for Mental Health Law. She went 10 on to chair the congressionally-created Occupancy Task 11 Force, which focused on fair housing enforcement.

12 In 1993, Bonnie joined the United States 13 Department of Housing and Urban Development's Office of 14 Fair Housing, where she directed enforcement of Section 15 504, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; Title VI of the 16 Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Americans with 17 Disabilities Act of 1990 and other civil rights laws.

18 After a stint in private practice working 19 on fair housing and disability rights enforcement in 20 2009, she returned to the Bazelon Center --

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner, use the 22 other mike instead.

23 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: She returned to 24 the Bazelon Center as the Director of Housing Policy.

NEAL R. GROSS

1 She practiced there until her untimely death in early 2 2015.

3 Bonnie did serious work but did not take 4 herself too seriously. She did righteous work without 5 being self-righteous. She was a wonderful human being, 6 a devoted mother and grandmother, and a delightful and 7 committed friend.

8 With her enormous talent, intellect, and 9 pension for hard work, she had been the arc of history 10 toward justice, especially for people with 11 disabilities. She is already missed.

12 And if the Commission would allow, I would 13 like to sign the in memoriam, in addition to a signature 14 from the Chair, if the Commission would so permit.

15 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: So, that is a motion.
16 Is there a second?

17 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I'll second.

18 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any discussion?
19 Discussion? I think this is definitely something we 20 want to do. This is an individual who had a tremendous 21 impact, not only civil rights in the United States, but 22 clearly setting a role model for others. And I think 23 we, as a Commission, should continue to highlight the 24 work of individuals such as this, once they have passed.

2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Hi, this is 3 Commissioner Yaki. I'm sorry I got on late.

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, thanks for letting 5 us know you are on. We are just -- do you have any 6 comments or questions on Commissioner Achtenberg's in 7 memoriam statement?

8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: None at all.

9 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay.

10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I wholeheartedly
11 agree with it.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, then I will call it 13 for vote. Commissioner Kirsanow, how do you vote?

14 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes.

15 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Heriot,
16 how do you vote?

16 UPDATE ON OCRE STAFFING REQUIREMENTS TO

17 COMPLETE OUTSTANDING REPORTS

18 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Next on the agenda is an

19 update on the OCRE Staffing requirements to complete

20 outstanding reports. I would ask our Assistant Staff

21 Director, Angela French-Bell, to please join us. She

22 provided us recently with -- actually a memorandum that

23 was sent to the Staff Director was shared with us. So,

1 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Good morning, Chairman
2 Castro, Madam Vice Chair, Commissioners, Special 3 Assistants and staff.

4 The Office of Civil Rights Evaluation was 5 asked to look at three different things. First, 6 whether employing additional contractors --

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: There is a Wi-Fi issue 8 with the mics.

9 MS. FRENCH-BELL: -- whether having 10 additional contractors would assist us with writing our 11 reports. Two, we were asked about a work plan that 12 described the best use of the contractors. And three, 13 we were asked to recommend the number of briefings that 14 we could reasonably hold during fiscal year '16.

15 In answer to the first question, we would 16 definitely find it helpful to have contractors during 17 the next fiscal year and even this fiscal year. As far 18 as the use of those contractors, the best use, we feel, 19 would be using them to work on the backlog of reports 20 that we have.

21 Our suggestion is that we hire a total of 22 four contractors. And what I have in the plan is a 23 little bit different than what it would be now, after 24 talking to Mauro, after he consulted with our budget

NEAL R. GROSS

1 manager.

2 So, the first contractor would hopefully
3 start by August first and continue on for a six-month
4 period. We could, hopefully, bring on a second 5 contractor at the beginning of the next fiscal year, 6 October first, and then phase in the other two after 7 that.

8 The reason that it would be best to have one 9 or two contractors at a time and not bring up all four 10 at the same time is that one, space is at a premium at 11 the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. We only have so 12 many available computers and so many available spaces.

13 The second reasons is that a liaison from 14 the OCRE team would be required to work with the 15 contractors and that would distract us from the work 16 that we are doing. Although it would be a help and 17 definitely beneficial, it still would take some of our 18 time and resources.

19 The reason that we want to spread the 20 contractor out over a six-month period is because it 21 would help us to be able to one, train them adequately 22 to be able to understand the commission reports and the 23 way that we are currently structuring them. It would 24 also help to build a relationship with them so that it

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 would be easier to manage the work that they are doing.

2 As far as the order of the reports, the 3 first report that we would like the first contractor to 4 focus on is A Quiet Crisis. We received a letter from 5 the Hill indicating their interest in that report. So, 6 we will give that one top priority.

7 The second question that we were asked is 8 what number of briefings do we think would be reasonable 9 to hold in fiscal year '16? Our response is that the 10 best number of reports based on our current resources, 11 as well as the additional help of the contractors would 12 be three. There are several reasons for that.

13 First, we want to make sure that the reports 14 are well-researched and well-written. It takes time to 15 adequately do that.

16 The second reason is we would still be 17 looking and revising the reports that are already in the 18 pipeline and that will take time as well.

19 Also, we want to make sure that there is 20 availability to be able to add additional timely 21 reports, as Commissioner Yaki stated. We want to be 22 able to give you guys some flexibility to handle 23 emerging issues. We couldn't handle a large number of 24 reports but, in years past, it seems like that is the

NEAL R. GROSS

1 practice, to add additional reports. And if we had more 2 than three, we could not do that.

3 And the last reason, and probably the most 4 important reason is that we want to provide the 5 commissioners that are currently on the commission the 6 ability to be able to one, see a draft of the reports 7 that they are proposing and two, be able to respond to 8 that report via a statement. If we do more than three 9 reports, we cannot guarantee that the reports that are 10 being -- the briefings that were being done in fiscal 11 year 2016 will have a report attached to them in a timely 12 manner to be able to have the individuals who might be 13 leaving the Commission during fiscal year '16 to be able 14 to issue a statement that goes along with those reports.

15 So, for all of those reasons, we think that 16 is the best plan, using the current resources that we 17 have at this time.

18 And we are open to any questions that you 19 may have.

20 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you. Do
21 Commissioners have questions? Commissioner Kirsanow.

22 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: What will be the 23 qualifications of the contractors? Where are we 24 getting them from? And how long do you think the

NEAL R. GROSS

1 ramp-up period, that is when you are training them, how 2 long do you think that will take?

3 MS. FRENCH-BELL: In answer to the first 4 question, the qualifications that we are looking for are 5 individuals, one, that have extensive writing 6 experience; two, have experience doing legal research 7 and writing; three, also have experience working for the 8 federal government because we are thinking that would 9 enable them to come up to speed faster.

10 In answer to your second question of how 11 long it would take to get them up to speed, we anticipate 12 anywhere from six to eight weeks, depending. They 13 would still be researching during that time but it does 14 take time to get acclimated to the commission.

15 In answer to the third question, it is our 16 hope to bring the first contractor onboard by August 17 first of this year.

18 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: And just a quick 19 follow-up. How many man hours do you think will be 20 expended by Commission staff in getting them up to 21 speed?

22 MS. FRENCH-BELL: It is hard to tell. It 23 would actually depend on the person. If there is 24 somebody who already has experience working with the

1 Commission, which would definitely be a bonus, then, of 2 course, that time would be less. If there is somebody 3 who has less familiarity with the Commission, then it 4 would take more time. We would hope that it would take 5 no more than four hours a week during the initial period, 6 to be able to bring them up to speed.

7 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: One more
8 question. Compensation level.

9 MS. FRENCH-BELL: We are looking at, if it 10 is part-time, $25,000 per contractor.

11 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Kladney.

12 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I have several 13 questions. It is my understanding that you want to 14 house these contractors here.

15 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Yes.

16 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Why can't they be 17 contracted to do the work, come in and report, and do 18 the work virtually?

19 MS. FRENCH-BELL: I would be possible, 20 possibly after the first six to eight weeks. But at 21 first when they are catching up and getting used to the 22 Commission, it would be better to have them here, be 23 hands-on, be able to grab any document that we need, be 24 able to ask any questions that we have.

1 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: So, as you have 2 analyzed these subjects, especially the Quiet Crisis, 3 how many hours do you think that would take? Your crew, 4 how have they estimated and have you estimated the 5 number of hours that these people are going to need?

6 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Well, we have just 7 estimated it basically based on a time period over a 8 period of six weeks. We are hopeful that it wouldn't 9 --

10 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Six weeks?

11 MS. FRENCH-BELL: No, sorry. Six months.
12 I'm sorry. We are hopeful that it wouldn't actually 13 take that long and that we may even be able to start on 14 a second report during that time period, which would be 15 a cost savings to the Commission but we are not looking 16 at it as man hours so much as length of time.

17 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: But that would be 18 equivalent to a thousand hours -- six months.

19 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Right and we are saying 20 in that time --

21 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I mean a work year 22 is 2,000 hours.

23 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Agreed. What we are 24 saying in that time they may actually be able to do more

1 than one report but we just have to see what the 2 capability is of that individual.

3 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Okay. So, when I
4 initially proposed this, I thought that you would 5 propose something like pay someone $15,000 for a final 6 product and they would go off and do the final product 7 and come back and report. That is what I thought 8 contracting was.

9 But you are talking about having these 10 people work hourly. Is that correct on a contract?

11 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Right, correct.

12 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: And that would be a 13 1099 or a W-2?

14 MS. FRENCH-BELL: That would probably be a 15 W-2.

16 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Okay. So, now
17 getting to the number of reports that you want to do 18 annually, which is three, I actually feel that is quite 19 constrained. I know perhaps we should -- Mr. Chairman, 20 before we make a decision on this, shouldn't we hear 21 about the budget numbers and how much money there will 22 be? I mean, obviously, someone said there is $35,000
23 in the budget for this year or I guess. I'm not exactly 24 sure.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: You know there is a lot 2 of issues that come into play on this decision, one of 3 which is the budget. So, I think, at this point, if 4 there is a question about whether we could afford what 5 is being suggested here by OCRE, our staff director can 6 tell us right now. We don't have to wait for the budget 7 update. He can provide that data.

8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have a question, Mr.
9 Chairman, this is Commissioner Yaki.

10 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes. I have got a 11 couple of other commissioners in line ahead of you.

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Sure. Okay, fine. I 13 just wanted to follow up on the money issue.

14 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. So, I am going to 15 have the Staff Director respond to that now.
16 Commissioner Kladney, if you have any other questions, 17 you can wrap them up. Then it is going to go to 18 Commissioner Heriot, then Commissioner Yaki.

19 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Well, I don't have 20 any questions as of now but I probably will later.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: That's fine.

22 DIRECTOR MORALES: And so in response to 23 your question, Mr. Chairman, do we have the flexibility 24 in the budget to do what has been proposed by the Office

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 of Civil Rights Evaluation and the answer is yes.

2 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I guess the 3 question is -- is this working?

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, it's working.

5 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: The question is how 6 -- I'm trying to figure out the mechanism here. If we 7 are going to hire somebody now before the end of the 8 fiscal year, are we going to take that money and contract 9 it and set it aside from this year? And how much are 10 we parking to cover that expense? I mean, what are the 11 mechanics and how does it work? Because next year, 12 there is a proposal to hire two or three extra. And then 13 is that resulting in us only being able to do three 14 reports? I mean all this is kind of like a moving target 15 together.

16 DIRECTOR MORALES: And that is a really 17 good way of describing it. It is a moving target.

18 And so what I have been given from our 19 budget director or the best estimates at this moment in 20 time and there is a savings that has resulted from some 21 payroll. Unfortunately, it is not just an amount of 22 money that is just sitting in a pot. Some of that has 23 already been allocated for expenses that have been put 24 off.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 So, for example, some IT requirements that 2 weren't foreseen because of some government hacking and 3 cyber security issues that have come up in requirements, 4 additional travel that was not anticipated for the 5 commission, a deferred statistical analysis package.
6 We are looking at also bringing on a contractor to assist 7 in our audit so that we don't fall behind our audit 8 requirements.

9 And so in looking at all of that and adding 10 in a figure for the current contractor proposed by the 11 Office of Civil Rights Evaluation, it looks like within 12 that budget allocation and savings, that we can 13 accommodate that.

14 There may be an opportunity to bring on the 15 second contractor sooner. This is all within this 16 fiscal year. Next fiscal year, we are anticipating 17 that we would be able to bring on at least one or two 18 others. During the course of the year, there are 19 savings that come up that can't be completely foreseen.
20 Barring something catastrophic that Congress would do 21 in the budget process in the fall with a continuing 22 resolution or a sequestration or what have you, we at 23 least anticipate, at this time, that we would be able 24 to bring on those two additional contractors that have

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 been requested.

2 Now, that could change if there is a five 3 percent reduction in the budget because of what could 4 happen in the fall but those are elements that we can't 5 control at this time.

6 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Okay. Well, what 7 you are saying is, at least as I recall the numbers, 8 $35,000 can be allocated from this year's budget.

9 DIRECTOR MORALES: That is what we have, at 10 this time.

11 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: So, and I don't 12 know if this a question for the rest of the Commission 13 but if we are looking at updated four reports, do we have 14 to update all four reports within the next year or do 15 we want to put them -- space them out in such a fashion
16 that OCRE can handle more than doing three briefings 17 next year?

18 I think three briefings is actually too few 19 a number and I don't know what the rest of the 20 commissioners feel.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Well, as I have 22 indicated before -- this is the Chairman -- the one that 23 I have asked to be addressed again is the Effect of 24 Immigration Upon African American Workers. I would

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 like that revised before I leave the Commission.

2 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: We also have the 3 ones Congress asked for in the Quite Crisis.

4 So, my question is, if we have to make 5 choices, should we make that choice or are we willing 6 to accept three briefings? I mean I don't know if that 7 is what you want to do in the last year as chair, three 8 briefings.

9 DIRECTOR MORALES: I think the question
10 here is not that it is only three briefings. The way 11 I understood what Ms. French-Bell was saying is that we 12 can approve three now. That gives us the flexibility 13 in the future to do additional briefings, should other 14 issues come up.

15 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Right.

16 DIRECTOR MORALES: So, she is not saying
17 three only for the whole year. She is saying right now 18 at this point in time, this is what it is going to take 19 to be able to accomplish everything that is here, as well 20 as some additional new projects. That is not saying 21 that for the rest of fiscal '16 we are only going to do 22 three new projects. Is that right?

23 MS. FRENCH-BELL: That is correct.

24 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Well, I heard that

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 but I also understand that we are not going to be doing 2 any -- that the proposal is also that we are not going 3 to be doing anything until January.

4 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Well no, we wouldn't 5 have the statutory report in the October/November time 6 frame to meet our deadlines.

7 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: But the rest would 8 not take place until next year -- next calendar year.

9 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Correct. Yes, early 10 next calendar year.

11 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, Commissioner
12 Heriot and then Commissioner Yaki.

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Thank you, Mr.
14 Chairman. I have some real misgivings about the 15 contracting thing. So, I just want to make sure we 16 don't get in too deep right from the beginning.

17 And it sounds, to some extent, you are 18 working with that. You are not talking about hiring 19 four contractors. See my problem is like the number of 20 people in the world who are really capable of writing 21 a 100-page report that is literate and is exactly what 22 it should be is not as high as people sometimes thing.
23 And unlike something like nuclear engineering, there 24 are a lot of people who think they are capable of that.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Heriot,
2 hold on. We're getting you a new mic right now.

3 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: There are a lot more
4 people who think they are capable of writing a 100-page 5 literate report on a topic like this than there are 6 people who really can. So, I am worried about the 7 possibility about getting a contractor who doesn't work 8 out. So, I really urge that we not jump into our second 9 contractor until we have made the first one work and know 10 that it really is working and that we are going to be 11 able to go with what is being written and it is not just 12 going to be a disaster that has to be reworked by other 13 people here at the Commission. So, that is my big, big 14 worry.

15 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Thank you for sharing 16 that. I would also like to point out that one, we are 17 phasing them in so that will help somewhat. And then 18 two, there are also mechanisms in place if a contractor 19 is not working out to remove them. So, we could also 20 utilize that as well to help alleviate --

21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Two of the things 22 that worry me, though. You said that number one, we 23 were going to be looking for federal experience and, 24 number two, we wanted somebody that we could supervise

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 here. And that like limits the pool.

2 There may be somebody out in Portland who 3 would be terrific for this and might be able to like fly
4 in, get some instruction from you and the Staff Director 5 and such but then work from home in Oregon or work from 6 home in Nebraska or whatever.

7 So, I would urge you to keep an open mind 8 on these things, given that like you really want 9 somebody that you have got confidence in the first time.
10 Experimenting here can be disastrous.

11 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Thank you.

12 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And I am very, very 13 worried. Good luck on this.

14 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Thank you. Point well 15 taken.

16 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: On the number of 17 briefings, I would go with fewer and fewer. So, I think 18 three, that is a lot.

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Before I pass it to 20 Commissioner Yaki, a quick question. Do you have an 21 idea where you are going to be seeking these contractors 22 from already?

23 MS. FRENCH-BELL: We gave a couple of BPAs 24 and we have got --

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: What does that mean?

2 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Blanket purchasing 3 agreements. And we would be working with the ASCD to 4 determine which of those agencies might already be able 5 to pull people of that caliber for us to interview. So, 6 we would start there because that would shorten the 7 process for bringing them onboard.

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Yaki.

9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes, I actually want 10 to agree with Commissioner Heriot on the idea of 11 limiting the talent pool. There are even going to be 12 people in the D.C. Metropolitan area who have, by virtue 13 of the fact that they don't want to sit and deal with 14 the commute in and out of the city every day, who I know 15 are extremely talented writer and have the kind of 16 ability and a lot of them are people who used to work 17 on the hearing generating committee reports. I don't 18 have anyone in mind but I just know there is a whole cadre 19 of people out there that have that skill set. And I 20 think requiring them to come into the use and do see 21 time, that will limit our pool and not just because we 22 are excluding someone in California or Maine.

23 The second point is I want to make sure that 24 we really do have the flexibility to deal with this and

NEAL R. GROSS

1 to deal with issues as they come along, in case of bad
2 performance or poor performance. And the one thing
3 that really struck me was an answer that Assistant Staff
4 Director gave, Commissioner Kladney's question about a 5 1099 or a W-2. Because she said W-2, which to me reads
6 the word employee. And once you read the word employee, 7 then we are reading all sorts of other restrictions on 8 our behavior. I think these are purely independent 9 contractors. We should keep them as such. They should 10 be 1099s. They should be at-will. They should be -- 11 and quite frankly, you are also going to limit the talent
12 pool again if you make it a W-2 versus a 1099 position 13 because there are some people who are former federal 14 employees who have no desire to come back in under a W-2 15 context because of how it might impact salaries, 16 benefits, and others.

17 And third, W-2 can be implied, salary, 18 benefits, and other things. And if we are trying to 19 make this a lean and mean operation, we have got to make 20 this an independent contractor 1099 format.

21 Those are the comments I wanted to say.

22 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Yaki, this 23 is the chair. We just received confirmation from our 24 head of HR that it would be a 1099. It would be an

1 independent contractor.

2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, then I just said
3 a lot of stuff for nothing but thank you.

4 (Laughter.)

5 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: You know, it's not the 6 first time but it is okay.

7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I appreciate that.
8 Thank you. I will endeavor to keep up to those high 9 standards.

10 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Anyone else want 11 to comment?

12 I actually have one question on the memo.
13 I think that maybe it was a misunderstanding or error.
14 We did not approve a voter fraud, voter intimidation
15 update. The fourth one is actually updating the Native 16 American Report that was requested by Commissioner 17 Narasaki.

18 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: That is the Quite 19 Crisis one.

20 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, well, then there 21 was no voter fraud or voter intimidation, was there?
22 Oh, was it? Oh, Commissioner Yaki. Okay. Because I 23 don't remember it was something from --

24 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: It wasn't. It was

1 Commissioner Kirsanow.

2 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, so the memo should 3 just reflect that because it caused me confusion.

4 Okay, do we -- Commissioner Narasaki.

5 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: I just wanted to 6 weigh in on something that Commissioner Kladney noted 7 and that Commissioner Heriot noted, and that is the 8 number of reports that can be reasonably done.

9 I really want to commend OCRE for being very 10 thoughtful about how to make this work because for those 11 of you who are here who aren't familiar, the context is 12 there was a backlog that was built up before the current 13 OCRE came into place because, in fact, we had gaps in 14 staffing. So, the reason that we are talking about 15 contracts now is because we want to catch up, be 16 responsible and catch up on those reports, as well as 17 address some of the requests that were made by Congress, 18 in terms of our jurisdiction.

19 And hopefully, the budget will work out and 20 it will be easier. I think commissioners might need to 21 make some difficult decisions because I'm still fairly 22 new. It is my, I think, one year anniversary on the 23 Commission.

24 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Already?

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: I guess. I am
2 still trying to figure out how it all works. But I do 3 know that there is a lot of issues that commissioners 4 want to take on. We have four who might be retiring in 5 a year. And so if you are talking about three reports, 6 one of which is the statutory report, I just think that 7 is not going to happen, from a practical standpoint.
8 And also, the Vice Chair and I have not had yet an 9 opportunity to have a hearing that we have shaped. And 10 we really want to be able to start fully participating, 11 now that we have our feet on the ground.

12 So, I am thinking that perhaps four might 13 be a good target. So, I just want to weigh in on that.
14 I know it is a stretch for a step but I also think that 15 the four reports that were added, in terms of they are 16 not full hearings but they are meant to update already 17 existing reports, they are different in terms of how 18 much work I think is actually going to be required.

19 The Quite Crisis one, which was requested 20 by Congress, which I support is going to be more 21 difficult because it crosses a lot of agencies. The 22 Anti-Semitism Report, however, I think is more about 23 basic research. It is a fairly finite target and it is 24 information that I think a lot of NGOs and colleges might

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 already be collecting. So, it is more just trying to 2 gather up information that is already out there and 3 putting it in a coherent package.

4 Likewise, with the report that the Chair is 5 interested in, it is about gathering up the research 6 that has been done since that report from economists and 7 others and putting that in context.

8 So, I just want to not that not all the 9 reports require the same amount of heavy lifting, 10 although, there is one, which is the Native American 11 one, which will require heavy lifting. And hopefully, 12 one of the things that we can look at is whether the 13 contractor at least already has some knowledge in that 14 are that would make it easier for that person to really 15 move quickly.

16 So, my vote is for four.

17 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, I don't know that 18 we need a vote on this, unless folks want to take it.
19 I think the consensus here is obviously there are some 20 concerns and cautions but to move along the lines, as 21 was outlined by our Office of Civil Rights evaluation.
22 Are folks comfortable with that? Hearing no objection, 23 I would say you are. Madam Vice Chair?

24 VICE CHAIR TIMMONS-GOODSON: I was just

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 going to say, Mr. Chair, that I believe that you have 2 accurately picked up on the sentiment here. I believe 3 that we are all impressed with what the OCRE folks have 4 done for us. We do understand that this is unchartered
5 territory. And we are also mindful that you, yourself, 6 have not been here that long. So, you all are doing a 7 masterful job.

8 The only questions come in, I believe,
9 dealing with the details and ironing it out. And I,
10 too, agree, with much of what Commissioner Heriot had 11 to say.

12 So, if we will keep all of that in mind as 13 we go forward and proceed cautiously, because we may 14 need to return to this model again for whatever reason.
15 But I do believe, Mr. Chair, that you have picked up on 16 the sentiment.

17 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you.

18 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Thank you.

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thanks again, great 20 presentation. We appreciate the work.

21 MS. FRENCH-BELL: Thank you.

22 DISCUSSION ON THE TOPIC FOR STATUTORY ENFORCEMENT

23 REPORT FOR FY 2016

24 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Next, we are going to

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 move on to a discussion and a vote on a topic for the 2 2016 Fiscal Year Statutory Enforcement Report.

3 Just to clarify, I know there was confusion 4 as to whether we were going to be voting today on other 5 briefing topics. We can discuss the other briefing 6 topics, particularly in light of what we have heard 7 today but we will only be voting and making a decision 8 today on the fiscal '16 Statutory Enforcement Report 9 because that is the one that has a very tight deadline 10 that we have to comply with in terms of our congressional 11 mandate.

12 So, having said that, you all should have 13 received a number of topics for consideration. There 14 are two that were officially indicated for 15 consideration of Statutory Enforcement Reports. That 16 is, one that I submitted on laws that may -- I'm sorry 17 -- one that I submitted on. It is a report card for 18 federal agencies. Another is a consonant paper on the 19 Voting Rights Act from Commissioner Achtenberg. And I 20 understand that Commissioner Yaki has also put up the 21 Environmental Justice paper that he has put forward as 22 a potential consideration for statutory report, if not 23 a briefing topic later.

24 So, we will consider those three, then,

NEAL R. GROSS

1 today for enforcement report. Is there -- Commissioner
2 Heriot, did you --

3 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm just wondering 4 how those particular topics got designated as potential 5 statutory report ones and other ones did not.

6 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Oh, people said I would 7 like it to be considered for. The commissioners --

8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I would propose that 9 Commissioner Kirsanow's topic on discrimination
10 against Asians be considered as an enforcement report 11 --

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay.

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: -- especially given 14 that the Department of Education has declined to look 15 at that issue.

16 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: All right. Then,
17 during our discussion I am going to have each 18 commissioner sort of give a brief overview over the 19 paper that they are proposing. Once we have done the 20 overviews, then we will have a discussion and then we 21 will have a vote. Okay?

22 So, I will do mine last. Since I am the 23 chair, I don't want to go first but why don't we start 24 with Commissioner Achtenberg?

1 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Thank you, Mr.
2 Chairman. Given that the Section 2 of the Voting Rights 3 Act and the enforcement of same by the Department of 4 Justice is clearly within our jurisdiction to consider 5 as a statutory enforcement report, and given the number 6 of laws either having been recently adopted or currently 7 under consideration by various state legislatures that 8 would impact or have the potential to impact access to 9 the vote, I think it would be timely and significant for 10 the Commission to examine those laws and proposed laws 11 and to take a look at what the Department of Justice has 12 been doing, is doing, and may be considering to do with 13 regard to those laws.

14 I think it would be timely and important, 15 given the potential that these laws have to affect the 16 vote. I happen to think that many of them have the 17 potential if not the actuality of suppressing the vote 18 but I understand that there are many opinions on that.
19 And so I think it would be worthy of this Commission's 20 consideration to examine that and perhaps make some 21 judgments and/or if not judgments, certain 22 recommendations at the very least, that might inform the 23 way legislatures proceed going forward and might inform 24 the way the Justice Department continues to conduct

NEAL R. GROSS

1 itself in that regard.

2 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Are there any questions
3 for Commissioner Achtenberg on her concept paper?

4 Okay, hearing none, we will go on to the 5 next one. Then, we will circle back and have a more
6 unified discussion about all of them. Commissioner
7 Yaki.

8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Thank you very much, 9 colleagues. This is an issue that has been near and 10 dear to my heart for any number of years when I worked 11 for a member of Congress and when I worked as an elected 12 official. It is a concept that gained some traction in 13 the mid to late '90s and actually resulted in a report
14 12 years by the Commission called Not in My Backyard 15 regarding the tools for achieving environmental 16 justice.

17 I actually want to go beyond that to talk 18 about whether or not the federal government is 19 adequately enforcing the issue of environmental justice 20 as regards to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

21 There are a couple of pretty interesting 22 and, some would say, sad and tragic issues involving the 23 siting location of coal ash deposits. Coal ash is one 24 of the most toxic substances that is manmade. It is

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 residue from coal-fired plants. It requires 2 exceedingly intricate storage and there have been 3 several huge accidents involving breaches of dams 4 holding the coal ash into waterways, et cetera.

5 But the result of that has been to say well, 6 we need to move the coal ash to other places. And 7 invariably, unfortunately, it is resulting to political 8 maneuvering through any number of different factors 9 and, I think, a lack of action and activity and attention 10 by USCPA, which is supposed to deal with some of these 11 complaints under Title VI.

12 You would have a number of these extremely 13 toxic landfills being sited in areas that had been 14 concealing these zones next to poor and primarily 15 minority communities in Alabama and elsewhere. There 16 is an investigation going on right now in North 17 Carolina.

18 It is something where we always wanted it 19 in someone else's backyard but when that backyard is on 20 poor communities of color, we have a lot of explaining 21 to do and federal government has a lot of responsibility 22 and justifications that they need to be involved in in 23 enforcing to that. Not in My Backyard is not simply 24 code word for we are going to find a poor minority

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 community to dump the extremely toxic substances that 2 have detrimental properties and other impacts for these 3 communities.

4 So, I would appreciate your support in 5 this. I think it is a good follow-up, actually, to the 6 report, which talked a lot about the promise of these 7 kinds of things that were supposedly in place to deal 8 with environmental justice 12 years ago but, as we have 9 seen, since then, especially for Perry County, Alabama 10 and of course in North Carolina, where populations are 11 almost 90 percent African American are finding out that 12 their water and other systems are being located next to 13 these extremely toxic burial grounds.

14 I think this is something worth exploring, 15 worth bringing up again to the Commission. But looking 16 at it from an almost point of view of how we have failed 17 these communities and what needs to be done in order to 18 make sure they are fully protected under the Civil 19 Rights Act.

20 Thank you very much for your consideration.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Yaki, I
22 have a question. So, you are not intending to limit 23 this only to coal ash storage, right?

24 COMMISSIONER YAKI: No, I was just saying

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 -- yes. I mean this grew up around issues of power
2 plants in urban areas. And there are issues of location 3 of freeway corridors through poor neighborhoods, poor, 4 primarily minority neighborhoods. There are any 5 number of different instances where the principles are 6 environmental justice and where the impact on minority 7 communities is, there is a correlation between urban and 8 waste siting -- urban planning and waste siting. There 9 are many different nexuses in which this can occur and 10 I would suggest that as this develops, to look at an 11 urban, and a rural, and an industrial examples to 12 illustrate the point and if you have got case studies 13 for what EPA is or is not really doing with regard to 14 enforcement.

15 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Any other
16 questions for Commissioner Yaki on his paper?

17 Okay, well seeing none, then Commissioner 18 Kirsanow.

19 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Thank you, Mr.
20 Chair.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: You're welcome.

22 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: This consonant
23 paper has been around for a while in various iterations.
24 But we are at a critical mass when it comes to the number

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 of scholarly studies that have been conducted, actually 2 stretching back 20 years, but there has been a 3 proliferation of these studies that show that 4 discrimination against Asian Americans in college 5 admissions continues at pace and, in fact, is quite 6 profound. When you look at what happened after Prop 7 209, the increase in the number of Asian Americans in 8 California System Schools, the number of Asian 9 Americans who have been discriminated against in higher 10 level college admissions throughout the country that 11 has been documented in a variety of more recent articles 12 but culminating in a complaint filed by Coalition of 13 Asian American Students related to Harvard University 14 filed with the Department of Education's OCRE, which 15 complaint, and this goes right to why this would be a 16 splendid, in my estimation, enforcement topic, OCRE
17 chose not to pursue, chose to dismiss. At the same 18 time, there are other discrete complaints out there by 19 Asian American students.

20 And the evidence that is out there right now 21 is accumulating, it is quite significant and it shows 22 that Asian Americans are suffering as a result of 23 certain policies implemented by a variety of 24 universities. And I think that what we would be charged

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 with doing is taking examination. Since OCRE has 2 decided not to pursue it, why are they not pursuing it?
3 Why is the federal government not pursuing what appears 4 to be a very well-substantiated complaint on the part 5 of Asian American students that in fact they are being 6 treated dissimilarly from similarly situated students?

7 And it could go beyond that but I think it 8 should be limited to something that we can handle. That 9 is, what is the federal government doing to address 10 discrimination against Asian American students in 11 college admissions.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you, Commissioner
13 Kirsanow. Any questions for him on his paper?

14 Hearing none, then let me briefly present 15 my topic. I propose that we look at various federal 16 agencies and provide a report card on their enforcement 17 of civil rights during the term of President Barack 18 Obama. I think that given that many of us are terming 19 off and that many of us have been on the Commission 20 during the length of President Obama's term, that it 21 would be a nice way to overview the activities in the 22 civil rights arena during our term and during the term 23 of the President.

24 I think it also gives us an opportunity to

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 look at various multi-faceted issues, not just one area.
2 Although I understand from some comments that I received 3 in advance of the meeting from some of my colleagues that 4 there is a concern that this might be an overly broad 5 topic, given the resources that we have, et cetera. And 6 I think that we can certainly limit the number of 7 agencies that we look at and perhaps even, within those 8 agencies, focus on some specific topics that we could 9 agree on so that is not as encyclopedic a project as it 10 may appear. But I think it does give us a unique 11 opportunity to focus on different areas, different 12 agencies and to do it in an omnibus fashion. And it 13 also, I believe, would be a nice way to close some of 14 our terms on the commission.

15 So, I know you have read more detail than 16 that but that is essentially what I am proposing that 17 we try to do with this. And I am happy to answer any 18 specific questions.

19 Okay, hearing none, let's -- so, we have got 20 four papers that have been presented to us for 21 consideration for the enforcement topic for fiscal '16.
22 The Office of the Staff Director has informed me that 23 his request to General Counsel's Office has reviewed the 24 jurisdiction of each of these papers and it has been

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 confirmed that they are all within the jurisdiction of 2 the mandate of our jurisdiction. So, there is no issue 3 there.

4 I don't know how folks would like to 5 proceed. Commissioner Achtenberg?

6 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Just discussion 7 in general before we --

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes and then, at some 9 point, we will have a motion or we could do a motion and 10 then discussion. But I figure it might be unfair just 11 to put one of these up as a motion.

12 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Sure.

13 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: So maybe we could have a 14 discussion and see where the consensus goes. And then 15 based on that consensus, someone could make a motion.

16 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: I think these 17 are all excellent topics, worthy of the Commission's 18 consideration. I am in the unusual posture of liking 19 somebody else's better than mine. So, I want to 20 indicate that I am going to be voting in favor of 21 Commissioner Yaki's paper to examine the environmental 22 impacts, and the possible racial implications of same, 23 and the enforcement or lack of enforcement being 24 undertaken by the appropriate agencies.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 I think that is timely, significant, and I 2 think our examination of that topic would be extremely 3 important and add something to the discourse that hasn't 4 been there before. So, I am very much in favor of making 5 that the statutory enforcement topic.

6 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Kladney.

7 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I concur with 8 Commissioner Achtenberg.

9 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Oh, is that all? Okay.

10 (Laughter.)

11 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Madam Vice Chair.

12 VICE CHAIR TIMMONS-GOODSON: Mr. Chair, I 13 agree with Commissioner Achtenberg about the quality of 14 all of the topics that have been proposed. Truthfully, 15 I am conflicted.

16 I believe that the environmental issue is 17 certainly important. The voting rights issue is 18 certainly important. But I believe that if we were to 19 focus some additional attention on the environmental 20 issue, we would have an opportunity to make a real 21 contribution. I believe that much has been and will be 22 said about the Voting Rights Act. Everybody is talking 23 about it and many are looking at it. But I think that 24 this environmental issue is a way for us to stand out

1 and to do some heavy lifting. And so I will be 2 supporting Commissioner Yaki's proposal.

3 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any other commissioner
4 want to comment? Commissioner Heriot.

5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I just want to be 6 grumpy. That is, I am not making a comment on 7 particular comments here. I am going to be out-voted 8 no matter what. Just, in the future, please will 9 somebody propose an enforcement report that actually 10 specifically says exactly what we are going, you know, 11 the very narrow topic that we can make a real 12 contribution, not just sort of spouting off about a 13 general issue but like measuring something, having OCRE 14 look into some very particular statistic and generate 15 something that otherwise isn't out there.

16 And I don't see that any of these topics 17 really do a good job of that. And it is because it is 18 hard to come up with and I don't blame the commissioners 19 having a hard time coming up with that perfect 20 enforcement report kind of topic. But like one day can 21 we please do something that we are coming up with 22 research that is new and that people are going to look 23 at and say this really sheds light on the topic that 24 nobody else has been able to shed that kind of light on.

1 And it is not writing a concept paper that 2 just talks about a general topic. It has got to be 3 forming exactly what the research -- and I can see our 4 OCRE had a smile. You know she wants this, too, one day.

5 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Kirsanow.

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: In that vein, I
7 want to make one last pitch. You know I am going to get 8 out-voted for my topic, which is very narrow and I think 9 is very timely, and it is constrained to looking at what 10 one individual agency is doing in terms of its 11 enforcement of civil rights law related to higher 12 education and at least numerous allegations of 13 discrimination against Asian Americans.

14 I actually like Commissioner Yaki's topic.
15 As far as an Enforcement Report is concerned, I think 16 the Chair's proposal is a good one, although I think it 17 is, perhaps, too expansive for OCRE to get its hands 18 around.

19 But with respect to my topic, it is timely 20 from the standpoint of only within the last couple of 21 weeks OCRE has made a determination with respect to the 22 Coalition of Asian American Students' complaint.

23 We have got Fisher versus Texas has been 24 taken up by the Supreme Court and it is going to probably

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 be issued sometime prior to when the statutory report 2 would come out but it would be very timely.

3 And we have had a couple of efforts in 4 recent years to repeal Prop 209. One of those efforts 5 was beaten back by a lot of folks in California. And 6 I just think I would make another pitch for it and if 7 it is not a statutory enforcement report, at least a 8 briefing topic.

9 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Narasaki.

10 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: I also like the 11 Chair's approach. And if we did not have the backlog 12 that we already have with reports, it would be something 13 that I would have supported. But I just feel, given the 14 presentation we had, the amount of work, even if it was 15 three agencies instead of a dozen agencies, it would 16 still be like doing three different kinds of reports.
17 So, I just feel we don't, unfortunately, have the 18 capacity to take that on.

19 And on Commissioner Kirsanow's, I remember 20 that he actually presented this topic when I first 21 started on the Commission. And I think I told him then 22 that it was something I was interested in exploring but 23 I would want to significantly reshape the direction it 24 is taking, particularly now since the Supreme Court has

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 taken up again the issue of affirmative action. And I 2 think the paper is framed more as a critique of 3 affirmative action, which is something I support 4 because I do believe that it is in the best interest of 5 college students to learn in very diverse environments.
6 And that is, in fact, a very important component of 7 education.

8 But I am concerned that perhaps with 9 schools who use whole file reviews that there might be 10 implicit bias creeping in, in terms of stereotypes about 11 Asian American students. His paper does not point out 12 the disparity that Asians face in terms of test scores 13 and grades with white students, which I find interesting 14 and should require some exploration as to why that is 15 happening. Not that I think that test scores and grades 16 are the sum total of an individual student because they 17 bring other life experiences to the table but I do think 18 the fact that there is that persistent significant gap 19 between Asians and Caucasian student, that that is 20 something that I would actually be interested in 21 potentially exploring and I look forward to talking to 22 you because we still will be talking about briefing 23 reports.

24 So, I find myself very interested in

1 Commissioner Yaki's submission, precisely because I 2 don't think that there has been very much light shed on 3 environmental justice and I think that is where, in 4 fact, the Commission could really highlight and make a 5 contribution. And so, I am very supportive of that.

6 I am torn because I think Commissioner
7 Achtenberg's suggestion about looking at the Department
8 of Justice Civil Rights Division enforcement of voting 9 rights would be very timely but I think that there is 10 a lot of debate already going on and a lot of examination 11 happening about voting rights. And so I think we could 12 make a better, more significant contribution in the area 13 of environmental justice.

14 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any other comments from 15 commissioners?

16 Well, obviously, I was proposing my paper 17 but I think, going into this meeting, I anticipated that 18 it might not have the consensus, given the issues of 19 bandwidth that we were discussing earlier today. And 20 so for me, it really was looking at the voting rights 21 and the environmental justice paper, both of which are 22 important topics.

23 I share Commissioner Narasaki's concerns
24 about Commissioner Kirsanow's paper, which I wasn't

NEAL R. GROSS

1 thinking about before the meeting because I didn't 2 realize it was going to be an enforcement topic until 3 here.

4 But in the end, I think that I will end up 5 voting with my personal gut on this because I come from 6 a community in Chicago on its southeast side that is 7 predominately Latino with a large African American 8 population as well that has, for many years, suffered 9 from environmental injustice. It is a huge cancer 10 cluster, pet coke issues, the old steel mills. Many of 11 my family members who worked in those mills died of 12 cancer. And so we are right next to a big garbage dump.

13 And so it is my hope that should that paper
14 be the one that we choose, and I will entertain a motion 15 and if it is the paper that is moved, I will vote for 16 it, that we would make sure that we look at that 17 community on the southeast side of Chicago, along with 18 some of the communities that were mentioned in the 19 concept paper and, in particular, the Latino and African 20 American communities in that part of Chicago.

21 Commissioner Narasaki?

22 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Yes, I would like
23 to make a motion, if that would be in order.

24 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Go ahead.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: So, I would like to 2 move the adoption of Commissioner Yaki's proposal on 3 environmental justice as our statutory report. And I 4 would like to add to that motion that we, upon adoption, 5 also sent out a press release noting that that is 6 something that we have adopted, so that the people, the 7 stakeholder community can know and start being prepared 8 and start sending things in to our office so that we can 9 get a running start at that.

10 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I'll second that 11 motion.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Is there any 13 additional discussion now?

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner
15 Yaki.

16 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Go ahead.

17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair, first, I 18 want to thank my colleagues for their kind remarks about 19 this topic. As I said, this is something that has 20 deeply concerned me for years and the magnitude of the 21 issue, as you describe it in your own community, Mr.
22 Chair, I think is important. And I would say that it 23 would be my intent, and I think the Commission's intent, 24 that we ensure that we look at -- we will get suggestions

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 for case studies to look at and I would definitely say 2 that that should be one of them.

3 I do think that we should look at it in terms 4 of urban, and rural, and other factors as well, because 5 this is not just confined to remote areas or where there 6 are minority communities. As you said, there are 7 concentrated clusters of people in neighborhoods in 8 Chicago and other places in this great nation where city 9 planners, for better or for worse, and many for worse, 10 just to make these neighborhoods the dumping grounds for 11 everybody else. And I think we can make a real 12 contribution to awareness and enforcement or lack 13 thereof on something that goes to how people live and 14 breathe and die in this country.

15 And as someone who grew up and still has 16 asthma, I can tell you that the prevalence of asthma 17 among young African American children who live in the 18 shadows of major freeways that wind their way through 19 poor neighborhoods in this country is truly astounding 20 in a health crisis and health epidemic that no one seems 21 to fully grasp.

22 So, I think this is a very important topic.
23 I thank all my colleagues for their great comments.
24 They have all had great papers, too.

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 I agree that Chairman Castro's proposal may 2 have had a bandwidth issue but it is certainly something 3 that has been part of the history of this Commission over 4 the years. We used to have a federal funding report 5 that examined federal funding for the civil rights 6 functions of all agencies. For years, it was a good 7 benchmark that researchers, advocates, non-profits, 8 people who are interested in these issues could use to 9 see what the federal government's commitment to civil 10 rights has been and that was derailed over the past few 11 years.

12 Part of me is very sympathetic, obviously,
13 with what Commissioner Kirsanow has brought up but I 14 also share the concerns of Commissioner Narasaki that 15 she brought up as well. And I look forward to 16 continuing the dialogue with Commissioner Kirsanow on 17 these issues because, certainly, if there are quotas, 18 if there an implicit bias creeping into admissions, then 19 that is something that needs to be addressed so that no 20 student, in particular Asian American students, in a 21 generation that is far different from the college
22 environment that both Karen and I, Commissioner 23 Narasaki and I both went into, it is wholly different.

24 And Commissioner Achtenberg, you know I

9 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes.

18 REPORTS FOR FY 2016 PROJECTS

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: I also had on the agenda

20 for today discussion of the additional concept papers

21 for potential briefing reports. My intention was not

22 that those be voted on today but that we had a

24 at the August meeting.

1 I am open to suggestions on how we might 2 want to proceed. If that is something folks are 3 comfortable with and do we want to, between now and the 4 August meeting, rank them in some way or just, at this 5 point, kind of go through them and determine maybe even 6 now, determine which ones seem to possibly fit what will 7 now be two other reports.

8 So, obviously, we are going to be making 9 some tough decisions and I am hoping that this will help 10 us make those decisions when we do come to it.

11 Any thoughts?

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair?

13 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, Commissioner Yaki.

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I believe I may have

3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I am withdrawing my 4 sponsorship of that. If someone else wishes to take 5 that up, they may.

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I will.

7 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I will sponsor it.

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, so let's do this.
9 Let's go down the list and if commissioners will -- I'll 10 call the paper and then if you all could give a very brief 11 thumbnail as to the paper that you are supporting and 12 why it should be a briefing topic. I'm just going to 13 look at my stack here and call them in no particular 14 order.

15 We are only going to choose two but I think

17 going to withdraw it, you know propose or defend their 18 paper, however you might want to see it.

19 Commissioner Achtenberg, you had a 20 question? Oh, I saw your pen up.

21 Commissioner Heriot, why don't you give us

24 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Can I pass until I

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 have had a chance to look at it again?

2 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Commissioner
3 Narasaki.

4 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Thank you. My 5 proposal is to look at the public education funding in 6 equality at a time where we have an increasing 7 concentration of poverty and re-segregation.

8 The Commission has a very long history of 9 looking at the challenges that our country has had in 10 terms of providing equal access to quality education for 11 all communities, which has been particularly a 12 challenge for African Americans, Latinos and Native 13 Americans.

14 You know there has been fairly recent 15 reports looking at the disparities. In my paper, I talk 16 about the fact that in Philadelphia, for example, one 17 school the parents and teachers actually had to buy 18 paper and office supplies for the school. And yet, less 19 than ten miles away in a more affluent suburb, students 20 had access to laptops and a social worker, just ten miles 21 apart.

22 So, there is obviously disparities between 23 states, given how public funding necessarily happens 24 but I am really concerned about the disparities, even

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 within a particular state, which I think is very 2 troubling.

3 There is a lot of jurisdiction, in terms of 4 the Department of Education's responsibilities, 5 particularly under the Elementary and Secondary 6 Education Act, which, as many of you know, is currently 7 being debated today on the Hill. There is a bipartisan 8 package that civil rights advocates are concerned will, 9 in fact, make the problem even deeper because of the lack 10 of enforcement measures to get states to do something 11 about the disparity.

12 And we spent a lot of time, and I want to 13 thank my Special Assistant, Jason Lagria. We spent a 14 lot of time talking to a lot of researchers about the 15 topic to make sure that we had a good handle and because 16 we knew the Elementary and Secondary Education Act was 17 up for reauthorization this year. And they assured us 18 that, unfortunately, nothing in the Act was going to 19 really redress the problems that we are raising.

20 The second layer of the paper would 21 actually look at HUD's responsibilities for fair 22 housing. There has been some interesting research that 23 points to segregated housing as really one of the basic 24 drivers of this disparity in public education funding.

1 And the HUD has put out some recent interesting 2 regulations that they hope to start to address that.
3 So, I think it would be a timely topic to look at how 4 the housing policies also affect this issue.

5 And so I am hoping that my fellow 6 commissioners will find this a compelling topic.

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you, Commissioner
8 Narasaki. Madam Vice Chair.

9 VICE CHAIR TIMMONS-GOODSON: Thank you,
10 Mr. Chair.

11 I proposed, first, a paper that I have 12 entitled "A Search for Justice or a Quest for Revenue" 13 assessing the civil rights of African American debtors, 14 whose fees are supporting state and local budgets.

15 Given my past life of approximately 30
16 years in the judiciary of North Carolina, I have read 17 and seen extensively how the individuals that are 18 involved in our justice system, the participants most 19 often in the criminal context increasingly are being 20 called upon to bear the expense of expenses of running 21 not only a branch, the judiciary, but also local 22 governments using and needing these funds.

23 And so I thought it appropriate for us to 24 take a look at that.

NEAL R. GROSS

1 Some of you may recall that the Department
2 of Justice, as they went in and took a look at what was 3 going on in Ferguson, pointed out that there were 4 predatory practices in place. That does not reflect 5 well on our judicial system. And so I hope that we will 6 take a look at that.

7 I also have submitted a paper shifting
8 prison costs to families in the area of private prison
9 contracts. We saw first-hand, as we visited the Family 10 Detention Center in Texas, individuals that go into 11 prison must continue to maintain to live. They seek to 12 maintain contact with their family members and with the 13 outside world to the greatest extent possible and we saw 14 right in place there, machines where you paid for 15 telephone cards and you paid in order to have 16 individuals bring money in to you.

17 And I would like for us to take a look at 18 all of that and ask your support for those two topics.

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you Madam Vice 20 Chair. Commissioner Heriot, have you had a chance to 21 review your paper?

22 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, my paper is 23 about the notion of over regulation of the employment 24 relationship puts young people at a disadvantage for

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 getting their first job. And part of the reason I think 2 that we see the current phenomenon of internships for 3 young people, unpaid internships, I should add, is that 4 it is much more dangerous today for an employer to hire 5 an employee who has no track record than it would have 6 been 50 years ago when at-will employment and very 7 little regulation of the employment relationship 8 existed.

9 And so we have developed this institution
10 of A, unemployment for low-skilled young people and B, 11 unpaid internships where they have to prove themselves 12 at no pay for higher skilled, college educated young 13 people.

14 And I think we need to rethink whether the 15 structure of our employment law, including employment 16 discrimination law doesn't put young people at a 17 disadvantage and if there is not some way that we can 18 at least make minor adjustments to the law that would 19 make it easier for young people to get their foot in the 20 door.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you, Commissioner
22 Heriot.

23 I forgot to ask if there were any questions
24 on any of the prior papers, at this point. If none,

1 Commissioner Achtenberg, you have a paper on the 2 baccalaureate attainment gap. And also, if you could 3 let us know if you still want your voting rights paper 4 also considered as a briefing topic or if you are just 5 going to propose this.

6 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: I am just going 7 to propose this.

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay.

9 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: If someone else 10 wants to propose voting rights, they are more than 11 welcome.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay.

13 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: This is the 14 logical successor to the first inquiry on the 15 baccalaureate attainment gap. This proposes to 16 examine what addressing the baccalaureate attainment 17 gap, the positive and salutary impact that that would 18 have on the national economy. It would examine the 19 effects of rising tuition and the impact of the debt load 20 upon minority students. It would examine the 21 significant problem of declining state investment and 22 the direct relationship between that and rising costs 23 of college, including tuition costs. And finally, it 24 would examine proposals to eliminate the cost of college

1 attendance, as well as the proposals that would attempt 2 to address the debt, making it more easy to bear the debt 3 load that students already have incurred.

4 So, we would look at tuition-free college, 5 debt-free college, as well as the salutary impact that 6 addressing the attainment gap would have for the 7 national economy. This is a significant issue. The 8 drag on the economy of the achievement gap is 9 significant. The drag on the economy for young people 10 in general, as well as minority students, in particular, 11 of the debt load that is currently being borne by 12 students graduating from college is quite significant.

13 And I think building on our work on the 14 prior issue, I think we could make a significant 15 contribution in this area and kindle some real interest 16 in turning this around. The kind of disinvestment that 17 has been taking place in state after state is shameful, 18 in my opinion, and it wouldn't be that hard to turn this 19 around and the United States could then go from 32 20 percent of our population, achieving the baccalaureate 21 degree but someplace closer to 40 percent, which is 22 where competitive nations are going to need to be in the 23 years upcoming.

24 I mean there is no reason we can't do this

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 and minority students, in particular, are paying the 2 highest price for our failure to do this.

3 So, I would like my colleagues'
4 consideration of this sequel paper.

5 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any questions for 6 Commissioner Achtenberg? None? Okay, Commissioner
7 Kladney, you only have four papers you are proposing.

8 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: But I will speak
9 with them all at once.

10 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Oh, go ahead.

11 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: So, I have been on 12 the Commission four years and those who have been here 13 with me and have suffered through my term, know that I 14 have been big on criminal justice.

15 And I think the four papers are fairly 16 self-explanatory. I think criminal justice is finally 17 coming to the forefront of the public attention. I know 18 the CATO Institute, the congressional Republicans and 19 Democrats, the administration are all trying to address 20 our prison populations. Our prison populations and 21 jails, local jails, have become our mental health 22 centers. The use of solitary confinement compounds 23 this problem.

24 Collateral consequences, it is not that you

1 can't vote anymore when you get out of prison or carry 2 a gun but you can't go into public housing. You can't 3 get school loans. There is a plethora of items from 4 state to state that you can and cannot get.

5 As you know, I have had narcotics 6 enforcement. I have presented that every year I have 7 been on the Commission and I have gotten nowhere with 8 it. Yet, this has to do with sentencing and fairness 9 in sentencing. You could even expand it. I see that 10 a lot of jurisdictions now are taking minor offenses 11 and, rather than making them criminal offenses, are 12 making them civil in nature.

13 And as we saw during our Commissioner 14 Kirsanow's paper on criminal background checks, the 15 effect that any kind of conviction now, not just merely 16 a felony conviction, has on people's lives and their 17 families' lives, and their children.

18 Like I said, I don't think I have to go into 19 great length. I think they are fairly 20 self-explanatory. I know that collateral consequences 21 was approved last year but was pushed off as a result 22 of our New York briefing.

23 So, I would leave it to the Commission to 24 decide. I know we have been told we can only do three

1 -- have capacity for three. I think there are other 2 alternatives so that we can get four scheduled and still 3 have room for any kind of emergency. And I would like 4 to discuss that later in this meeting.

5 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you. Any 6 questions for Commissioner Kladney? None.

7 Commissioner Kirsanow, you wanted to speak
8 in favor of Commissioner Yaki's previously withdrawn 9 paper?

10 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes, I would. I
11 think it is -- well, I will let Commissioner Yaki speak 12 for himself. I mean I'm not sure why he would want to 13 withdraw it. I thought it was -- I agree with 14 Commissioner Heriot. I thought it was a splendid idea.
15 So, I would be in favor of voting for it as a briefing 16 topic.

17 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, I don't know if 18 Commissioner Yaki wants to add anything to that.

19 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well you know since 20 Commissioner Kirsanow and I have disproved the theory 21 that we are actually the same person by showing up at 22 the last meeting together, I would say that this is a 23 topic that I have raised for a number of different years 24 and every year another incident happens on a college

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 campus, which just makes me want to do this even more.
2 But I also realize that we have a very limited number 3 of topics available. But I think it does bear some 4 repeating that there are terrible and horrible 5 instances of racism that are current and are on the rise 6 on a lot of college campuses throughout the country. It 7 is not focused on any one particular geography.

8 But when you have students doing slave 9 auctions on the occasion of Dr. Martin Luther King's 10 birthday when they are doing an undocumented person hunt 11 and engaging in extremely racist stereotypical 12 behavior, and when you consider how racial polarization 13 has only increased in the past 10 to 20 years in this 14 country, what used to be a place that people would find 15 and learn to live and work with people of all 16 communities, colors, ethnicities, origins, has become 17 a place where it was sort of supposed to be a safe zone 18 for these sorts of things to happen. They, instead, 19 become microcosms of a frat choice in a large society.
20 It just destroys me to no end. And that is why I 21 constantly brought that topic up.

22 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any questions for 23 Commissioner Yaki? If none, then I think the only one 24 left is mine. Is that right? Okay. I want to make

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 sure I am not missing someone else's.

2 So, I propose that we look at the condition
3 that children working in the agricultural industry
4 face. In particular, migrant farmworker children.
5 They are the only class of minors that are, essentially 6 excepted from protective elements of the Fair Labor 7 Standards Act, which allows children as young as 12 to 8 work in agriculture and what some consider very 9 hazardous situations, if they have parental consent.

10 Essentially, these children have no
11 restriction on hours, so they would work unlimited hours 12 in these fields. There is no protections in terms of 13 whether they work during school hours, whether they can 14 work late at night or early in the morning. So 15 essentially, many of these children, and I have included 16 some photos of actual farm labor children, farm worker 17 children in the proposal, are being subjected to 18 conditions that you would read about having taken place 19 in an earlier century in this country.

20 Many of these children, there is about half 21 a million children working in agriculture, the 22 overwhelming majority of these children are Latino.

23 And unlike other similarly aged children 24 who are in the workforce, you have to be at least 16 to

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 work in non-hazardous work as a child under the Fair 2 Labor Standards Act, except in agriculture. These 3 children are being disparately treated. They are not 4 receiving the same protection of the Fair Labor 5 Standards Act, these Latino farm worker children, all 6 farm worker children, as other children in the 7 workforce.

8 So, I want us to examine what those 9 conditions are. If there is in fact a disparate impact 10 on a protected class of children here that are in the 11 migrant farm worker population, and whether these 12 children are being denied equal protection of the law 13 and the administration of justice.

14 I think if you look at the work that we are 15 doing this year on immigrant children in detention and 16 the refugee children, this is sort of a natural 17 outgrowth of that, although many of these children, 18 while they are immigrants, many of them are United 19 States citizen children are well. And the conditions 20 under which they are laboring are hazardous and 21 draconian. Any questions?

22 Okay, so we could go about this several ways 23 for the next meeting. In the past, we have ranked 24 reports, although it turns out that the ranking hardly

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 ever ends up being the way we vote but that does, at 2 least, help kind of gauge a consensus. We could have 3 folks between now and the next meeting designate their 4 top two or three and then use those as the starting point 5 for the discussion. I'm sure these will also be 6 reviewed for jurisdictional -- we actually comport with 7 our jurisdiction before we actually take final votes, 8 so we will want to have that done and shared with all 9 commissioners so that if they need to make some tweaks 10 to these papers before the vote, that can be done.

11 But is that a preference as to how we 12 proceed? Commissioner Achtenberg.

13 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Thank you, Mr.
14 Chairman. I, for one, would like the papers that are 15 in and actually under consideration listed and then I 16 would like to know whether or not -- are we voting for 17 two or are we voting for three?

18 So, we need to decide how many are being 19 considered in this round and that will help me make my 20 own choices. Right now, I mean everybody's topic 21 sounds terrific and we need to separate the wheat from 22 the chaff.

23 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Well, based on the 24 report we received earlier from OCRE indicating that

NEAL R. GROSS

1 based on their evaluation, the current bandwidth would 2 be three additional reports, including the statutory,
3 we just selected a Statutory Enforcement Report.

4 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: So, we are 5 talking about two.

6 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, I said three total, 7 including.

8 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Okay. So, we 9 have two left to select.

10 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, so we have got two 11 left now.

12 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Okay.

13 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: And then Commissioner 14 Kladney said he had a master plan for us to be able to 15 do a fourth.

16 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: As usual. My 17 thought is is that John come and make a presentation to 18 us for next year's budget and where he sees the salary 19 savings for being able to hire these additional 20 contractors.

21 I think Commissioner Narasaki was talking 22 about length of time and estimates as to how long it 23 would take to update these current reports; one being 24 the Quite Crisis she indicated she thought would be a

NEAL R. GROSS

1 more difficult process than the other three.

2 And if we are budgeting six months for four 3 people over the next year or so, that sounds like two 4 full-time people, actually, in hours, with six months, 5 a thousand hours. Four people, it is 4,000 hours.

6 So, my thought is that if we can get a more 7 realistic estimate of how long it is going to take to 8 update these four reports, if Commissioner Narasaki's 9 description is correct as to each report and time for 10 each report, I would estimate that there would be extra 11 hours from this budget of 70 -- $140,000. I think it 12 was $35,000 a head. Is that right, Mr. Director?

13 DIRECTOR MORALES: I don't know that we 14 came up with a total figure.

15 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I think when I
16 spoke with you yesterday, you had -- well, there was a 17 figure there that said $35,000. I don't know what that 18 was for.

19 DIRECTOR MORALES: Well, that is the 20 budget flexibility right now. But according to OCRE, 21 what her proposal has is $25,000 per contractor for 22 $100,000 and that is including this fiscal year and next 23 fiscal year.

24 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: So, my thought was

NEAL R. GROSS

1 if you are thinking about getting four people a person
2 4,000 hours, it seems to me you should be able to update
3 these reports and have extra time and extra bandwidth 4 with those contractors to be able to help prepare or 5 prepare additional briefings for next year for us. And 6 then maybe the year after that, continue to hire a 7 contractor to help finish up those reports as well.

8 DIRECTOR MORALES: Commissioner Kladney, 9 that is also assuming that we receive the entire 9.2 that 10 is in the budget and that there is no other additional 11 budgetary constraints placed on us. And so we can 12 create that scenario for you, if that is what you are 13 asking.

14 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Yes, because the 15 great thing about my proposal is that we could like pick 16 two reports, in addition to the statutory report, and 17 then have alternative four and alternative five and be 18 prepared for what our budget is, when we get it, and 19 knowing how many contractors we can hire and how many 20 hours we can use.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Or alternatively, not 22 have to pick an alternative and still have the 23 flexibility, should we have the additional funds, to 24 either revisit the papers that we didn't support or

NEAL R. GROSS

1 address a new topic which may have come up in the 2 interim.

3 I mean I would love to be able to do more 4 than three total. I just don't know that we need to make 5 that decision until we know we have those resources for 6 sure.

7 Commissioner Narasaki, then Commissioner
8 Achtenberg.

9 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Yes, I would like
10 to respectfully offer to refine Commissioner Kladney's 11 proposal because one of the things that I have come to 12 understand is that the Office of General Counsel has 13 often provided some supplementary help to writing 14 reports. That has been an historical practice.

15 And one of the reasons why we are 16 short-handed is because we don't have a General Counsel 17 or staff. We are also missing a junior staffer in that.
18 And my understanding is that the Staff Director is 19 getting ready to post the opening.

20 So, it would be my fervent hope that we 21 would be able to get the General Counsel onboard and also 22 fill the position of the more junior staff. And that 23 would actually supplement the staff that OCR commands.

24 So, it is my expectation that if we get the

1 right staff that, in fact, we will have sufficient 2 capacity to do at least four. And I would say I wouldn't 3 necessarily fill the whole tree in terms of having two 4 alternatives but maybe at least have one. And that 5 would give us room should some emergent thing come up 6 that we would need to take up, as we had to do this year.

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Any other --
8 Commissioner Achtenberg.

9 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: No.

10 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any other commissioner
11 have comments?

12 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Well, I was just 13 wondering are we now proceeding, whether the Director 14 will come back with a more refined kind of program for 15 next year -- alternatives. I mean that is what was 16 offered. Is that correct?

17 DIRECTOR MORALES: If that is what you 18 would like, we can prepare that for you for the next 19 Commission hearing in terms of, again, keeping in mind 20 these are targets that are evolving. So I mean being 21 able to say we have exactly this, there is flexibility 22 in there. So, I don't want to make a promise that we 23 have to break or a promise that things have changed in 24 the budget cycle.

1 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Just asking for a
2 presentation, not a promise. And perhaps include
3 Commissioner Narasaki's suggestion regarding the GC 4 Office.

5 DIRECTOR MORALES: Okay. Well, I'll 6 update that when I get to my portion.

7 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: And Mr. Chair, I
8 have actually one additional. Please, the other way or 9 one supplemental way to help open up capacity would be 10 for the commissioners to look at the list of reports that 11 we have said we want to update and choose -- at least 12 take one off. So, that is the other way to try to make 13 room for a new report.

14 Those are what I see the options as being.

15 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: So, this is what we are 16 going to do. Between now and the next meeting, I am 17 going to ask commissioners to rank between one being 18 their favorite and ten being their least favorite or 19 whatever number is the last --

20 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Mr. Chair?

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes.

22 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Could I ask, since 23 this is kind of new for me, is rather than rank -- because 24 to me, the two that I look at is going to be what the

1 mix is. So, can we go with your second alternative, 2 which was to give the two or three that we would want 3 to see and then look at what the overlap is.

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Sure, we could do that,
5 which is what I initially wanted. But given the fact
6 that folks seem to be wanting to do more, I thought it 7 would be easier just to rank them all. But if there is 8 no strong objection, then let's pick our top three.
9 Would that work, top three?

10 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Top three just so 11 that we can mix it up?

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, just to gauge where 13 we begin the discussion. This is not a vote on what we 14 are going to do but just to kind of know where things 15 are falling out so that when we start talking, or at 16 least maybe those could be the starting points of the 17 conversation.

18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Can we at least like 19 eliminate some, so that we don't come to the table -- 20 you know if something doesn't get any top two votes.

21 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, that is something
22 we could do. That is why if we say here is the top three, 23 there are some that are not there, we could begin just 24 to say, you know that one is not --

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, if something
2 doesn't get any votes, it should be off the table.

3 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: We could determine that 4 at the next meeting just to confirm that.

5 So, does that work for folks?

6 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Sure, just don't 7 forget to vote for my papers.

8 (Laughter.)

9 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: So, top is it three, top 10 three or top four? Top three, okay. I just wanted to 11 make sure.

12 So, we will vote on our top three between 13 now and the next meeting. That will be circulated in 14 advance of the meeting. What is the deadline we should 15 get folks, a week before the meeting they should give 16 us their votes?

17 DIRECTOR MORALES: Yes, the meeting, I
18 believe, is on August 14th.

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, so August 7th.

20 DIRECTOR MORALES: Yes, the 7th, thank 21 you.

22 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: And in the interim, we 23 will also have the Office of General Counsel review the 24 jurisdictional basis for each paper. And if there is

1 some tweaks that need to be done, those could be 2 interfaced -- they can interface with the particular 3 commissioner on those. Okay? I don't think we need a 4 motion on that but that is our consensus. So, that is 5 how we will proceed. Okay? All right.

6 The 14th is our meeting. Yes, so the 7th 7 we want everyone to turn in their votes by the 7th for 8 their top three.

9 DISCUSSION AND VOTE ON PART A OF PEACEFUL 10 COEXISTENCE REPORT

11 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, next we have a 12 discussion and vote on Part A of the Peaceful 13 Coexistence Report. This is, of course, limited to 14 Part A, since we have not done any summaries or findings 15 and recs yet. As Commissioner Kirsanow reminded us at 16 the last meeting, this was one that was not included in 17 the report from OCRE because it was done by -- are you 18 in the Office of the Staff Director -- by the attorney 19 in the Office of the Staff Director. So, I put it on 20 the agenda for consideration this month.

21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: So, that means we 22 don't have the 30-day countdown after this. We have to 23 wait for Part B?

24 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, we have got to come

1 up with a Part B.

2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay.

3 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: So, but we are approving 4 Part A right now.

5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay, so we are just 6 Part A and then Part B at some other point, and then 30 7 days.

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, right. Is there a 9 motion so we could have some discussion? Commissioner 10 Achtenberg.

11 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Mr. Chairman, I
12 want to put forward a motion that we ask that the paper 13 be sent back one more time to be returned to us by a date 14 certain and we could arrive on that date certain by 15 consulting OCRE about how long it would take. But I 16 would like to see is that three Supreme Court cases that 17 were decided subsequent to the report being issued be 18 considered in a reformulation of Part A. And those 19 cases would be EEOC versus Abercrombie & Fitch, which 20 was decided on June first of this year; Reed versus Town 21 of Gilbert, which was decided on June 18th of this year;
22 and Obergefell versus Hodges, which was decided on June 23 26th of this year. All three of those cases have 24 relevant implications for the Peaceful Coexistence

1 topic and I would like to see additional consideration 2 be given to those evolving -- the evolving state of the 3 law with regard to that issue. And those are all things 4 that happened -- not things -- law that was developed 5 subsequent to the report being proffered.

6 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner
7 Achtenberg, on your motion, do you mean Office of the 8 Staff Director, not OCRE? Because Office of the Staff
9 Director actually did the report.

10 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Yes. I mean 11 either give you 60 days, or 30 days, or 90 days, whatever 12 you thought it would take to effectively consider the 13 three cases and then have the report returned to us for 14 our consideration.

15 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay. Yes, I just 16 wanted to clarify Office of Staff Director as opposed 17 to OCRE.

18 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Sure.

19 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Is there a second on that 20 motion? Is there a second to that motion?

21 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Is there a 22 second?

23 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: I thought that was your 24 motion.

1 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Yes.

2 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Second.

3 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, there is a second.
4 Any discussion?

5 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Who seconded it?

6 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Kladney
7 seconded it. Discussion? Commissioner Kirsanow.

8 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think including 9 those cases might be useful. I just would point out 10 that we have been -- we initially had the briefing on 11 this more than two years ago. And I think that since 12 the briefing didn't consider those pending cases, there 13 should be a full-throated exposition of those cases and 14 with statement. I would hope we could get it done 15 within -- I don't want to put any pressure on anybody 16 but within 30 days so that we can get this report out.

17 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any other comments?

18 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I mean I would 19 think -- Commissioner Narasaki asked what I mean by 20 full-throated exposition. I don't think it should be 21 law review kind of analysis. Given that the report that 22 we have right now and it has been pending for this long, 23 I don't think that it is something that should be taking 24 up the bulk of the report but maybe would be a page, maybe

NEAL R. GROSS

1 a footnote. And I would urge that it not take that much 2 time to conclude the report and get it out for us for 3 consideration.

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any other comments,
5 questions, discussion?

6 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Mr. Chairman?

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, Commissioner
8 Heriot.

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I would oppose this 10 on the ground of when are we ever going to get a report 11 out? You know I realize we haven't quite gotten this 12 one out. It is just Section A, if we can approve this 13 today, but we are looking pretty pathetic. We had a 14 Voting Rights Report ready that we then sent back.

15 You know this means that the only thing that 16 we are going to get out this year, if we even get it out, 17 is the Statutory Report and that looks deeply, deeply 18 pathetic to me.

19 There are always going to be new cases on 20 religion coming out and no one of them is significant 21 enough to hold up the report. In this case, I don't 22 think the three are significant enough. Those are all 23 important cases but not important to the central issues 24 that are being discussed in the report.

1 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner

4 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Yes, I do
5 strongly express my disagreement with the point 6 Commissioner Heriot just made but I would like to ask 7 our staff who would be doing this how long she thinks 8 it would take.

9 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Lenora Ostrowsky is 10 taking the microphone.

11 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: Thank you.

12 MS. OSTROWSKY: I don't think it would take 13 very long. Here is a suggestion -- it is just a 14 suggestion, which is if you approve that part today with 15 the understanding that the revision, which will not be 16 very involved but will be certainly an acknowledgment 17 and explanation of those three cases, that those would 18 be circulated among commissioners with possibly a 19 notational vote that would include it in the revised 20 report. So, that would accomplish both passing, if you 21 are going to approve the report today, and then 22 considering the additional pieces by notational vote.

23 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: I don't think 24 that -- that would short circuit the process in some way

1 that I am not comfortable with. I would rather see the

1 York State Advisory Committee's Report on Juvenile 2 Solitary Confinement.

3 Commissioner Narasaki, you have the floor.

4 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Yes, Mr. Chair,
5 thank you.

6 I don't think this requires a vote. This 7 is just my reporting on an assignment that we 8 volunteered to take up, after the briefing that was 9 given by the New York State Advisory Committee.

10 As you will recall, they made a specific 11 request that the Commission help them with 12 dissemination, particularly suggesting a letter to the 13 Attorney General.

14 And so my Special Assistant, Jason Lagria, 15 had sent around a memo that we are providing to the Staff 16 Director for execution. So, it updates some of the 17 advancements that have been made that begin to address 18 some of the issues that were raised in that report. And 19 then we suggest who might get the letters and we have 20 actually also provided two draft form letters, one for 21 general dissemination and one that could be tailored to 22 a select group of specific state and federal actors who 23 are looking at this issue.

24 So, all that I request is that if

1 commissioners have ideas about the list, it is a long 2 list, so we welcome prioritization of the list or 3 comments in terms of tweaking the letter to give that 4 to us and to the staff director and, otherwise, we hope 5 to be able to complete this task in support of the work 6 that has been done by the New York State Advisory 7 Committee.

8 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, any discussion?
9 Any questions?

10 Okay, I mean the only thing I would ask is 11 that the letters come under the Chair's signature. I 12 think that is how we have done some of these in the past 13 on behalf of the Commission.

14 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Don't we want to 15 attach everybody's signature?

16 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes, I mean if we all 17 sign it, that is fine, too.

18 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: I mean that shows
19 the solidarity of the Commission behind the report.

20 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Yes.

21 COMMISSIONER ACHTENBERG: If there is 22 solidarity behind it.

23 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Yes, what we were 24 trying to avoid, because some of the letters would

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 require tailoring because want to acknowledge -- for 2 example, the fact that the New York Mayor, the City
3 Mayor, has made some advancements but, obviously, more 4 work to do. So, we want to tailor the letter to 5 acknowledge what he has done but note that there is still 6 work to do.

7 So, we didn't want to burden all the 8 commissioners with having to decide whether they 9 supported each particular letter, which is actually why 10 we had it under the Staff Director's signature, 11 although, of course, it would be perfectly appropriate 12 to go under the Commission Chair's signature.

13 So, I am agnostic. It was just a question 14 of how can we have a smooth process.

15 COMMISSIONER KLADNEY: Well, if you are 16 going to write that many letters, then that's fine with 17 me.

18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I guess I have a very 19 strong view on this because I am frequently going to be 20 on dissent on letters. I think our default rule should 21 be that letters go out under the Chair's signature. And 22 that there are going to be some where we want everybody's 23 signature but we don't want to have like five 24 commissioners' signatures, unless that is what those

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 five really want to do. So, I think you know unless we 2 have decided otherwise, it should be under the Chair's 3 signature.

4 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Thank you. Any other 5 questions, comments?

6 Okay, I don't know that we need to vote on 7 this but I think there is a consensus that we will 8 proceed as you have outlined, Commissioner Narasaki.
9 Okay? Great, thank you.

10 III. MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS

11 STAFF DIRECTOR REPORT

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Next we have on the 13 agenda Management and Operations, finally. So, Mr.
14 Staff Director, the floor is yours.

15 DIRECTOR MORALES: Thank you, Mr.
16 Chairman. I don't want to go into, unless anyone has 17 any particular questions about the Staff Report.

18 What I would like to talk about real briefly 19 in the time, as we are winding down here is the status 20 of the vacancy announcement for the Office of General 21 Counsel.

22 I'm currently in the process of revising 23 the vacancy announcement. I have had some input from 24 staff assistant here, one of commissioner's staff

1 assistants and some other folks as to how to make the 2 vacancy announcement stronger and more tailored to what 3 our needs are here at the Commission and the mission of 4 the Commission.

5 So, I was hoping to get that out today.
6 Unfortunately, as you have been made aware in the email 7 I sent to all staff and all headquarters is that our 8 electricity is going out at 3:00 p.m. today in the 9 building and it won't come on again until Monday. So, 10 I am going to take it home and do some homework on it.
11 I'm hoping to get it out by the close of business on 12 Monday. I would rather get it right than just get it 13 out.

14 So, if you will allow me and indulge me for 15 another day or so, I will get this out. This is my top 16 priority here. We are hoping to start the interview 17 process within two weeks. And it may be, again, as I 18 have mentioned to some of you, it is a little optimistic.
19 We are hoping to bring a general counsel onboard by 20 September 1, realistically, a little later, given that 21 they have to give their notice and so forth.

22 So, that is the status of that. I wanted
23 to update you on that because I know that is top priority 24 for a lot of folks and that would help us with a lot of 1 challenges we have currently in our mission in getting 2 some of the reports out.

3 And I know certainly I want to do a shout 4 out for Jennifer. She has done an amazing job under 5 some really difficult constraints here, and being the 6 only person in shop in the General Counsel's Office.
7 And so she has been extremely helpful. I worked with 8 her and I just want to make sure that she is acknowledged 9 for stepping up and making this work well. We have been 10 a little short-handed.

11 So, thank you, Mr. Chair.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Any questions for the 13 Staff Director on his oral or his written report that 14 we received in advance of the meeting?

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Mr. Chair, this is 16 Commissioner Yaki. I would just like to say that the 17 Staff Director should communicate to Congress we need 18 our full funding because we can't pay our electric bill.

19 (Laughter.)

20 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: And we need new 21 microphones, too.

22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.

OREGON

CHAIRMAN CASTRO: If not, then we will move on to the last remaining topic, which is the appointment of some State Advisory Committees.

We have got two of them up on the agenda.
The first one is for Oregon. So, I am now going to make a motion that the Commission appoint the following individuals to the Oregon State Advisory Committee, based upon the recommendation of our Staff Director:
Richard J. Elfering, Thompson M. Faller, Fernando
Gutierrez, William T. Harbaugh, Marilyn E. Johnston,
Ping P. Khaw, Kali T. Ladd, Marcella Mendoza, Shoshanah Oppenheim, Joyce A. Waggoner, Richard R. Walker.

Pursuant to this motion, the Commission appoints Marilyn E. Johnston as Chair of the Oregon State Advisory Committee.

These members will serve as uncompensated government employees. Under this motion, the Commission authorizes the Staff Director to execute the appropriate paperwork for the appointments. Is there a second?

CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, any discussion?
Hearing none, I will call it for a vote.

2 sorry. I was just asking my staff assistant to get 3 information.

4 I just wanted to commend the Regional 5 Director for the work they did in trying to put together 6 this slate. I appreciate the fact that there was an 7 inclusion of someone who was at least under the age of 8 40 and also that there was reach outside of -- at least 9 a broader attempt to get more inclusiveness in terms of 10 religion. So, thank you.

11 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Anybody else? I will 15 --

20 SOUTH CAROLINA

20 COMMISSIONER NARASKI: Yes, Mr. Chair.
21 Since I have been raising this, I also really want to 22 appreciate the Regional Director's effort, Jeff Hinton, 23 for really doing some good outreach. And we actually 24 have several people under the age of 35, which is one

1 of the things that I have been raising is trying to make 2 sure that we are getting the viewpoint of younger 3 stakeholders in this debate, as well as finding a person 4 with disability to chair the SAC.

5 So, I just wanted to note that I am paying 6 attention and really appreciate the additional effort.

7 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Okay, any additional 8 comments? Seeing none, I will call it for a vote.

9 Commissioner Kirsanow, how do you vote?

10 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I vote no, based 11 on lack of ideological balance.

12 CHAIRMAN CASTRO: Commissioner Heriot,
13 how do you vote?

14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Can I withdraw my 15 abstention in Oregon and vote no?

16 You know there is a real lack of ideological 17 balance on both these. You know I recognize the staff 18 actually has made an effort here. They did put some of 19 the people on that were recommended to them by the more 20 conservative commissioners but there is a real lack of 21 balance here. We have got to try harder. So, I vote 22 no.
