The North Carolina Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is launching a series of online public panels to hear testimony regarding legal financial obligations in the state, with a particular focus on post-conviction fines and fees. These meetings are open to the public. The first panel will be on June 25, 2020, with additional panels to be announced shortly. The Committee will consider legal financial obligations and their impact on individuals on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, and national origin.

Thursday, June 25, 2020

11:00 am - 12:30 pm ET

To access the meeting, dial 888-394-8218, Conference ID: 215510*

The Committee will have a public comment period to hear public testimony at end of the meeting. Members of the public are encouraged to share their perspectives and experiences with legal financial obligations during this time. Please join the call early if you wish to speak and keep comments to around 3-5 minutes.

The Committee will hold additional meetings through August 2020 to gather additional testimony on this topic. For information regarding upcoming meetings please contact the Regional Programs Unit at the phone numbers to the left. The Committee will issue its findings and recommendations in an advisory memo to the Commission after all testimony has been received.

These numbers are for audio only. There might be accompanying visual components to the remote panel via a webinar platform, including presentation slides. Email Mallory Trachtenberg at mtrachtenberg@usccr.gov if you would like access to these visual elements and a link will be shared.*
