The Michigan Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights recently conducted a study on voting rights in the state. In follow up to this study, the Committee is hosting a series of public meetings to hear testimony regarding voting rights and voter protection in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic. This meeting is free and open to the public.

The meeting agenda is as follows:

- Welcoming Remarks
- Panel Speakers
  - Khyla Craine, Deputy Legal Director, Office of the MI Secretary of State
  - Aghogho Edevbie, Michigan State Director, All Voting is Local
  - Tameka Citchen–Spruce, People with Disabilities Voting Rights Coalition
- Public Comment

To join this meeting, please use both the audio number provided to the left and the online registration link. No audio will be provided through the online link. Persons with hearing impairments may follow the proceedings by first calling the Federal Relay Service at 800-877-8339 and providing the Service with the conference call number and confirmation code. A reserved period for public comment will be held at approximately 1:15p.m. The Committee will accept written testimony submitted to mwojnaroski@usccr.gov by September 30, 2020.

This is the first in a series of meetings the Committee will host on the topic, and it is the only meeting that will take place in advance of the November 2020 election. Based on the testimony received, the Committee intends to publish a brief statement outlining areas of concern for public interest in advance of the election. After the November election, Committee will host an additional series of meetings to evaluate/review the outcomes of the election from a voter protection and civil rights standpoint.
