

Racial Disparities in Policing in Oklahoma

Public Comment:

The Committee will have an open period to hear public testimony in the last 30 minutes of each panel. Members of the public are encouraged to share their perspectives and experiences with the police during this time. You can participate in the panel with either an internet or phone connection. Access instructions provided upon registration.

Written Testimony:

If you are not able to participate in these online panels, the Committee will also accept written testimony emailed to Brooke Peery at bpeery@usccr.gov by January 15, 2021.

The Oklahoma Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is hosting a series of online public panels to hear testimony regarding racial disparities in policing in the state. The Committee will consider civil right concerns with regard to police practices in the state and their impact on individuals on the basis of race or color. Through this fact-finding exercise, the Committee will provide recommendations on the legislation and administration of these topics.
