The Nebraska Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is hosting a series of public, online panel discussions regarding the use of Native American names, symbols and images in school mascots. The Committee will consider the extent to which this use may perpetuate or exacerbate harassment, or a racially hostile learning environment for native students in the state. The meeting agenda is as follows:

Opening Remarks (9:00 am CT)

Panelist Presentations & Committee Dialogue (9:05 –10:15 am CT)

Open Public Comment (10:15 –10:30 am CT)

Adjournment (10:30 am CT)

Members of the public will be invited to speak during the open comment period. Online registration information (audio/visual) and toll-free public access information (audio only) is listed to the left.

Closed captions will be provided. People who are deaf, deaf-blind, or hard of hearing may also follow the proceedings by first calling the Federal Relay Service at 1-800-877-8339 and providing the Service with the conference call number and access code listed to the left. Individuals requiring other accommodations should contact the regional program unit at (202) 618-4158 five business days prior to the meeting to make their request.

The Committee will issue findings and recommendations in a report to the Commission after all testimony has been received.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights.
