Legal Financial Obligations in North Carolina

Hosted By:
The North Carolina Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

Written Testimony:
If you are not able to participate in an online panel, the Committee will also accept written testimony. Written testimony may be emailed to Mallory Trachtenberg at mtrachtenberg@usccr.gov by September 13, 2020.

Thursday, June 25, 2020

11:00 am - 12:30 pm ET

To access the meeting, dial 888-394-8218, Conference ID: 215510*

The Committee will have a public comment period to hear public testimony at end of the meeting. Members of the public are encouraged to share their perspectives and experiences with legal financial obligations during this time. Please join the call early if you wish to speak and keep comments to around 3-5 minutes.

The Committee will hold additional meetings through August 2020 to gather additional testimony on this topic. For information regarding upcoming meetings please contact the Regional Programs Unit at the phone numbers to the left. The Committee will issue its findings and recommendations in an advisory memo to the Commission after all testimony has been received.

*These numbers are for audio only. There might be accompanying visual components to the remote panel via a webinar platform, including presentation slides. Email Mallory Trachtenberg at mtrachtenberg@usccr.gov if you would like access to these visual elements and a link will be shared.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights. For information about the Commission, please visit http://www.usccr.gov and follow us on Twitter and Facebook.
