

Fair Housing in North Dakota

Hosted By:

The North Dakota Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

The North Dakota Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is examining fair housing and equitable access to housing in North Dakota. The Committee is hosting a series of panels to hear testimony. These meetings are open to the public. The second panel will be on Tuesday, July 7, 2020.

Written Testimony:

If you are not able to participate in an online panel, the Committee will also accept written testimony. Written testimony may be emailed to Evelyn Bohor at ebohor@usccr.gov by August 1, 2020.

The Committee will examine the fair housing enforcement practices of the state and local governments and will explore the extent to which state and local entities provide education and outreach activities for those seeking housing in the rental and/or sales markets.

Tuesday, July 7, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. (CDT)
