The Virginia Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is hosting a series of public, online panel discussions regarding police oversight and accountability in the state. The Committee will consider the impact of law enforcement accountability on disparities based on race, color, sex, national origin, religion, and/or disability status that exist throughout the criminal justice system. The agenda for each discussion is as follows:

Opening Remarks

Panelist Presentations & Committee Dialogue

Open Public Comment

Adjournment

Members of the public will be invited to speak during the open comment period. The Committee will also accept written testimony submitted to mwojnaroski@usccr.gov.

The Committee will hear testimony from additional speakers throughout the fall of 2021. Exact dates and times of additional panels are forthcoming. Please consult the federal register or visit www.usccr.gov for more information.

Closed captions will be provided. Individuals requiring other accommodations should contact the Regional Programs Unit to request them.

The Committee will issue findings and recommendations in a report to the Commission after all testimony has been received.
