The Guam Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights will hold its inaugural meeting in-person and via web conference on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, to discuss potential civil rights topics for investigation. This is the first time in the history of the agency that an advisory committee on Guam will convene to advise the Commission on local civil rights matters.

All advisory committee meetings are open to the public. Members of the public are encouraged to attend the meeting in-person or via Webex, and to participate either through oral public comment or by providing a written statement to Kayla Fajota at kfajota@usccr.gov. Chamorro interpretation services will be offered at the meeting for public comment.

Details on upcoming meetings will be made available at <https://www.federalregister.gov>. Meeting records will be posted on the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) database at <https://tinyurl.com/y5hkbkhp>.
