

White House Reappoints Commissioners to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights announces the President's reappointment of two Commissioners to new six-year terms.

On November 25, 2025, the White House informed the Commission of the following Presidential actions:

- Christian Adams, of Virginia, has been reappointed to serve as a Member of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights for a term expiring December 5, 2031.
- Stephen Gilchrist, of South Carolina, has been reappointed to serve as a Member of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights for a term expiring November 29, 2031.

The Commission looks forward to continuing its bipartisan work with Commissioners Adams and Gilchrist to investigate, report on, and make recommendations concerning civil rights issues in the United States.

For more information about the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, please visit www.usccr.gov.

###

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 56 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights. For information about the Commission, please visit www.usccr.gov.