U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Hosts Public Comment Session on Antisemitism on America's College and University Campuses

February 20, 2026 | Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights will hold a hybrid, virtual and in-person, Public Comment Session on February 20, 2026, to hear directly from the public about the increase in antisemitism on America's college and university campuses. This session will build on the testimony that will be given at the Commission's Briefing on February 19, 2026.

The Commission wants to hear from impacted students, educators, university officials, and community members about their experiences with antisemitism on college campuses. The public is also invited to submit written comments. Written submissions may be submitted to asbriefing@usccr.gov no later than March 20, 2026.

This public comment session is a chance for the public to share their own experiences and thoughts to help the Commission continue its work on this important issue.
