U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Public Briefing:

Women in Prison: Seeking Justice Behind Bars

On February 22, 2019, the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights held a public briefing to evaluate the civil rights of women in prison. Please see details at: <https://www.usccr.gov/press/2019/02-20-PR-Briefing.pdf>

The Commission will also accept written materials for consideration as we prepare our report. Please submit no later than March 25, 2019 to womeninprison@usccr.gov or by mail to: OCRE/Public Comments, U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, 1331 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Suite 1150, Washington, DC 20425.

You may view briefing panels 1 and 2, panels 3 and 4, and the public comment session here, here, and here.

In addition, panelists' written testimony may be viewed at: <https://t.co/Z3hLVil9jg>.

The Commission welcomes public input on this important civil rights issue.

###

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights. For information about the Commission, please visit www.usccr.gov and follow us on Twitter and Facebook.
