The Texas Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights is hosting a two-part webinar series highlighting findings and recommendations in its July 2018 Advisory Memorandum, which focuses on the experience of voters in the areas of voter registration, access to and administration of polling locations, and language access. The Committee's Memorandum helped inform Commission's 2018 report, An Assessment of Minority Voting Rights Access in the United States.

Webinar 1: Voter Registration

Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Webinar 2: Access to and Administration of Polling Locations and Language Access

Thursday, April 18, 2019

The Committee will also share recommendations intended for federal, state, and local agencies, and will answer questions from the community.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights. For information about the Commission, please visit <http://www.usccr.gov> and follow us on Twitter and Facebook.
