Re: United States v. New Black Panther Party for Self-Defense et al., No. 09-0065 (E.D. Pa. filed Jan. 7, 2009).

Dear Mr. Shabazz:

I write to you regarding the United States' Complaint filed against you and the New Black Panther Party for Self-Defense on January 7, 2009, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. I work for the Department of Justice and I represent the United States and the United States' interests in this matter.

To date, you have not appeared or otherwise defended in this case. Your default in this case was entered by the Court on April 2, 2009. The United States, under Rule 55(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, will now seek a default judgment against you. As a result of the United States' motion under Rule 55(b)(2), the Court may wish to schedule a hearing in this matter.

Sincerely,

Spencer R. Fisher
