

U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Volunteer Student Internship Program

About the Internship Program

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights invites undergraduate, graduate, and law students to submit applications for our student internship program in the Commission's Headquarters and Eastern Regional Office located in Washington, DC. Positions may also be available in regional offices located in Atlanta, Chicago, Denver, Kansas City, and Los Angeles. Internships are unpaid; academic credit may be available.

In addition, some offices, like Headquarters, may also provide internships to high school students.

Eligibility

You are eligible if you are enrolled in an accredited educational institution and provide a statement or letter from the institution confirming your enrollment.

Available Internships
