Tennessee Advisory Committee to the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights Announces Public Meeting: Civil Rights and Civil Asset Forfeiture

Nashville – The Tennessee Advisory Committee to U.S. Commission on Civil Rights will convene a public meeting to hear testimony regarding the extent to which civil asset forfeiture practices in the state may have a discriminatory impact on the basis of race, color, national origin, and/or disability status.

The meeting will take place on Monday, July 24, 2017, from 9:30 am–4:30 pm, at the Nashville Public Library, 615 Church Street, 3rd Floor, Nashville, TN 37219. The Committee will hear testimony from law enforcement, legislators, legal professionals, and advocacy organizations. Members of the public will be invited to speak during the open forum, scheduled to take place from 3:45 to 4:30 pm.

This meeting is open to the public, with the agenda listed below. Persons with disabilities requiring reasonable accommodations should contact the Southern Regional Office prior to the meeting to make appropriate arrangements. The Committee will also accept written testimony submitted to jhinton@usccr.gov by August 23, 2017. The Committee will issue findings and recommendations in a report to the Commission after all testimony has been received.

Committee Chair Diane Di Ianni stated: “Many states are looking at impact of civil forfeiture on its citizens and communities, and how the revenues are being used. With the recent changes in Tennessee law, it’s important to assess how civil forfeiture is being used in Tennessee.”
