

Public Comments on Immigrant Family Separation
In-person Session: Date to be determined, Washington, DC
Written Submissions: Through February 25, 2019

Owing to a lapse in appropriations, the Commission was not in operation from December 22, 2018 until January 26, 2019. The Commission's originally scheduled public comment session on civil rights and immigrant family separation has therefore been postponed to a later date, to be determined.

The Commission continues to welcome submission of written material on this important civil rights issue. Please submit such information no later than February 25, 2019 to immigration@usccr.gov; or by mail to: OCRE/Public Comments, U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, 1331 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Suite 1150, Washington, DC 20425.

Please see the Sunshine Act Notice the Commission issued in the Federal Register, on December 21, 2018:

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, is the only independent, bipartisan agency charged with advising the President and Congress on civil rights and reporting annually on federal civil rights enforcement. Our 51 state Advisory Committees offer a broad perspective on civil rights concerns at state and local levels. The Commission: in our 7th decade, a continuing legacy of influence in civil rights.
